God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 96: Give the Lord Glory and Honor

Dominic MacAller

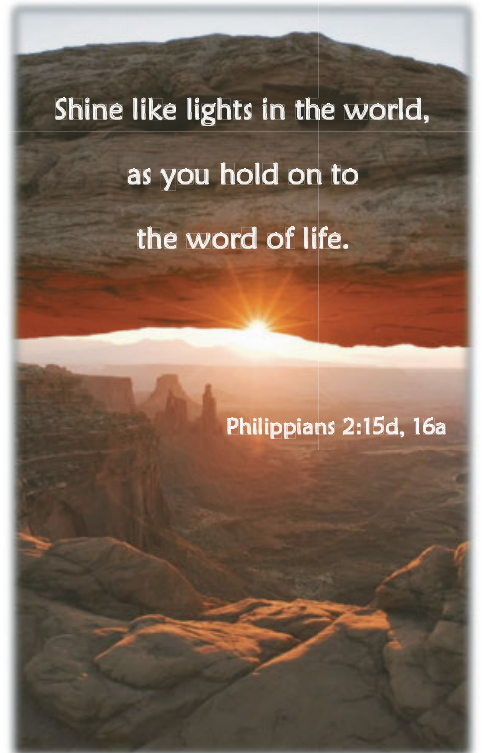

Give the Lord glo-ry, glo-ry and hon-or. Give the Lord glo-ry and hon-or. _____

1. Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all you lands.
 Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.
2. For great is the Lord and highly to be praised; awesome is he, beyond all gods.
 For all the gods of the nations are things of nought, but the Lord made the heavens.
3. Give the Lord, you families of nations, give the Lord glory and praise.
 Give the Lord glory due his name! Bring gifts and enter his courts.
4. Worship the Lord, in holy attire; tremble before him, all the earth;
 Say among the nations: The Lord is king, he governs the peoples with equity.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of t^he body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

What would you gain from all your worry,
What you should eat or what to wear?
There is no peace in stress or hurry.
Do you not know that you are held within God's care?

Look at the ravens high above you.
They do not work their whole life through,
and yet God feeds them and protects them.
So how much more will God protect and care for you?

Behold the lilies in their splendor.
In grace and beauty are they dressed,
and yet so soon their bloom is faded.
So how much more will those who look
to God be blessed.

Keeping things in their proper perspective

Dear Parish Family,

In today's Gospel, the religious leaders of the time plotted to entrap Jesus in his speech. They thought they would trick him into saying something unlawful against the Romans or against the strict Jewish laws by questioning him about the payment of taxes. At the time, Herodians, Jews who collaborated with the Romans, favored the payment of taxes, while the Pharisees taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. They wanted Jesus to side with one of them and at the same time expose him to the breaking of either the Roman laws or the Jewish religious laws.

In a single question, his opponents asked him to choose between the ideal of a religious life separate from the dominant culture or a life so fully immersed in that culture that religious practice and identity are lost. I want to rephrase this question to something that perhaps you or I could be asked today.

Are you Catholic first and American second or American first and Catholic second?

How would you respond to this question? Do we follow the laws of the land, or do we only follow the laws of our faith? Can we do both?

Jesus did not fall for their tricks. His response is perfect: "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's." Jesus reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God? We are part of this country with many just laws that align very well with our religious beliefs. Yet others, though on the surface seem ideal and extremely popular for the greater society, are unjust and destroy human dignity.

As participants of society we have a responsibility to actively participate in the common good, a moral and ethical act that affirms the dignity of each and every human person. To the best of our ability, we should live a life of a "good participating public citizen" without compromising our faith and our souls. In other words, let us look to do good, and live out our faith in every facet of our lives, at work, school and homes. It is possible to do both.

Blessings,

Tere Delgado

The effects of alcoholism reach beyond just the drinker. Parents, spouses, children, and friends are impacted. Al-Anon has but one purpose: to help families of alcoholics. In group sessions, loved ones of alcoholics share their experience, strength, and hope and focus on changing attitudes that can aid recovery. Linda Leo will share more about Al-Anon in general, including meeting formats and the Twelve Steps. 7:00 pm, San Fernando room. Questions/RSVP: teresa@padreserra.org

Becoming Catholic

Various Paths to Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always considers each person's unique background, circumstances, and needs. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet Mary to explore the possibilities and create a plan for you. Or perhaps you want to learn more about your spouse's faith. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet every other Tuesday evening in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions without judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Mary Huebner today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x321 or becomingcatholic@padreserra.org. Visit www.padreserra.org/becoming-catholic

Giving

World Mission 2023

This year's World Mission Day theme is "Hearts on fire, feet on the move." Just like the disciples who met Jesus on the road to Emmaus immediately went to tell others about their encounter with him, Pope Francis said, "Our proclamation will be a joyful telling of Christ the Lord, his life, his passion, his death and resurrection, and the wonders that his love has accomplished in our lives." This mission has always been the hallmark of the Church, for "she exists to evangelize" (SAINT PAUL VI, Evangelii Nuntiandi, 14). May God bless you for your compassionate missionary spirit! For questions, please contact pam@padreserra.org. Visit www.padreserra.org/world-mission

Stewardship Means Sharing

Give God the first serving, the first portion of our gifts. Giving is not based on the church's need for money, but on our need to give back to God as a way to say 'thank you.'

