Praying the Psalms

Steve Picard

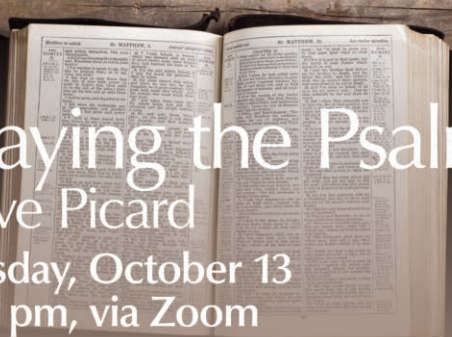

Tuesday, October 13
7:00 pm, via Zoom

The Book of Psalms is a unique collection of 150 song-prayers of Israel. The original melodies have been lost to history, but the lyrics have been prayed to new melodies continuously by the Church through the ages.

In this presentation, Mr. Picard will talk about what makes these prayers so special, why they should be important to us, which ones were special to the Church in the past and which are favored today, and how we might appropriate these biblical prayers as our own.

The Seamless Garment of Life

October is Respect Life Month

All human life is sacred, for we are made in our Creator God's image and likeness, and every person created has dignity, worth and is loved by God.

As Catholics, we are commanded to protect life from conception through natural death, including all the issues humanity faces in between poverty, mental health and suicide, violence, hunger, addiction, abortion, racism, housing, work, healthcare, voting, migrants, the environment, restorative justice, death penalty, education, special needs and disabilities, and so much more. These are situations where Jesus calls us to go and the people for whom he commands us to be his feet, hands, and heart.

To live our Catholic faith is to live the gospel of life. To create a world where every person is loved, each person must spread kindness, mercy, and an authentic understanding of being part of the human family. Only then will abortion and other attacks on human life end.

Learning, action, and prayer are the keys to growing in empathy, mercy, and kindness.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 80: The Vineyard of the Lord

Kevin Keil

Refrain

Ord. Time The vine-yard of the Lord is the house of Is - ra - el. The vine-yard of the Lord is the house of Is - ra - el.

1. A vine from Egypt, you transplanted; you drove away the nations and planted it. It put forth its foliage to the Sea, its shoots as far as the River.
2. Why have you broken down its walls, so that every passer-by plucks its fruit, the boar from the forest lays its waste, and the beasts of the field feed upon it?
3. Once again, O Lord of hosts, look down from heaven and see; take care of this vine, and protect what your right hand has planted, the son of man whom you yourself made strong.
4. Then we will no more withdraw from you; give us new life, and we will call upon your name. O Lord, God of hosts, restore us; if your face shine upon us, then we will be saved.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Our Parish Cornerstone

Dear Faith Family,

I hope that you are all doing well.

The Faith Formation year has started! And while it looks vastly different from our previous years, I just wanted to take time to assure you that the parish staff and volunteers are still committed to sharing the glory of our faith to the children and teens of the parish.

Regarding the Confirmation process, we are beginning our Year 1 classes this Sunday via Zoom. We have had some experience with Zoom during the tail-end of Year 2 Confirmation when the pandemic first hit, so the leaders and I have confidence that digital learning won't deter us from effectively sharing our testimonies with the teens. We have also restarted peer leader meetings on Tuesdays so we can brainstorm to create ideas to evangelize via Zoom.

We have also continued 4:12 throughout this quarantine and it has been a huge success. There is something about the teens using their free time to rejuvenate their faith by spending time with their peers. I know it affects me tremendously. We meet most Wednesdays at 7:15.

Although things look different and we are praying that things start to look the same, I just wanted to share with you that the mission stays intact. Just because the world shut down, it doesn't mean that we should cease "Encountering Jesus and Being Disciples." This, in fact, is the cornerstone of our parish and it would be a failure to divert from this cornerstone.

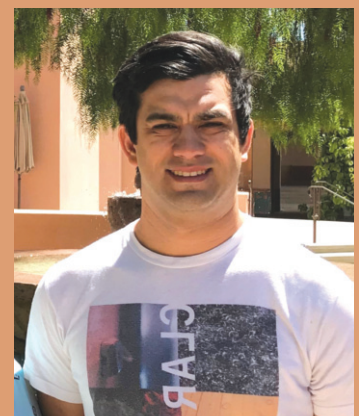

If you have a teen who is interested in 4:12 or leadership, please add us on Instagram (@pspyouth), that is where we post the Zoom information for each meeting (we post the meeting code in the stories). If you or your teen don't have access to Instagram, feel free to email us at youthministry@padreserra.org

I won't lie, this Faith Formation year is definitely a challenge, but what gives me strength is recognizing the integrity of our mission. I am blessed to have so many people within our ministries that help me recognize it, so I am absolutely confident that our leaders will help our teens learn about our mission that during this semester.

God Bless,

Brett Becker
Youth and Young Adult Minister

Safeguard the Children

Take Advantage of TikTok's Parental Controls

The social media site TikTok has exploded in popularity during the coronavirus pandemic, with children and adults using it to connect and pass the time during the quarantine. Unfortunately, predators often target apps like TikTok as easy ways to get in touch with vulnerable children. TikTok has "Family Pairing" capabilities, which allow parents to set restrictions on their children's usage. It is also important to have ongoing, open discussions with your children about how they use social media, who they "talk" to, and what they share. For more information about TikTok's parental controls, visit www.connectsafely.org/tiktok-adds-parental-controls-and-will-disable-direct-messaging-for-users-under-16
