RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 116: In the Presence of God

Tom Kendzia

I will walk in the pres-ence of the Lord.
I will sing of the good things that God has done for me.
I will walk in the pres-ence of the Lord.

Text: Psalm 116:9, 1-10, 15-18. Text and music © 1996, Tom Kendzia. Published by OCP Publications. All rights reserved.

I love the Lord because he heard my voice in supplication, for God has inclined his ear to me; on the day when I called.

The cords of death encompassed me, the snares of the netherworld seized me. I fell into distress and sorrow, and I called on the Lord, "save my life!"

Gracious is the Lord, and just; yes, our God is merciful. The Lord keeps the little ones; When I was brought low God saved me.

For God has freed my soul from death, my eyes from tears, me feet from stumbling I shall walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the

Being and Doing

Dear friends on the journey,

Throughout my younger years, I spent a lot of time living out my faith. I had wonderful examples in my grandparents, parents, teachers, and mentors so it was natural for me to become an altar server, a weekly mass goer, teen peer leader, summer camp leader, Eucharistic minister, fundraiser, catechist for preschoolers, teens, adults including parents baptizing children, a parish secretary and later a business manager. I was doing a lot of disciple's work in God's vineyard.

But about seven years ago, I realized I was "doing" but without really "being" ... being in relationship with God, at least not in the way that I thought possible. So I embarked on a journey to change this. I learned about different spiritualities, forms of prayers, engaged in spiritual direction, went on retreats, had thoughtful conversations about faith, and through these I began and continue to deepen my relationship with God. I encountered Jesus for the first time. Don't get me wrong, I had strong faith. I was a believer. But my eyes, mind and heart were opened to what it means to be in relationship with God the father, God the son and God the Holy Spirit.

I don't say all that to toot my own horn but to echo the message in today's second reading from James.

Indeed someone might say, "You have faith and I have works." Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

We need both faith and works. When we are rooted in relationship with God, when we love God and rest in God's love for us, the automatic response then is to give that love to others. In loving others, it is necessary to return inward to be nourished and guided by God. Faith is rhythmic, that ebbs and flows, inhaling and exhaling, receiving and living.

Today begins our three-week ministry fair where we showcase the ministries that support that rhythm. Not only those ministries where you live out your discipleship and "do" for God and others like James affirms, but also those ministries that feed and support you spiritually, pastorally and to just "be" with God. You know the analogy of the airplane oxygen mask: put yours on first then help others. Perhaps you need to care for yourself first, or maybe you're ready to give. Wherever you are in your faith rhythm, I invite you to come and see after all morning Masses. Are you in a place of needing to breathe in, wanting to give, or desiring both?

Faith Life Minister

What cross do you bear right now as you try to follow Jesus? Instead of asking God to ease your burden, pray in thanksgiving that God gives you renewed strength to face the challenge in your path.

Ministry Fair

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God of us all, who is over all and through all and in all.
