GATHERING*Come and Follow Me

Francis Patrick O'Brien

If you choose to be my dis - ci - ples,

If you plan to fol - low where I lead,

Take up your cross and de - ny your ver - y selves. Then

Last time only

come and fol - low me. Come and fol - low me.

1. God has anointed me that I may hear
The cries of all who are oppressed.
I know their doubt and fear. I know their pain.
Who will release them, give them rest?
2. My life is emptied out for those made low.
I bear their burden and their strife.
I win them victory upon a tree.
Who will give comfort, bring them life?
3. The one who saves my life will raise me high.
God is my help, God is my shield.
Called forth from death to life, you too shall rise.
In you the cross will be revealed.
4. If you would save your life, lose it in me.
Take up my cross, take up my name.
Release the burdened ones, set captives free.
Be faithful till I come again,

Psalm 25: Teach Me Your Paths

Dominic MacAller

1. Your ways, O Lord, make known to me.
Teach me your paths, teach me your paths.
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God, my savior.
2. Remember that your compassion, O Lord, and your love are from old.
The sins of my youth and frailties remember not.
In your kindness remember me, in your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord.
3. The Lord is good and upright.
Thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice, and teaches the humble his way.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire you with all my heart.
Since I cannot receive You
now sacramentally,
I ask You to come into my heart spiritually.
I embrace You as if You were already in my heart, and unite myself
to You completely.
Please do not ever let me
be far from You.
Amen.

Solitude

While stay at home orders, and general discomfort with the direction of the pandemic has forced many people to sequester themselves away, quietly in their homes, to stay well, that has not been true for me. My own life has carried on, though in different forms than usual. Daily and weekend Masses are happening outside or by livestream. My counselling appointments and marriage preparations are either by Zoom or in the courtyard, with facemasks, rather than comfortably in my office, but it works fairly well. Wedding and funerals have continued; visits to the sick, so long as they are home, have also carried on. Deacon Neil has been working on repairing everything in the parish plant, and Gaby has worked so very hard to provide an increasingly professional live-streamed liturgy on Sundays, each requiring planning with me. I feel that my time has been well spent, but it is time for a small break.

With some frequency, Jesus would go off to quiet places to pray, in each of the Gospels, but especially in the Gospel of Luke (4:42; 5:16; 6:12; 9:18, 28; 11:1 22:41). What is good for Jesus is good for me, too. So when you get a chance to read this I will be away for retreat at the House of Prayer for Priests, down by Griffith Park, and taking a few days for my post-Christmas break. It's a little late, but it's when I could accomplish it. I promise to stay safe – as my retreat will be private, rather than in a group, I will be quite safe. I do get a few additional days of downtime, which will most likely be long hikes in quiet places. Ever since my time on the Camino I have felt drawn to taking some time in prayerful conversation with God on long walks. It has been a blessing for me.

I encourage you, too, to look seriously at the time you have been spending alone. I invite you to consider the difference between loneliness and solitude. The former is often painful, filled with longing and a sense of incompleteness. The latter, solitude, though, is anything but that, springing from either a place of contentment and wellbeing, or desire for growth and transformation.

When our hearts are full of gratitude, when our body is well or when our relationships are in order, spending time to contemplate the goodness of our lives and the gratitude we have for God can be a total grace. When we have reason for discontent, not with others, but with our own actions or history, with unsettled issues from the past or important questions about the future, time alone with the Lord can be an opportunity for astounding growth.

In either case, it is possible for us, even the extroverts among us, to profit from time spent alone with just the Lord in attendance with us in our thoughts. To do this right though may require us to consider how to set things up correctly. For example, a comfortable chair might seem the perfect place for reflection ... but only if you don't fall immediately asleep, signaling that maybe one of our needs might be better sleep patterns. It's one of the reasons I prefer to walk while I reflect. Our own homes or offices, with all of the competing tasks, and the calls of others for our attention, might be hostile to deep reflection. Retreat centers, parks and the coast are excellent places for reflective time. Some people reflect better with music, while others find music distracting. Knowing what takes you inward, and silences the distractions may take some practice.

I encourage you to be deliberate about taking some regular and even frequent time for solitude, in the Holy Presence of God. It will mean that your life can be intentional, rather than undirected. It will enable you to dwell on your many reasons for gratitude. Perhaps most importantly of all, the Lord desires an intimacy with us that only time alone, together, can provide.

Know that I will be praying for you on retreat, as I do, in fact do every day.

Love from your priest,

Fr. Patrick

Becoming Catholic

The Catholic Way of Life

Catholicism is not merely a set of doctrines to which we give assent. It is a way of life rooted in a love relationship with Jesus and with each other. So one does not become a Catholic simply by attending a class. Seekers "catch being Catholic" by entering into the life of the parish: attending Mass, building relationships, and serving others. This is a gradual process and the time it takes varies with the particular background and circumstances of each seeker. It is a faith journey that all of us share as we encourage one another along the way. The purpose of the Tuesday evening meetings is to assist the seekers as they strive to enter fully into the Catholic way of life. For Zoom information please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org
