GATHERING

Gather Your People

Bob Hurd, Gather #837

Refrain

Draw us forth to the table of life:
brothers and sisters,
each of us called to walk in your light.

We are parts of the body of Christ,
needing each other,
each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

No more harm on the mountain of God;
swords into plowshares.
Free us, O Lord, from hardness of heart.

Wash us, Lord, in the waters of life;
waters of mercy,
waters of hope that flow from your side.

Glory to God

Jason Stoll

REFRAIN:

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for Your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 19: Your Words, Lord, Are Spirit and Life

Bob Hurd

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul.
The decree of the Lord s trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye.
3. The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever;
the statutes of the Lord are true, all of them just.
4. They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb.
5. Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

Where Your Treasure Is

Marty Haugen, Gather #749

Where your treas-ure is, there your heart shall be. All that you pos- sess will nev - er set you free. Seek the things that last; come and learn from me. Where your treas-ure is, your heart shall be.

What do you gain from all your worry.
What you should eat or what to wear?
There is no peace in stress or hurry.
Do you not know that you are held within God's care?

Look at the ravens high above you.
They do not work their whole life through,
And yet God feeds them and protects them.
So how much more will God protect and care for you?

Behold the lilies in their splendor.
In grace and beauty are they dressed,
And yet so soon their bloom is faded.
So how much more will those who look to God be blessed?

Do not fear, little flock,
For God delights to give you the blessed reign of God.
Give your presence to the needy;
Gain a treasure that will not fade.

Your Grace Is Enough

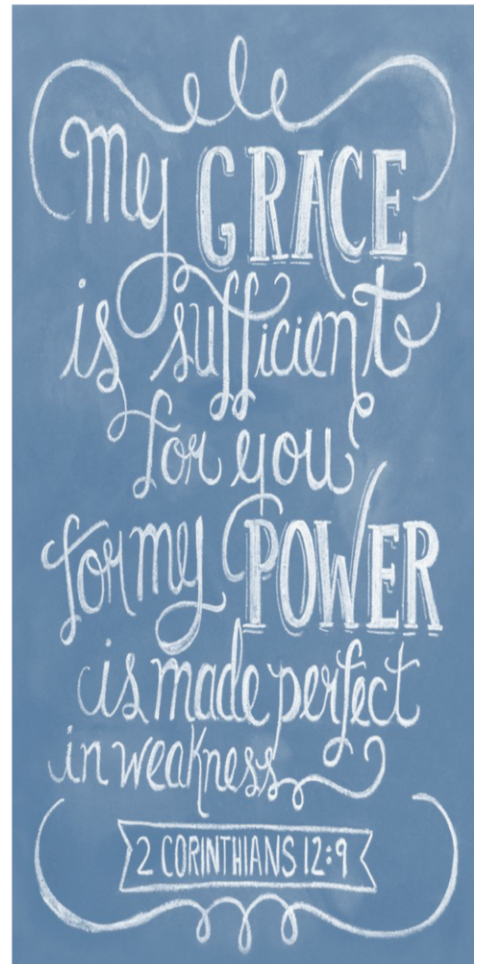

Matt Maher

Great is Your faithfulness, O God;
 You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart.
 You lead us by still waters into mercy,
 And nothing can keep us apart.

So re - mem - ber your peo - ple, re - mem - ber your chil - dren, re - mem - ber your prom - ise, O God.
Refrain
 Your grace is e - nough, your grace is e - nough, your Great is your love and justice, God of Jacob.

 You lead us in the song of Your salvation.
 And all Your people sing along.

Shamrocks, Scorpions and Our Madonna

We've all had so many deprivations and moments of discomfort these past months, quarantining and masking, endless Zoom for school and work, socializing outside in the heat and the cold, endless discussions and disagreements about what works and what doesn't, and on-and-on. There is yet a harder truth of this past year. Some Padre Serra parishioners have died from Covid, both the very elderly with multiple comorbidities, and young people who puzzled us in their passing, leaving some of us grieved and bewildered. Other parishioners, some younger than you might think, were hospitalized and suffered many weeks before excruciatingly slow recoveries. Many parishioners have also spoken to me of family members and friends, not part of our parish, who have suffered, some of them dying. My own Uncle John, Mom's brother, is one of them. All of these stories break our caring hearts when we hear them.

We also grieve for the many family members and friends denied access to the hospitalized in their suffering. Many people requested me to visit people in the hospital or in convalescent care. For well over a year, though, administrators denied me access to most facilities and every hospital except Community Memorial, even though I identified myself as a priest. This had been a very hard year, hasn't it?

Because of all our struggles, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles suggested that we do something significant to acknowledge all the suffering, everything that has happened to us, everything done to keep us safe, both the stumbles and the successes. I thought this was a very good idea.

Recalling the scorpion and shamrock amidst our church's ceiling's stars, and how they represent our patron, Padre Serra, and our founding pastor, Msgr. Kidney, I decided to do something similar, hiding elements of significance for this year in a holy image. I received inspiration from our patron, Padre Serra, who journeyed to the shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe to dedicate himself and his missionary work at her shrine. With this in mind, we commissioned a local artist, Lalo Garcia, who has installed artwork in many places in the archdiocese, to do an image for us... with a difference.

Working with over 20 artisans in Puebla, Mexico, the heartland of handmade Talavera tile, he fashioned an image that, from a distance, appears to be an ordinary image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Up close, though, there are faint crosses around her in blue and brick colors, commemorating those who have died (the blue of heaven) and those who suffered but still live (the earthen color). Hidden around the pattern of her corona is a faint face mask. At her feet is a graph, reminding us of the many waves of the virus that have hit here and throughout the world. Within her corona are a small vial of vaccine, and a medical needle. On our Lady's dress, amidst the decorations, is a tiny image of the virus. The angel, normally at Mary's feet where the graph is, flies socially distanced, above her, yet apart. Around the angel's neck is a stethoscope, to remind us of who have been our angels, for extended periods in extreme difficulties.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, unlike some of the other wonderful apparitions of Mary, appeared here, on our continent. She is our Lady, our Madonna.

During the 9 am Mass this weekend, we will unveil the image, outside the church, on the eastern wall of the church building facing the square behind the Serra Center where we have prayed at the Mass on the Grass. Our whole hope, throughout, was to keep people as safe as we could while we learned what worked and what didn't. The Mass on the Grass has made that square a holy place. It's so fitting that this image of Jesus' Mother, appearing to comfort the conquered and suffering people of Mexico, should become for us, a symbol for us in the time of our own great struggles.

I encourage you to make a little pilgrimage to the image, after its unveiling, to remember this year, to pray for God's mercy on the deceased, to ask God's strength and healing for the sick, and to stand with Mary in our own desire to heal the world by God's grace.

Siempre adelante,

Fr. Patrick

Safeguard the Children

Understanding VIRTUS® “Protecting God’s Children”

Child sexual abusers often target nurturing, child-friendly environments, where parents and participants assume that no one would ever want to harm a child. Religious organizations are prime examples. The VIRTUS® Protecting God’s Children helps adults be “proactive” in protecting children and young people from child sexual abuse through early identification, awareness, and education. Saturday, October 16, 2021 • 10:00am-12:00pm (in-person)
