RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 130: With the Lord

Francis Patrick O'Brien

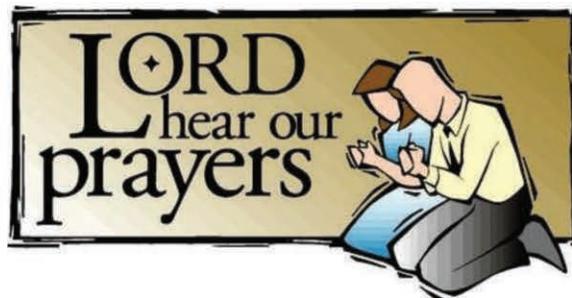

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleading.
2. If you, O God, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
With you is found forgiveness; for this we revere you.
3. My soul is waiting, waiting for the Lord. I count on God's word.
My soul is longing, longing for the Lord more than those who wait for daybreak.
4. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.
Israel God will redeem from all its iniquity.

SENDING FORTHBlessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
 In the land that is plentiful
 Where Your streams of abundance flow
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 When I'm found in the desert place
 Though I walk through the wilderness
 Blessed be Your name

REFRAIN:

Ev - 'ry bless - ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.
 When the dark - ness clos - es in, Lord, still I will say,
 "Bless-ed be the name of _ the Lord, _ bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of _ the _ Lord, _ bless-ed be Your glo _ ri _ ous name." _

Blessed be Your name
 When the sun's shining down on me
 When the world's all as it should be
 Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
 On the road marked with suffering
 Though there's pain in the offering
 Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

BRIDGE:

You give and take a - way, You give and take a - way. My heart will choose to say, "Lord, Bless - ed be Your name." _ You name." _

Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your name.
 Blessed be the name of the Lord, blessed be Your glorious name.

Being Light In the Present Darkness

Dear Friends,

Like most of you, I had no idea the circumstances under which I'd be writing this. Even two weeks ago, we thought our masses would continue on their regular schedule even if fewer of you could be there. Now we find ourselves under order to stay home and practice distancing in order to protect ourselves and one another. Our mass is being celebrated in an empty church and shared digitally with you. Many of you have sent us notes of appreciation and we are grateful and uplifted by them!

Today's Scripture Readings have passages that can serve as prompts for reflection on where God is in our current reality. Since they are God's Word, they bring hope and light, precious gifts that are sorely needed.

The first reading from the prophet Ezekiel where the LORD says that he will "open your graves and have you rise from them" is partly metaphorical, dealing with the future end of the Babylonian exile. But the notes of promise, restoration and God's faithfulness are unmistakable. I say "partly metaphorical" because in today's Gospel reading an actual resurrection from the dead occurs when Jesus calls Lazarus out of the grave.

Friends, the pandemic through which we are living is scary, and on many levels. In addition to fear of the virus and for our own health, there is fear that we may lose someone we love. On top of that there is economic fear, fear of being cooped up, fear of things changing irrevocably, fear of shortage and scarcity, fear of civil unrest and any number of others. Where is God in this? He is right here, with us. The shortest verse in the Bible is in today's gospel: "And Jesus wept" [at the death of his friend Lazarus, and at the pain of his family and friends].

On the other hand, there are many examples of courage and resilience, generosity and charity. If we are to be, as St. Teresa of Avila says, the hands and feet of Jesus Christ; if we are to look with his eyes of mercy on the world, then are not these stories of first responders and healthcare professionals; of families sharing with those in more dire straits than their own; of scientists and civic leaders collaborating reasons for hope and even for joy? Are these not the Body of the Risen Christ ministering to the Body? And what is that if not light in darkness?

Psalm 130 from which this Sunday's responsorial psalm is taken expresses this duality well:

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;

LORD, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to my voice in supplication.

I trust in the LORD; my souls trusts in his word. More than sentinels wait for the dawn, let Israel wait for the LORD.

For with the LORD is kindness and with him is plenteous redemption; and he will redeem Israel.

When this pandemic has run its course and passes, and we are released from enforced isolation, as we first emerge and begin reordering our lives, maybe it will be a little like Lazarus emerging from the grave. And maybe we will live differently. Maybe we will be more patient, more grateful, more loving, and more attuned to God's presence among us. May it be so.

A traditional spiritual communion suggested by Pope Francis (only slightly altered by Father Patrick):

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot receive you now sacramentally, I ask you to come into my heart spiritually. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart, and unite myself to you completely. Please do not ever let me be far from you. St. Alphonse Liguori (1696-1787)

Volunteer

It Takes a Parish!

We are currently considering how to connect people at particular risk, with parishioners who would be willing to shop for them. We are trying to set up a way to respond in a Christian manner. St. Vincent de Paul is continuing their assistance to those in need via phone calls and email. Healthy volunteers under the age of 60 are needed as “runners” to deliver paperwork and groceries, especially as these days and weeks of isolation continue. Training and support will be provided. If you need help or can help, please visit www.padreserra.org/news/it-takes-a-parish

If you are unable to volunteer but would like to help families in need, please consider donating at www.osvonlinegiving.com/4191

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 11:1-45 ~ New life in Christ Jesus

The death from which we are called is healing from those things which bind us and hold us back: memories, fears, rejection, or other such things. What binds you? What keeps you from fully being your own most true self in Christ? In these remaining days of Lent, how can you unbind yourself and leave the funeral wrappings in the tomb?

Pray Psalm 63, vv. 2-9:

O God, you are my God – it is you I seek!
 For you my body yearns; for you my soul thirsts,
 In a land parched, lifeless, and without water.
 I look to you in the sanctuary to see your power and glory.
 For your love is better than life, my lips shall ever praise you!
 I will bless you as long as I live; I will lift up my hands, calling on your name.
 My soul shall be sated, as with choice food, with joyous lips my mouth shall praise you!
 I think of you upon my bed, I remember you through the watches of the night
 You indeed are my savior and, in the shadow of your wings, I shout for joy.
 My soul clings fast to you; your right hand upholds me.

Prayer Life

Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross Garden is available for those who agree to maintain a 6-foot distance from others. If you come as a family, please respect the 6-foot distance others need and allow them to pass. Please do not use the plastic sheets containing the text of the stations. We have no one to sterilize them at this point and they could become a source of contagion. Instead, use the online versions, found at www.padreserra.org/stations. They work really well with your smartphone.
