Hospitality Ministers Needed

Matthew 22:39 - Love your neighbor as yourself

To make sure that we are all as safe as possible at Mass, we need ministers who are as lovingly assertive as they are welcoming.

Responsibilities are to ensure that people sanitize as they arrive, wear their masks properly, and maintain a six feet distance from those outside their household.

We especially need people willing to serve at the 4:00 pm Masses on Saturday and Sunday. If you'd be comfortable in this role, please contact dominic@padreserra.org

Angel Tags Christmas Gift Giving

Donations are accepted until December 12.

Help a child or adult have a special Christmas morning! This year, instead of the giving trees, we will be using SignUpGenius, where you will reserve your virtual "tag," find new instructions for wrapping (gift bags only), and new delivery dates.

Contact Geralyn Moody, (805) 491-2602.

FAIRWAYS TO HEAVEN

Dear friends,

We are blessed to have an engaged and growing group of young people at our parish. We sense that the Holy Spirit is at work here. God is working with and through us.

Fr. Patrick, our leaders, and parents have a deep desire to create space for our young people and provide resources and technologies that will allow them to continue to grow in faith, to understand the mission of Jesus and his Church, to engage in service and fellowship in a place that feels like home.

Fairways to Heaven in "normal" years includes a golf tournament, gala, silent and live auctions, and much more. This year we were limited to hosting an online silent auction that offered a variety of gift baskets, some cool 'church merch' for sale, and just plain old donations. We hope it was fun and raised a little money along the way for our youth and young adults. We'll let you know next week how that worked out. There is still time to jump in; auction/buy opportunities go through Saturday at 4:00 pm! Visit www.padreserra.org/fairways

We want to thank the Fairways committee for their commitment, the silent auction crew for their perseverance, and all of you. Thank you, everyone, for your love and support of our parish, Fairways to Heaven, and our efforts to raise funds for our youth and young adult ministries.

Finally, we wish you and yours near and far the most blessed and grace-filled Thanksgiving holiday. When we quiet ourselves and reflect on our lives, may there be an abundance of blessings that outshine the uncertainties. May all that we do be done through love, with love, and in love.

Siempre Adelante,

Eve Collier

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

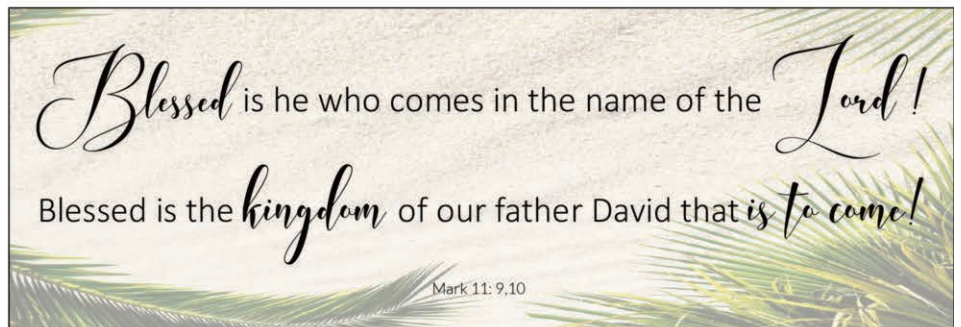

Psalm 23: Shepherd Me, O God

Marty Haugen

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want;
I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love;
I walk by the quiet waters of peace.
2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul;
you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth;
my spirit shall sing the music of your name.
3. Though I should wander the valley of death,
I fear no evil, for you are at my side;
your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.
4. You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred, crowning me with love beyond my power to hold.
5. Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life;
I will dwell in the house of my God forevermore.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

ALL: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter un - der my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
 it is you I seek!
 For you my body yearns;
 for you my soul thirsts,
 in the land parched,
 lifeless and without water.
 I look to you in the sanctuary
 to see your power and glory.
 For your love is better than life,
 my lips shall ever praise you.
 I will bless you as long as I live;
 I will lift up my hands,
 calling on your name.
 My soul shall be filled,
 as with choice food,
 with joyous lips my mouth
 shall praise you!
 I think of you upon my bed,
 I remember you through the watches of night.
 You indeed are my savior and,
 in the shadow of your wings,
 I shout for joy.
 My soul clings fast to you;
 your right hand upholds me.

Thanksgiving Thoughts

Of the 102 colonists who came across the Atlantic to the North America, only 53, just over half, survived that first year to bring in a harvest. More than anything else, this one fact tells us that the first Thanksgiving participants celebrated in spite of terrible suffering, hunger, losses and heartache. Yet, they still found room in the hearts for gratitude. It really is extraordinary.

