RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 103: The Lord Is Kind and Merciful

Jeanne Cotter

1. With all my heart I praise the Lord, and with all that I am, I praise his holy name!
With all my heart I praise the Lord! I will never forget how kind he has been.
2. The Lord is merciful! He is kind and patient, and his love never fails.
He doesn't punish us as our sins deserve.
3. How far has the Lord taken our sins from us? Farther than the distance from east to west!
Just as parents are kind to his children, the Lord is kind to all who worship him.

COMMUNION SONG

Psalm 42: Song of Exile

Marty Haugen

As a deer longs for run-ning streams, so my soul longs for you, and my heart thirsts for the God of my life. When shall I go to see the face of God?

1. I remember, and my soul melts within me:
I am on my way to your wonderful tent,
to the house of God, singing my songs of joy and thanksgiving.
2. I am broken, so I call to my Savior;
as the waves roar down, sweeping over my hand,
and I call to you, be with me now, O God of my life.
3. In the daytime, may the Lord's love be with me;
in the night your song will be still on my lips.
I will sing to you, sing your prayers to you, the God of my life.

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
it is you I seek!
For you my body yearns;
for you my soul thirsts,
in the land parched,
lifeless and without water.
I look to you in the sanctuary
to see your power and glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips shall ever praise you.
I will bless you as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands,
calling on your name.
My soul shall be filled,
as with choice food,
with joyous lips my mouth
shall praise you!
I think of you upon my bed,
I remember you through
the watches of night.
You indeed are my savior and,
in the shadow of your wings,
I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me.

One God, One Love, One Gift

Dear friends on the journey,

Have you ever been amazed, or even baffled, by the deep love someone has for you? Or received a gift so unexpected that you are mystified by the thoughtfulness and love behind it? Got it in your mind? How did you respond? Did you see that person in a new way? Did their love cause you to act differently, and not by way of reciprocation but because their love just changed you?

Now multiply that love by a gazillion. That is God's love for you and his gift to you is Jesus, the way of salvation. Today's gospel is John 3:16, probably the most quoted and known scripture passage of all time. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only son..." God's love is manifested in gifts to us. At the beginning of salvation history, God gave us the earth and all her creatures and plants to enjoy. Through the chosen people, the Israelites, God called us into a covenantal relationship. Then God's ultimate gift of Jesus fulfilled the covenant and brings us believers back to God's self to live a glorious eternal life.

As Christians, our salvation comes through belief that Jesus is our way to eternal life. I have known this intellectually but to be quite honest, it wasn't until my Fundamental Theology class at the seminary five years ago when I had a profound moment that my heart just suddenly knew it. I truly felt God's love for ME and knew that Jesus died for ME. When our hearts know it, our natural and only response is to live it by being the best Christian we can be and sharing that reality with other.

Our response is to see the world as God sees it, to see all of God's creation as good, to love others just like God loves us and be in relationship with one another. It sounds simple but to our human eyes and hearts it can be much more complex. Focusing on the cultures and peoples that please us is much easier but dangerously comforts us. Relating to and loving the others becomes more difficult or impossible.

We are not seeing much love these days. News and social feeds are filled with images of death, hate, destruction, and division. From Covid 19 to acts of racism to looting to earthquakes to our own personal traumas, we are suffering and hurting. We are frustrated and angry. What do we do with all of us this?

I think we take it step by step. First, we care for ourselves. Sit with our thoughts and feelings, taking it to God in prayer then listening. Embody scripture especially today's gospel and second reading: "mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss." We remember that we are called to act with love, patience, kindness, humility, compassion, and empathy. We remind ourselves that the God made every human being beautiful and good, in a wide array of color, voices, and smiles among many cultures, foods, dances, and traditions. All life is sacred, and no one should be left behind to be sick, hungry, homeless, devalued, dehumanized, discarded.

Then, we turn to appropriate action. Everyone will be different. Perhaps it is through education and awareness, moving from reaction to conversation, physically standing in solidarity, working for systemic changes and equality, putting one's self in another's shoes, righting a pained relationship, putting on God's eyes to see. Whatever it is, may it be with kindness and God's love. Your response could just be the gift that changes one person, one heart, and one mind at a time.

Teresa Runyon
Faith Life Minister

Safeguard the Children

Teach Children Everyday Actions to Reduce Germ Spread

It is appropriate to frequently remind your children about ways to avoid or minimize the spread of germs and to start practicing at home. Tips: Stay away from people who are coughing, sneezing, or sick. Remind them to cough or sneeze into a tissue or their elbow, then throw the tissue into the trash. Teach children to wash their hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, especially after blowing their nose, coughing, or sneezing; going to the bathroom; and before eating or preparing food. If soap and water are not available, teach them to use hand sanitizer. Hand sanitizer should contain at least 60% alcohol. Supervise young children when they use hand sanitizer to prevent swallowing alcohol. For more information: www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/daily-life-coping/talking-with-children.html

John 3:16-18 ~ God so loved the world that he gave his only Son

Today's Gospel passage tells us the depth of God's love and generosity and that belief in Jesus, God's greatest gift to us, is salvation. If you were to encourage the members of your own family and parish to live as a "community of love," which is how we define the Trinity, how would you advise them to live? Use St. Paul's list of exhortations as your starting point.

Pray

Last Sunday, we received the gift of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday. This Sunday we are reminded in the Gospel that: "God so loved the world that He gave us his only Son....."

Jesus gave us the gift of a beautiful prayer that we pray together every Sunday when we gather for Mass, the "Our Father."

Together as a family, consider this 2-minute Catholic Kids Media meditation on the "Our Father": Click on this link:

- Write a thank you note to God for the gift of His love and mercy and how you will show your love for God this week.
- Create and decorate a "Gratitude" basket or box. Have every member of your family read aloud and share their thank you notes to God, then place the notes in the gratitude basket/box. Place the basket/box in a prominent place in your home so that whenever you pass by it, you are reminded of God's love for you.

Volunteers

Reopening Help

The new guidelines require volunteers for some of the new safety and health requirements. In the words of the archbishop, "High-risk individuals (e.g., people who are 65 and older, who are immunocompromised or who have underlying health conditions) should be discouraged from serving in any capacity that brings them into contact with others." With that in mind I ask any parishioner of high school age or older, who is not health compromised, to consider assisting us in one of the following ways:

- We need many volunteers, either to exchange unused chairs for clean ones or to sanitize the chairs in place between the Masses.
- Because we can only have 100 attendees, for the time being, we need volunteers to guide parishioners and count them as they enter.
- We need to create a rotation on the tech team to serve as camera operators for livestreaming.
- The state has asked us to take temperatures, make sure all have masks, and ensure the use of hand sanitizing before entrance into the body of the church. We will need volunteers to assist us in those tasks. We are in the process of gathering safety equipment to make this possible in as secure a way as possible.
- The archbishop has also allowed us to open our holy places for prayer, but only so long as there is someone to oversee the safety of all who come. So the parish needs parishioners to serve as hosts at the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. We will determine the opening hour based on the availability of willing hosts.

If you can assist in any of these tasks, please email Jane, our receptionist, at jane@padreserra.org, and be as specific as you are able with your availability, contact information, concerns, and which tasks you are open to undertaking.
