

Encounter Jesus, Be Disciples

APRIL 12, 2020 · EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

The Elect are those who are very near to being initiated into the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. The current social distancing due to COVID-19 has prevented them from being initiated at the usual time during the Easter Vigil. Please pray for our 16 Elect, and for all the Elect of the world, as they patiently await the day when they will join us fully as members of the Body of Christ.

We will have online Mass on Sunday at 10:00 am at www.padreserra.org/mass
You can also watch Mass on YouTube at www.youtube.com/psptv/live

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118: This Is the Day

Bobby Fisher

1. This is the day that the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad.
2. Give thanks to the Lord!
Our God is good
whose love endures forever.
Let all the children of Israel say:
God's love endures forever.
3. The right hand of God has struck with power.
The right hand of God is exalted.
I shall not die, but I shall live and proclaim the works of the Lord.
4. The stone which the builder rejected has become the foundation of our house.
By the Lord has this been done.
How wonderful to behold!

The coronavirus has gripped us in its teeth, and within only weeks, left many with the sense that it would never end. We remember the pleasures of everyday life, often take so much for granted: trips to the store without fear, time spent in crowds, the hugs of friends, our children's soccer games, crowded concerts, noisy restaurants. Is it possible to miss crowded restaurants? We can't pretend it's not happening, yet...

Jesus is risen – He is truly risen!

Every generation, throughout human history, has its own story to tell about death and rebirth, be it rooted in financial ruin, warfare, flood or drought, tornado, violence, tyranny...or plague.

Our greatest struggles all too often, betray our weaknesses: we become frightened or rebellious against restraints, we hoard, we struggle with authorities making decisions for us, we grow angry and aggravated with the people we live with, our friends, family and neighbors. Familiarity (and forced enclosure) breeds...aggravation. We can't pretend it's not happening, yet...

Jesus is risen – He is truly risen!

Jesus experiences the Passion first, death second, and only then renewed life and reunion with the Father in the Ascension. So, even on this otherwise joyful day, when we are experiencing a national passion, where many have died and many are still dying, there remains the hope of renewal and reunion, with family and friends, and with Jesus. This too may happen...

Jesus is risen – He is truly risen!

On the other hand, our resistance to the crisis also helps us grow immensely when, through self-reflection, we refine our rough edges and recover from our relationship problems. Through our struggles, we can grow stronger and find clarity as we seek new visions and purpose for our lives. How much more life giving that rebirth is when coupled with the intimate experience of God's presence, giving renewed meaning to our sufferings, accompanying us in our struggles, and giving our hearts reason for rejoicing. This growth, too, is happening...

Jesus is risen – He is truly risen!

If I can give you any encouragement in this confused, unwell time, it would be to live in the face of an uncertain future. It would be to cherish small joys, celebrate courageous actions and be grateful for the generous help of the essential services going on around us. Don't wait for a trouble free, coronavirus free, aggravation free time to live fully. Choose happiness. Choose family and friends. Choose your neighborhood. Choose your co-workers. Choose life.

Jesus is risen – He is truly risen! And he would have us rise, too, both here and now, from our covid ridden weeks, and on into eternity.

My prayers are, of course, for your health, for a strong trust in God, and for an Easter that is joyfully full of the people who matter to you, whether in person, or on the phone, or the internet.

Jesus is risen – He is truly risen!

The University Series ~ Thank You

Bob Jordan and Diana Johnson thanks the Padre Serra team for another faith-filled, albeit short-lived, season: Rita and Ed DaCorsi and Teresa Runyon who are part of the core team providing the foundation and commitment from the first planning meeting through the final presentation; the dedicated registration and hospitality volunteers who made the presentations welcoming for the attendees; and finally, Fr. Patrick Mullen, and the rest of the parish staff who ensured the parish facilities and equipment are available. We look forward to the 2021 Season, which marks our 20th anniversary. Happy Easter!

Easter Sunday ~ Jesus' resurrection - the heart of our faith, life, and journey!

Central to today's gospel is how the participants come to believe in the risen Lord. Jesus' closest friends had trouble believing that the tomb was empty. Resurrection is surprising. What does Jesus' resurrection mean in your life? Name one way or time when you experience the presence of the Risen Christ? Is it at meals? With those whom you love? At other times?