In the Community

El Dia De Los Muertos ~ November 4

Widely celebrated in Mexico, El Dia De Los Muertos, the Day of the Dead, is an opportunity for family and friends to gather in joyous celebration and remembrance of their deceased loved ones. Santa Clara Cemetery in Oxnard will host a celebration from 10:30 am - 5:00 pm that includes Mass, music, activities for kids, and dancing. Details: www.catholiccm.org/diadelosmuertos

Feast of Faiths ~ November 5

An interfaith dinner to discover diverse traditions and beliefs, fostering unity in dialogue and understanding among religious communities. Immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of cultures as you indulge in halal cuisine prepared by a Persian chef (or vegetarian alternative). Engage in enlightening conversations and learn about different religious practices, customs, and traditions. 4:00 pm, 1201 Paseo Camarillo. Info/tickets: www.vcic.info/feast-of-faiths-5

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Matthew 22:15-21 ~ Keep your priorities clear

Today's gospel makes a distinction between the political and the spiritual realms, implying that we have duties to both. While we are not called to withdraw from secular life completely, our involvement can and should be in partnership with God so we can make the kingdom of heaven present here on earth. What runs the risk of becoming an idol in your life — money, politics, material goods, power, social media? Where do you spend your time, talent, and treasure? Does this spending align with what you claim to value?

All Saints Day Mass

Wednesday, November 1,
Masses: 8:00 am and 7:00 pm

A Holy Day of Opportunity to honor all saints, named and unknown, with a special feast day; together with them, we are one Church.

Saints care about us and remind us that we can all be holy; together with them, we are one Church.

Come to Mass to thank God for their example and stay after for refreshments in the courtyard.

Adopt-A-Family

The Christmas season will soon be here!

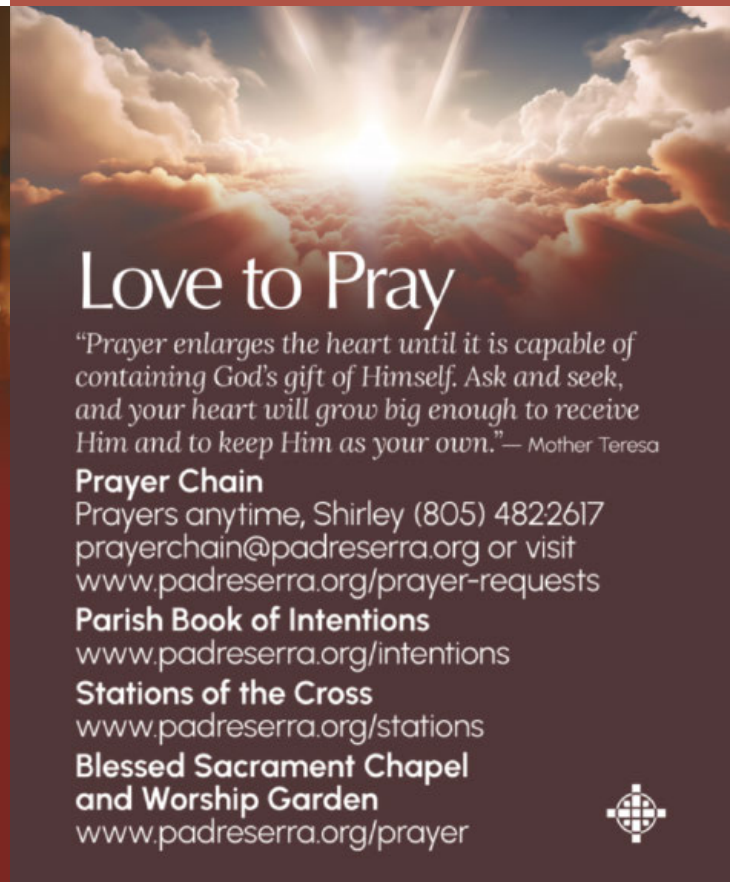

St. Vincent de Paul is seeking parish families to commit to purchasing Christmas gifts for the children of local families in need.

Parents will provide ideas for their children so you know your gifts meet each child's wants and needs.

Your support will bring joy to your family as well as to the family you adopt during this holiday season.

Love to Pray

"Prayer enlarges the heart until it is capable of containing God's gift of Himself. Ask and seek, and your heart will grow big enough to receive Him and to keep Him as your own." — Mother Teresa
