 You are the water of life. You are the breath of heaven
 Come fill my hardened heart with mercy, Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 95: If Today You Hear God's Voice

Marty Haugen, Gather #66

If to - day you hear God's voice, hard - en not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord, hail the rock who saves us, let us come now before our God, with songs let us hail the Lord.
2. Come, let us bow down and bend low, let us kneel before God who made us, for here is our God; we the people, the flock that is led by God's hand.
3. O that today you would hear God's voice, "Harden not your hearts, as on that day in the desert, when your parents put me to the test."

11:00—Lord, I Need You

Matt Maher

Lord, I come, I confess
 Bowing here, I find my rest
 Without You, I fall apart
 You're the One that guides my heart

Lord, I need You, oh, I need You
 Every hour I need You
 My one defense, my righteousness
 Oh God, how I need You

Where sin runs deep, Your grace is more Where grace is found is where You are
 And where You are, Lord, I am free
 Holiness is Christ in me

Lord I need You...

Teach my song to rise to You
 When temptation comes my way
 When I cannot stand, I'll fall on You
 Jesus, You're my hope and stay

Lord I need You...

You're my one defense, my righteousness
 Oh God, how I need You
 My one defense, my righteousness
 Oh God, how I need You

As the deer longs
 for streams of water,
 so I long for you
 O God

Thirsting for More

I'm not much of a plain water drinker but I so love my coffee. I absolutely cherish the aroma, the sound the coffee maker makes while it's brewing and finally that first sip. Whether morning, midday or evening, it's never too early or too late for that wonderful cup of java. Even so, I hate to admit it, but coffee generally does not completely satisfy my thirst. I do trust there's nothing like plain water to quench a thirst and I believe I'm not alone to think so. Nonetheless, many of us convince ourselves that the right thing for the moment is that soda, sugar-free drink, or yes even coffee ... after all, it tastes so good!

Much like satisfying a physical thirst, we also seek to quench something much greater within us on a daily basis. We recognize that there's more to life than our five senses can provide so we continue to look for that perfect answer. The real challenge is making the right selection when faced with a choice to quench our spiritual desires. Sin promises us that it can fill that need and it may appear to do so initially. Eventually though, it will certainly worsen our thirst leaving us wanting more. We must therefore reflect on real satisfaction and real hope. This internal drive is our spiritual journey and in a very special way the next three weeks for our elect.

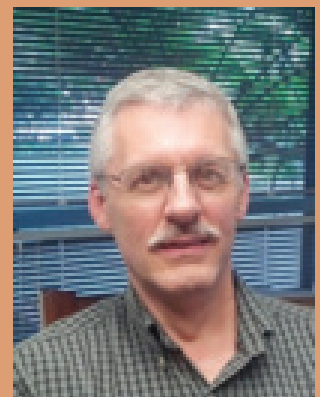

This Lenten weekend, the elect from the RCIA process are invited to undergo the first of three Scrutinies. Their journey continues with contemplation in preparation to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Not only the elect but our entire assembly is also invited to prepare. Each of us is called to reflect on our own life so to ready ourselves to greet the resurrected Christ at Easter. Whether elect or already baptized, we are challenged to find and uncover all that is weak, defective, and sinful within our souls and to strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. We are invited to seek what is truly needed to satisfy our spiritual longing. The greatest news of all is that we do not have wander and look for that spiritual drink alone. Jesus provides us a pathway through his words to the Samaritan woman: "Whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

In just a few weeks, we'll pray, witness and celebrate the baptism of the elect. If already baptized, we will have an opportunity and privilege to renew our own baptismal promises. Our fervent preparation in the remaining days leading to the Easter Vigil will certainly add to the clarity we will experience. I guarantee that the effort put forth now will pay off on that day; there will be Jesus, arms wide open, welcoming us home once again with a wellspring like no other ... so much better than coffee.

Lenten Blessings,

Deacon Luc Papillon

Becoming Catholic

Lent's Connection to Baptism

The liturgical season we now call Lent began in the early centuries of the Church as the period when the Elect (those chosen to be initiated at the Easter Vigil) completed their preparation for the sacraments. In more recent times, all of us fast, pray, and perform works of mercy along with the Elect in anticipation of the great feast of Easter when they are baptized, confirmed, and receive Eucharist for the first time, and we will renew our baptismal promises. This year Padre Serra Parish has sixteen Elect. Their pictures are displayed near the baptism pool. Please pray for them as they approach the waters of baptism. If you would like to know more about the process of becoming Catholic, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 4:5-42 ~ Jesus is the Living Water

In today's story of the Samaritan woman, Jesus uses water as a symbol of God's revelation and Spirit. The encounter between Jesus and the woman causes conversion to take place, and she becomes a witness of faith to the townspeople who also have a conversion. In your life of faith, who have been the witnesses who have led you to a relationship with Jesus? How do you witness and lead others to him?
