Refrain

Text: Based on 1 Corinthians 12; Isaiah 2:3-4; 11:9. Text and music © 1991, Bob Hurd. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

Draw us forth to the table of life:
brothers and sisters,
each of us called to walk in your light.

We are parts of the body of Christ,
needing each other,
each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

No more harm on the mountain of God;
swords into plowshares.
Free us, O Lord, from hardness of heart.

Wash us, Lord, in the waters of life;
waters of mercy,
waters of hope that flow from your side.

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 147: Praise the Lord, Jerusalem

Bob Hurd

How fitting to sing out in praise, to glorify God, who rebuilds Jerusalem, gath'ring Israel's exiles home.

How mighty and great is our Lord, and wise beyond telling!
The Lord lifts the lowly up and the Lord casts the wicked down.

The God who gives strength to your gates and blesses your children, who blesses your land with peace and provides you with the finest wheat.

To Jacob the Lord gives his word, to Israel, statutes;
no other nation has God so blessed, alleluia, alleluia!

Saint and sinner welcome in to this meal of harmony.
Lonely people, next of kin journey toward the glory tree.
Gathered strangers, scattered sheep, at this table all are fed.
Blood and body bonds run deep as your kingdom feast is spread.

May we see the Christ revealed in the breaking of the bread.
Living stories, holy meals, we become what we are fed.
Broken shattered, fragile life, now received by you and me.
Eating, drinking, joy and strife, Gospel living sets us free.

See the Christ in saddened sighs, blood poured out in every land.
Wounded people, wailing cries lie upon our outstretched hands.
Jesus is the way through death; truth beyond the present rage.
Life unfolding, healing breath now enfleshed in youth and age.

Bless us, Lord, and these your gifts, fruit of vine and human hands.
With our hearts and minds we lift all the goodness of these lands.
Praise and thanks we shout and sing, from your bounty we are blessed.
Joyfully all gifts we bring to receive our Lord and guest.

Death and life in water meet, drenching us in floods of light.
Marking us with oil so sweet, clothing us in glorious white.
Priest and prophet, spirit led, we are God's new living sign.
Feeding on this holy bread, drinking of this holy wine.

Witnessing to love and peace, hands of blessing we remain.
Helping fear and hate to cease, we bring forth God's wondrous reign.
Strength and power here we find, given in this kingdom feast.
We go forth to heal and sign everyone, both great and least.

Ave Verum Corpus

William Byrd

*"Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary,
Truly suffered, sacrificed, on the Cross for humanity.
From whose pierced side water gushed forth, and blood.
Be for us a foretaste in the rest of death."*

Raising Disciples

Hello Friends,

In a world of confusion, frustration, and souls that are lost, raising a family in faith has never been more important. The values of the world are often contrary to what Jesus is teaching us. A strong faith in Jesus is the foundation we need to withstand whatever the world throws at us.

Reflecting on what it takes to raise a child, the story of Jesus staying behind in the Jerusalem temple and getting separated from his mother and father comes to mind (Luke 2:41-52). Two aspects of this story give us insights into two important aspects of Christian parenting.

The first is that Mary and Joseph thought Jesus was part of the larger caravan and went a day before realizing he was not with them. They entrusted Jesus' care to their community of family and friends. This tells us that raising a child will necessarily require the help of others who are on the parenting journey with us. The second is that Jesus tells his parents that he was in his father's house. Here Jesus is showing us that God needs to be central and important in our lives.

For those of us who are graced with children to raise, parenting is the single most sacred and important task we will ever do. Bringing a child into the world comes with the responsibility of providing for their physical and emotional needs. However, the most important thing is to tend to their spiritual needs by leading them to encounter Jesus and to be his disciples.

In the spirit of building a faith community of parents who desire to pass on their faith through their ministry of parenting, we would like to invite you to consider signing up for our next Christian Parenting series, which begins Wednesday, June 14 and runs for eight weeks. In these sessions, you will learn with other parents how to incorporate your faith into the raising of your children to also become disciples of Jesus.

We leave you with the following from a parish parent who participated in our first session:

Participating in the Christian parenting ministry was a blessing for me! I really enjoyed getting to know the other parents, learning about my faith, and helping my family grow closer to one another. The videos and small group discussions helped me to understand what I can do to be a better parent and to live my life more intentionally with my family. One of the best gifts this program gave to me was to realize how important presence is to my son. In this age of being constantly distracted and busy, I have learned to slow down and appreciate the time I have with him. I have also learned how important it is to pray with my son and teach him the importance of faith in his young life. Overall, I highly recommend this ministry if you want to help your children grow in their faith, meet other parents, and build your domestic church! - John A.

John 6:51-58 ~ The Eucharist is the center of our faith

In the Eucharistic celebration, we enter again and again into an unbreakable relationship not only with the God revealed in Jesus but with each other. Does receiving the Eucharist change how you treat those around you? How can the Eucharist create a sense of community and unity among believers? How can you deepen your understanding of the Eucharist as a symbol of spiritual unity?
