Faith and Society

A Conversation with Camarillo Police Commander Eric Tennesen

Monday, November 16
7:00 - 8:00 pm, via Zoom Webinar

Co-hosted by Mt. Cross Lutheran and Padre Serra Catholic communities

Panelists: Commander Eric Tennesen, Rev. Julie Morris, Fr. Patrick Mullen

Communities are stronger and safer when residents and law enforcement professionals can relate as ordinary people with shared values, hopes, and dreams. The communities of Mt. Cross and Padre Serra are invited to a conversation with Camarillo Police Chief Eric Tennesen, Rev. Julie Morris, and Fr. Patrick Mullen to find ways to work together around our many commonalities, to build bridges and break down biases, and to foster awareness and understanding of training, tactics, and goals of the Ventura County Sheriff's Department.

Limited to 100 participants. RSVP today at www.padreserra.org/faith-society

Seniors Gathering

Wednesday, November 18
10:00 am - 12:00 pm via Zoom

Mike Williams will be presenting Grey Law's Legal Information For the Elderly (LIFE) covering: identifying legal needs; grandchildren and legal relationships; elders at risk; legal documents for elders; resolving housing disputes; communication, hiring legal professionals; when to use the court system and community resource.

A book is needed for this class, so we need to get them to you. One book per household, please. RSVP is required. Visit www.padreserra.org/seniors

Hospitality Ministers Needed

Matthew 22:39 - Love your neighbor as yourself

To make sure that we are all as safe as possible at Mass, we need ministers who are lovingly assertive as they're welcoming.

Duties are to ensure that people sanitize as they arrive, wear their masks properly, maintain six feet distance from those outside their household, and walking with them to their seats.

We especially need people willing to serve at the 4:00 pm Masses on Saturday and Sunday. If you'd be comfortable in this role, please contact dominic@padreserra.org

Angel Tags Christmas Gift Giving

Donations are accepted until December 12.

Help a child or adult have a special Christmas morning! This year, instead of the giving trees, we will be using SignUpGenius, where you will reserve your virtual "tag," find new instructions for wrapping (gift bags only), and new delivery dates.

Contact Geralyn Moody, (805) 491-2602.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 128: Blessed Are Those Who Love You

Marty Haugen

Blest are those who love you, hap - py those who fol - low you, blest are those who seek you, O God.

1. Happy all those who fear the Lord, and walk in God's pathway; you will find what you long for: the riches of our God.
2. Your spouse shall be like a fruitful vine in he midst of your home, your children flourish like olive plants rejoicing at your table.
3. May the blessings of God be yours all the days of your life, may the peace and the love of God live always in your heart.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
 I love you above all things,
 and I desire you with all my heart.
 Since I cannot receive You
 now sacramentally,
 I ask You to come into my heart spiritually.
 I embrace You as if You were already in my heart,
 and unite myself
 to You completely.
 Please do not ever let me
 be far from You.
 Amen.

Small Matters with Big Results

We can learn a great deal by watching young children. They are born with unconditional love and an unburdened innocence that allows them to dream without boundaries. They continue to shape their own individuality as they mature into teens and young adults. Parents observe with love as aptitudes such as artist, writer, listener, or advocate form their lives' mission. Our children ultimately find within themselves talents that can yield big results in their chosen occupations, relationships, or ministerial roles. Some are learned but I believe most are attributed to what God has given each of us as gifts waiting to be shared.

In today's Gospel we hear the parable of the talents. Three are provided an opportunity to grow what has been given them. Two achieve this while the third decides to accept openly what has been entrusted to him but chooses to bury it. His choice has deep personal ramifications while also limiting the growth otherwise available to others. Not unlike this parable, our own decisions and actions with small matters can indeed impact us personally as well as others we encounter.

Each of us should return to what has allowed young children to dream and develop their talents openly. We must pay close attention to small matters that can mean so much in how we support our loved ones and neighbors in need, but we cannot do it alone. Everyone has a responsibility to share his or her God given gifts. Doing so can ensure that topics we personally find most difficult to achieve or face also get the attention they deserve.

I like to think of the sum of our lives' possibilities as a yardstick. We likely will only have enough time, talent, or treasure in our own lifetime to address just one inch of the overall thirty-six. The good news is that each of us can make a difference with our portion. Equally important is that though we are all created in the image and likeness of God, we are given individual abilities and talents. Our contribution of God's love to the world is therefore an opportunity to grow in wisdom and holiness as inch after inch continues to build.

As we approach Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas during these challenging times, we are invited to reflect on what we can do to live out and present the love of God more profoundly. It is not only selfless but also our call as a people of God. What does your portion of the yardstick look like and how will it supplement others' God given gifts?

Endless Blessings,

Deacon Luc and Diana Papillon

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Mt 25:14-15, 19-21 ~ We must use the gifts we have been given
 The servant who buried his one talent cites fear as the reason he hid it. Have you had to battle fear in using your God-given talent? The other servants used and multiplied their talents. What is one gift or talent you have received from God and are using it to serve God's people?
