RESPONSORIAL PSALMPsalm 85: Let Us See Your Kindness

Dominic MacAller

Let us see your kind-ness, O Lord, grant us your sal-va - tion, O God.

1. God, how I long
for the peace you proclaim,
your salvation and glory
near to all who revere your name.
2. Kindness and truth shall meet,
justice and peace shall kiss;
truth shall spring forth from the earth
and justice look down from heaven.
3. You, yourself, will give these gifts;
our land shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall walk before you,
and salvation along your way.

I wait for the Lord:
my soul waits for
His word.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion

O God, you are my God,
it is you I seek!
For you my body yearns;
for you my soul thirsts,
in the land parched,
lifeless and without water.
I look to you in the sanctuary
to see your power and glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips shall ever praise you.
I will bless you as long as I live;
I will lift up my hands,
calling on your name.
My soul shall be filled,
as with choice food,
with joyous lips my mouth
shall praise you!
I think of you upon my bed,
I remember you through
the watches of night.
You indeed are my savior and,
in the shadow of your wings,
I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me.

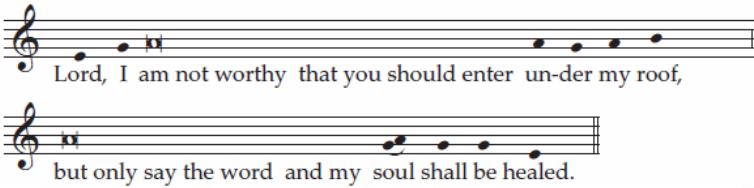

Psalm 63:2-9

Invitation to Communion

behold Him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.*

ALL:

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter un-der my roof,
but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Same Storm, Different Boat

Dear friend on the journey,

During this global pandemic of Covid-19, I heard repeatedly, “At least we’re all in the same boat.” A more accurate rebuttal is, “We are in the same storm, not the same boat.” Everyone’s experience of the lockdown is varied, not necessarily better or worse, just different. My fears of the virus are not the same as my dear friend, a cancer survivor living with type 1 diabetes. An ICU nurse’s experience of the pandemic is not the same as the corporate executive working at home. Same storm, different boats.

In today’s gospel, a storm is overwhelming the boat carrying the disciples across the Sea of Galilee. In the darkest of night, the wind and rain are churning the waves, violently tossing the boat and its passengers. Seeing this from afar, Jesus knows very well how the apostles are feeling. Fear and despair are consuming them. They desperately want safety and comfort. Jesus walks out on the water to meet them in the middle of the stormy sea to encourage them not to be afraid; he is there for them. This gospel offers two messages. In our personal storms, Jesus knows our fears and anxiety and comes to us, offering courage and a refuge of love and grace. The other message is how to act like Jesus by becoming more aware of another’s fears and needs. His actions in this gospel are an example and invitation to us to be his hands, feet and a refuge for family, friends and neighbors in their stormy times.

In the midst of this pandemic storm, there still exists the storms of illness, hunger, poverty, homelessness, addictions, abuse, grief, and right now the storm of racism has intensified. Each storm churns up fear, worry, concern, pain and suffering. If the storm affects one, it affects all because we are all children of God, equally made in God’s image, equally loved by God. Jesus gave us two commands: love God and love each other. They are not mutually exclusive; they are one in the same.

In the storm of racism, as Christian disciples we can no longer be idle and say “it’s not my problem.” Racism in all its forms is a life issue and we are called to respond, not react, no matter the discomfort. This is a big issue so how do we start? A place to begin is by simply learning. Educating ourselves about the issue involves prayer, reading, researching, and listening. Only then can we act with confidence. Remember the boats are different so listening to another’s story is key. Stories can soften hearts, provide deeper insight and generate compassion.

I invite you Tuesday via Zoom to listen to personal stories, really listen with open hearts and minds to the stories of three parishioners, three mothers who parent their children of color with unique challenges, concerns, fears. Page two of today’s bulletin has details or visit our website www.padreserra.org/news/our-truths. Upon registration you will receive an email with the Zoom login.

Right now, we can have an opportunity to approach another’s boat with compassion and love, just like Jesus did for his apostles. See you Tuesday night.

Siempre Adelante,

Teresa Runyon

Matthew 14:22-33 ~ If we believe, we will be saved

In today's Gospel, Peter began to walk on the water when he was focused on Jesus. He began to sink when he got distracted by the storm. What is your life like when you are focused on Jesus and your relationship with God? How is it different when you get caught up in other things?