We've had our own horrible year. I don't need to remind you of everything, between pandemic and politics that we have been through. We've all lived through this together. Can we be as exceptional as the Mayflower passengers, finding our own reasons for celebrating what God has done for us? I know that we can!

For myself, I am endlessly grateful for everyone in the medical field. I have been cheering on and praying for researchers seeking vaccines and cures from the beginning. The brave souls who work with the sick have a most tender place of gratitude in my heart.

I have no end of appreciation for the staff of the parish who have worked so heartily, whether in their offices or from their homes, to continue our mission of encountering Jesus and serving as His disciples. Under extraordinarily tough circumstances, they do so very much to keep us together, to provide liturgies, both in person and online, to serve the needs of our children, to offer us support in our ministries and to provide us adult faith formation opportunities.

Our volunteers, sacristans, lectors, ushers, cantors, musicians, tech crew, and Eucharistic ministers have taken a hard situation and made it an amazingly beautiful experience. Who could have known that we could enjoy Mass outside as much as we have?

I am reminded by the many parishioners who serve in the military just how blessed we are that there are so many good people willing to sacrifice and serve to protect us, our country, and the values that make America a great nation.

I am grateful, in a most profound way, for the parishioners who have continued, in this stressful time, to support the parish financially. We have been weathering this storm with your amazing and much appreciated support. From my heart, I thank you!

And then there are the many small things. I am grateful for the pleasure of autumn chill in the air, the first rain, the sound of children playing on the east side of the parish campus during their recess, the hard work of teachers and parents helping children grow in knowledge and faith.

I am grateful for cooking adventures in the kitchen, the smell of onions and garlic sautéing in a frying pan, the heat of a tasty chili pepper, the taste and texture of cheese – oh how I am grateful for cheese.

I am grateful for a good book, a warm cup of chai tea, whitened with milk, for a lit fireplace when it is chilly outside, and for my favorite playlists of gentle, uplifting music.

I am grateful for my comfortable beach chair, for time on cliffs looking down on the Pacific, for pelicans and porpoises, for sea gulls and sunshine on water.

I am grateful for socially distanced dinners in backyards of friends, for any picnic, for tuna salad sandwiches with tomatoes, for a glass of wine with good conversation.

I am grateful for breath, and touch, and taste and sight, and sound and scent – how can I ever be grateful enough for any of these?

I am grateful to be alive, even in these times.

I am grateful to be here in this place with you.

May you have a happy Thanksgiving, filled with your own long list!

Becoming Catholic

We Welcome Our New Catholics

This past week was a busy and blessed one for our parish! On November 14, Ron Spooner, a baptized Christian, was received into the Church, confirmed, and joined us at the table of the Eucharist for the first time. On November 17, eleven of our Elect were fully initiated through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Communion: Vivian Aldapa, Dan Armitage, Adrian Avalos, Aubriella Avalos, Christian Conley, Shane Conley, Leah Cowans, Lindsey Cowans, Lily Kirksey, David Mitchell, and Christopher Thompson. On November 18, Jim Ramey was also fully initiated. We warmly welcome them all and thank God for their presence among us and the gifts they bring to our parish.

Other Notes

Thanksgiving Day Liturgy

Thursday, November 26, 9:00 am, online. Did you know that Eucharist means thanksgiving? Our local tradition is to bring the bread, wine, or cider that will be shared at the Thanksgiving table to church. We lay them on the altar steps where they will be blessed before we take them back home to serve those we love. This year, since we are celebrating virtually, please have the bread, wine, or cider handy wherever you're watching the livestream. and we will bless it as you hold it.

Have a Blessed Holiday! November 25 to 27

The parish office will close at noon on Wednesday and reopen on Monday. In case of an emergency requiring a priest please call (805) 512-3208.

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 25:31-46 ~ Jesus' kingdom is one of actions and deeds

Today's Gospel describes the final judgment under the figure of a king-shepherd who separates the good and bad animals in his flock. All of us will be judged by God as to how well they care for the weak and disadvantaged. Caring for "the least" of our sisters and brothers seems to be our highest calling. As you grapple with this very strong, direct, and demanding Gospel passage, name the people for whom you have cared personally. What can you do (alone, with friends, or with your family) to help those who are without food, shelter, or have other needs? When have you seen Jesus in the poor?
