GATHERING

All Are Welcome

Marty Haugen, Gather #850

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live.
A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
Rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions:

Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true,
Where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for Your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 146: Praise the Lord, My Soul

Timothy R. Smith

1. The Lord is faithful forever, giving justice to the oppressed and food to the hungry. The Lord frees all the captives.
2. The Lord restores the blinded and straightens those bowed low. The Lord protects the stranger; the Lord loves the just.
3. The Lord guards widows and orphans, but the way of the wicket he blocks. The Lord shall reign forever, for every generation.

Be Opened

The Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center is one of my favorite places. I so look forward to returning annually to revitalize that space within where my true self and God's love dwells. I have found over the years and not unexpectedly, that I become most aware of His presence when I enter the weekends with no expectations for a specific outcome but rather an openness and a listening heart. I remember one such moment in 2018 before the morning bell.

I got up early that day and made my way to the gazebo nestled against the hills where cars can be seen but not heard. I sat down by myself to ponder the beauty of God's creation around me. I listened and watched with a smile as a single quail graced a corner beam repeating a most beautiful sound. Soon, two hummingbirds approached the quail in what seemed to be a choreographed dance only they can do while the melody continued. I sat in awe watching for some time until the birds (all three of them) flew away in the same direction and together. I spent the rest of the weekend pondering what I had just witnessed. What was God saying to me? Had He just invited me to be opened, to truly listen?

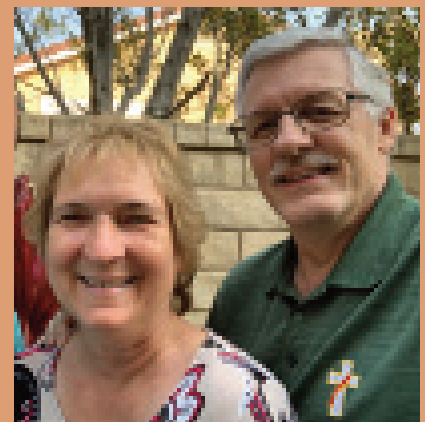

In our Gospel this weekend, we read of a deaf man who is cured of his affliction at the hands of Jesus and his spoken word, "Ephphatha" meaning "Be opened." By doing so, Jesus tore down the barriers that kept the man from living life to the fullest. I suspect this is at least one of the lessons for me as I continue to reflect on what I witnessed that morning.

Each of us is provided opportunities throughout our lifetime to be opened to God's message of love and life. The fact that we all have a chance to witness His message differently shows the perfection in this great plan. For you, perhaps you will become more open when looking through the eyes of a loved one, in serving the poor and oppressed, or while participating in many of Padre Serra's Ministries. Great news is that you do not have to limit yourself to just one such event. God moments and our ability to hear His voice are around us daily and always, maybe even in three birds landing, singing, and dancing in your backyard.

Endless Blessings,

Deacon Luc and Diana Papillon

Mark 7:31-37 ~ Opening up to the power of Jesus

Today's Gospel story portrays Jesus' healing as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy. The deaf man is healed when Jesus touches the parts of him that are weak and impaired. Reflect on an experience of faith when your own ears were "unplugged," when you heard the message of Jesus differently.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

God told the prophet Isaiah what to say to us when we feel afraid (Isaiah 35:4).

To find what that is,
use the star code to fill in the circles.
Then tell a friend what you have learned!
