The Spiritual Work of Racial Justice: A Month of Mediations with Ignatius of Loyola

Patrick Saint-Jean, S.J.
Thursday, August 12, 7:00 pm, via Zoom

Using the Ignatian retreat format, this book of meditations offers an opportunity to continue the pursuit of racial justice as a necessary component of faith. Each meditation is grounded in spiritual practices as well as history to heal our battered souls and bereaved hearts, using reflection, journaling, and reading in openness, humility, and prayer to lead us to concrete acts of love for our neighbors. Come to meet Patrick Saint-Jean, listen to his experiences and see how his new book might serve you.

Learn more and register at www.padreserra.org/cst.html#racial-justice

Patrick Saint-Jean, S.J., PsyD, currently teaches psychology Creighton University, where he is also a psychotherapist. He enjoys jazz, traveling, and learning new languages and plays the guitar, harmonica, and drums.

GATHERINGI Am the Bread of Life

Sr. Suzanne Toolan

I am the bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

The bread that I shall give is the my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread, you shall live forever, you shall live forever.

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.

I am the Resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live forever.

Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ,
the Son of God, Who has come into the world.

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34: Taste and See

Marty Haugen, Gather #45

Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, the good - ness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, God's praise ever in my mouth.
 Glory in the Lord forever, and the lowly will hear and be glad.
 Glory in the Lord, with me, let us together extol God's name.
 I sought the Lord, who answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
 Look to God that you might be radiant with joy, and your faces free from all shame.
 The Lord hears the suffering souls, and saves them from all distress.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND GIFTS

Refrain: All

*U - bi ca - ri - tas est ve-ra, est ve-ra: De-us i - bi est, De - us i - bi est.

The love of Christ joins us together. Let us rejoice in him, and in our love and care for all now love God in return.

In true communion let us gather. May all divisions cease and in their place be Christ the Lord, the risen Prince of Peace.

May we who gather at this table to share the bread of life become a sacrament of love, your healing touch, O Christ.

For those in need make us your mercy, for those oppressed, your might.
 Make us, your Church, a holy sign of justice and new life.

May we one day behold your glory and see you face to face, rejoicing with the saints of God to sing eternal praise.

Break now the bread of Christ's sacrifice;
Giving thanks, hungry ones, gather round.
Eat, all of you, and be satisfied;
In Christ's presence the loaves will abound.

Seek not the food that will pass away;
Set your hearts on the food that endures.
Come learn the true and the living Way,
That the fullness of life may be yours.

Love as the One who, in love for you,
gave himself for the life of the world.
Come to the One who is food for you,
That your hunger and thirst be no more.

Take in the light that will never dim,
Taste the life that is stronger than death.
Live in the One who will come and then
Raise you up at the last with the blest.

Dwell in the One who now dwells in you;
Make your home in the life-giving Word.
Know only Christ, Holy One of God,
And believe in the truth you have heard.

Drink of this cup and declare his death;
Eat this bread and believe Easter morn;
Trust his return and, with ev'ry breath,
Praise the One in whom you are reborn.

Taste and See the Goodness of the Lord

Dear friends on the journey,

Today's first reading from 1 Kings reminds me of a familiar experience. God's prophet Elijah killed the prophets of Baal. In retaliation Jezebel threatened Elijah's life so he fled and embarked on a forty-day journey, following in the footsteps of Moses, to the mountains to encounter God. In scripture, many humans met God face to face on a mountaintop – Abraham, Moses, Jesus.

How on earth is this a familiar experience, you ask? Unlike Elijah, I have not literally had to escape death, but certainly have needed to get away from the stresses of life. On Elijah's journey in the desert, he came upon a tree where he stopped to sleep, eat, drink and rest. Then strengthened by the experience, Elijah was able to walk forty days and forty nights to the mountaintop.

Summer is a natural time to take a break. Families with children get a break from school. The warmer weather calls us to enjoy the outdoors. Even in parish life some ministries pause during the summer and a slower pace gives staff and leaders time to rest and plan. But no matter the season really, we all need a break from the routine. We all need a pause to rest and renew our body, mind and soul.

As I write this I am preparing for a week away at our family's beach house in Cayucos, a very much needed change of scenery and pace. My family of three is joining my sister's family of five and my cousin's family of four to enjoy each other's company, sleep a little later, play games, swim, visit wineries to drink of the harvest, eat good food, and simply just rest. In general, I look forward to tasting and seeing the goodness of the Lord as today's responsorial psalm reminds.

I picture our life like a journey on the highway where, every now and then, we stop at the rest stop to stretch our legs, nap, and grab a snack. It is in this type of resting and pausing that we can look back and celebrate where we've come from and be recharged for the next leg of the trip. God created rest when he created the world. On the seventh day, God rested. Later God made it a commandment and not a law for the sake of it but because God knows we need rest. So why not take advantage!

These rest stops are essential to our body and mind as Jesus is for our soul, our spiritual life. Every Mass Jesus nourishes us in the Eucharist. In these last weeks of summer, I encourage you to find a tree or mountain like Elijah, even just a day or weekend. Start with Mass then enjoy good rest, food, and drink, and taste and see the goodness of our Lord.

Siempre Adelante,

Jn 6:41-51 ~ Jesus the Living Bread

Bread nourishes us physically, and Jesus as the living bread nourishes us spiritually. "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him." How have I experienced God's call? How have I responded to that call? How has the Eucharist nourished me in my journey?

Becoming Catholic
