Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est. Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 29: The Lord Will Bless His People with Peace

Dominic MacAller

The Lord will bless his peo - ple with peace, with peace. The Lord will bless his peo - ple with peace.

Give to the Lord, you children of God,
 give to the Lord glory and praise.
 Give the Lord glory due his name,
 adore in holy attire.

The voice of God is over the waters,
 the Lord, over vast waters
 The voice of the Lord is mighty;
 the voice of the Lord is majestic.

God of Glory thunders,
 and in his temple all say, "Glory!"
 The Lord is enthroned above the flood, enthroned as King forever.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

God is Pleased with You

Dear Faith Family,

I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and a blessed New Year.

This Sunday, we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus. Within the Gospel, we recognize the humility of John the Baptist. We also see the pride that God the Father has for His Son, when he says, “You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased.”

At first glance, this makes all the sense in the world. Of course God, the Father, would be pleased with the actions of His perfect Son. Jesus is truly God, so he would never fail at pursuing what is asked of Him. At second glance though, we need to recognize that this Baptism, is to remind us of our own Baptisms as well.

Sometimes when we think of the Sacrament of Baptism, we think that it is a necessary step for us to be card-carrying Catholics. Original Sin must be washed away from us so we can cease to be heretics or something.

In reality though, when we were Baptized (or when we are Baptized), we are not only without Original Sin, but it is also an establishment of a covenant with the God who loves us.

So, that sounds nice, but what exactly is a covenant? We tend to think that a covenant is an agreement between two parties, a fancy way of saying contract. In terms of our faith, though, it is quite more profound than that. A covenant is an act of establishing kinship. We see this throughout Salvation History (Adam, Moses, David, etc.). Simply put, a covenant is an agreement between us and God to be family. He is our Father and we are his children.

Because of that, whenever one is Baptized, God essentially says the same thing to us as he did to Jesus: “You are my beloved son/daughter, with you I am well pleased.” Not only does Baptism purify us from Original Sin, it also is a Sacramental Act where we accept God as our Father and God accepts us as their kin. It is quite a beautiful Sacrament and a really big deal!

While we celebrate wonderful feasts and holidays throughout our liturgical year, I also recommend that we find ways to celebrate our personal Baptism days! We celebrate birthdays in celebration of the past, why not celebrate our formalized kinship with the God who loves us?

If you are not sure when your Baptism feast is, feel free to call the parish and see if they can look it for you. Why not have another reason to party?

God Bless,

Brett Becker

What Women of the Bible Teach You
About Your Mission and Worth

Seeds of Faith

A new series begins
Monday, January 17
7:00 pm, San Miguel room

In a world where everything feels fleeting and temporary, we are made for everlasting life; we are meant to experience God's abiding love. You Are Enough uses the timeless tales of the bible to clarify that truth for modern women. Our women's ministry's new book study will help us see how God's love for each of us shines forth through the stories of the women of the Old Testament; connect with the hopes, dreams, struggles, and experiences of these remarkable women; learn how the lives of these women contain valuable lessons for our lives today; and find hope and encouragement as you discover that you are enough.

Join SEEDS (Sisters ~ Embracing ~ Enlightening ~ Daughters of Faith), a monthly evening of spirituality for women who want to grow deeper in faith and affirm our mission and worth as God's daughters and Jesus' disciples.
