RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 145: I Will Praise Your Name Forever

Dominic MacAller

I will praise your name for - ev - er, my king and my God, my king and my God.

1. I will extol you my God and king; bless your name forever and ever.
I will bless you every day and praise your name forever and ever.
2. The Lord is gracious and merciful; slow to anger and full of kindness.
The Lord is good to all and compassionate to all his works.
3. Let all your works give you thanks, O Lord, and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them speak of your might; tell the glory of your kingdom.
4. The Lord is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works;
lifting up all those who fall, and raising up the ones bowed down.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

Take My Yoke Upon You and Learn from Me

Dear Friends,

Like so many Americans, in the past few months, I've felt confused, fearful, sad, and outraged related to the recent black deaths, peaceful protest being met with police violence and violent protests causing destruction in major cities across the United States. I've engaged in conversations with family members and friends about the anxieties that we are carrying. During one conversation my niece stated, "It's different for you. You have Jesus!" To which I wanted to balk and ask, "What difference does that make?" Instead I took a deep breath and let her continue talking.

At that time, I had no idea that the text for this Sunday included these words of Jesus: "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

During the past few weeks, I've thought about the words my friend said to me "It's different for you." I've asked myself what Jesus' words about our anxieties and burdens mean in the context of the world of coronavirus and civil unrest.

Today's gospel begins with Jesus praising His Father for revealing to little ones what remains hidden to the wise and the learned. He adds a declaration, that the Father has delivered into His hands all power, authority, and judgment. He knows all our weaknesses and that sometimes the little strength we have can fail us. Therefore, He invites us to offload all our problems on Him and in return He will give us His yoke, to learn from him, which is easy to bear and light. Jesus tells us that in Him we will find rest.

Don't we all seek this deep down sense of peace, of healing, of rest and refreshment? Why do we struggle along with so many things? We often do though. We forget to pray. We forget to turn to Jesus and give him our cares and concerns, our worries, our heartaches. We carry them like weights sometimes on our shoulders, disturbing the peace of our hearts. Jesus said, "learn from me" and this is excellent advice. His life was founded in prayer. We too need to revive our prayer life. In a single moment God can impact the grace we need to handle the things that cause us the most heartache, if we only give him half a chance.

My niece is right. It makes a difference when you have Jesus. Because it is Jesus who is saying to use my way not this world's way. My way is humble and gentle. My way every person has value and worth because every person is created in the image of the God. My way says to you, you are God's beloved. "It makes a difference when you have Jesus!!!"

Your sister in Christ

Safeguard the Children

Practice Safe Social Distancing This Summer

As our churches, parks, and stores reopen to the public, it’s still important that we maintain good hygiene and practice safe social distancing. As Archbishop Gomez has said, “the coronavirus is still out there, it is still contagious, and it is still dangerous.” As a family, work together to limit the spread of COVID-19 by washing your hands vigorously for at least 20 seconds, wearing masks when out in public (unless your children are too young), and staying home if you feel sick. For more information on social distancing practices, visit angelusnews.com/local/la-catholics/catholic-churches-in-archdiocese-of-la-to-reopen-under-phased-plan
