Refrain

Text: Based on 1 Corinthians 12; Isaiah 2:3-4; 11:9. Text and music © 1991, Bob Hurd. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

Draw us forth to the table of life:
brothers and sisters,
each of us called to walk in your light.

We are parts of the body of Christ,
needing each other,
each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

No more harm on the mountain of God;
swords into plowshares.
Free us, O Lord, from hardness of heart.

Wash us, Lord, in the waters of life;
waters of mercy,
waters of hope that flow from your side.

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23: Shepherd Me, O God

Marty Haugen, Gather #35

God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want;
I rest in the meadow of faithfulness and love;
I walk by the quiet waters of peace.

Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul;
you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth;
my spirit shall sing the music of your name.

Though I should wander the valley of death,
I fear no evil, for you are at my side;
your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.

You have set me a banquet of love
in the face of hatred, crowning me with love beyond my pow'r to hold.

Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life;
I will dwell in the house of my God forevermore

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND GIFTS

In This Place

Verses
1. We are all hun-gry peo-ple, we need shel-ter and strength. We are one in our hurt-ing, we are one in our pain. In our suf-f'ring and sad-ness, we are saved by the grace of the pow-er and the Spirit that is here in this place. We are gath-ered at ta-ble as one in the Lord. We are gath-ered as peo-ple who are liv-ing the Word. Our hearts and our spir-its are nur-tured by grace. It is Je-sus who fills us. He is here in this place.

Refrain

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of t'he body, and life everlasting.

Amen.

Trevor Thomson

All our lives are a Myst'ry;
we see not where they lead.
We are asked now to trust you and we know we must believe.
As our feet become Christ's feet,
we go forth with the grace
of the power and the Spirit
that is here in this place.

Though the world may tell us
to look at ourselves,
we reach out to another
where suffering dwells.
As our hands become Christ's hands,
we are healed by the grace
of the power and the Spirit
that is here in this place.

In the bread that is broken
is the Christ that restores.
As we take, now receive him,
we find love evermore.
As the bread becomes Body,
we are filled with the grace
of the power and the Spirit
that is here in this place.

- O, how long, how long will it take 'til the lion lie down with the lamb?
'Til we turn our swords into plowshares, and peace like a river flows over the land?
- In your death, you ended our dying; in rising you brought us new life.
Quickly come in glory O Lord,

There are Hints in the Scriptures

Dear Friends,

It has been mentioned before that there is a link between the First Reading from the Old Testament and the Gospel on any given Sunday. That link is very clear this weekend with the prophet Isaiah describing the feast the Lord himself will provide for all peoples and the Gospel parable where Jesus likens the kingdom of heaven to a wedding feast for the king's son.

Isaiah's description of the joys and delights that await the faithful on the Lord's mountain is often proclaimed at funeral masses, and appropriately so – a reminder of what awaits us when we are finally reunited with those we have lost and with the Lord when he will “wipe away the tears from every face” can strengthen our faith and hope when we are grieving a loss.

The wedding feast in Jesus' parable has more complexities. The invited guests twice refuse to come and they come to a bad end after mistreating and killing the king's servant messengers. (Can this be a reference to the Chosen People rejecting the Lord Jesus Christ?)

We know the story. The king sends servants this time out not to the invited guests, but to the main roads to invite everyone they find to the feast. (Is this a prophecy of the universality of the church – where not only the Chosen are invited in but the Gentiles as well; in other words, everyone?)

Then comes the part that is mysterious to me: “But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, ‘My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?’ But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, ‘Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.’ Many are invited, but few are chosen.”

What are we to make of this? I, for one, have to get beyond my preoccupation with “fairness” and literal-mindedness: How can someone who was drafted into the feast from the highways and byways be expected to be properly dressed for it? And how is it that the other guests, similarly gathered from the great “unwashed herd” are somehow properly dressed?

It leads me to think about what the wedding garment symbolizes (if I do succeed in getting past my literal-mindedness). Maybe it is an interior disposition, an attitude of humility and receptivity without any worry about who else was brought in with me? I've heard some say that the missing wedding garment is simply love.

In any case, if the feast on the Lord's mountain is for all peoples as the first reading says, and the proper garment is love, then I guess I'll have to just depend on God's mercy and providence to somehow get me there. There are hints in the scriptures that that may be a safe bet.

When you are at Mass, how well do you really participate? How could you be more present in heart, mind, and spirit?

Adopt-A-Family

The Christmas season will soon be here!

St. Vincent de Paul is seeking parish families to commit to purchasing Christmas gifts for the children of local families in need.

Parents will provide ideas for their children so you know your gifts meet each child's wants and needs.

Your support will bring joy to your family as well as to the family you adopt during this holiday season.
