GATHERING

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O___ my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name

— Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.
3. And on that day, when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

GLORIAGlory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
 Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
 Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 Amen.

The Lord is my light and my sal - va - tion, of

1. The Lord is my light and my help; whom should I fear?
 The Lord is the stronghold of my life; before whom should I shrink?
2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord; for this I long:

The Lord is my light and my salvation

Dear Parish Family,

As I was reflecting over the readings, I remembered a time when I was about 10 years old. I woke up in the middle of the night and as I sat up in my bed, I looked across the room; I thought I saw someone sitting on my chair. I immediately was frightened — who could it be, how did they get in? As scared as I was and noticing that they were not moving at all, I needed to at least turn on the lights. Now in a well lit room I could clearly see that the “person” sitting in my chair was actually just my big stuffed toy that I had forgotten I had left on my chair instead of putting it away. I even chuckled a bit when I realized how silly it was for me to have been scared.

What joy and relief to have the light on to see clearly, to see things as they really are and not as I was imagining them to be.

In our first reading we are told, “The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone.

You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing.” Is 9 1-2 The Light they experience is the light of God, his presence. In God’s light, everything assumes a new significance, its authentic and definitive meaning.

In our Gospel, our first reading is once again echoed, a “light has arised.” As Jesus begins his ministry he calls on his first disciples. He assures them if they follow him he will make them fishers of men. They leave everything and they follow him. Their willingness to leave everything and follow him, makes me think they could see clearly, perhaps not with their human eyes, but with their soul. The light of God made it possible for them to see clearly this was the path they must follow.

May we too see Christ’s light as clearly, for there is a joy and happiness that becomes real in Jesus’ presence. He is the promised light that has come into our midst, His physical presence. Even today we are honored with his presence in the Eucharist. In Jesus we have everything.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Matthew 4:12-23 ~ Jesus calls us to follow him; our lives will never be the same

Jesus' preaching calls for a radical change; the old way of living must be abandoned and embrace a new life following him. Jesus calls you to follow him in particular ways, both big and small. What are some of the small ways in which Jesus calls you to follow him? How does he call you to assist in his ministry in building up God's kingdom on earth?
