GATHERING

Sing of the Lord's Goodness

Ernest Sands, Gather #610

Sing of the Lord's goodness, Father of all wisdom,
come to him and bless his name.
Mercy he has shown us, his love is forever,
faithful to the end of days.

Power he has wielded, honor is his garment,
risen from the snares of death.
His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken,
new life he now gives to all.

Courage in our darkness, comfort in our sorrow,
Spirit of our God most high;
solace for the weary, pardon for the sinner
splendor of the living God.

Praise him with your singing, praise him with the trumpet, praise God with the lute and harp;
praise him with the cymbals, praise him with your dancing,
praise God till the end of days.

1. Praise to you, O gracious God, your faithfulness endures.
 You rebuild Jerusalem and gather all the lost.

 How you number all the stars and call each one by name.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

My Soul Is Thirsting

Michael Joncas, Gather #55

My soul is thirst - ing, my soul is thirst - ing, my soul is thirst - ing for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek; O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines, my soul thirsts like the earth parched, lifeless, without water.

Thus have I gazed toward you in your holy place to see your power and your glory.
Your kindness is a greater good than life itself; my lips will glorify you.

Thus will I bless you while I live; Lifting up my hands I will call upon your name.
As with a banquet shall my soul be satisfied; with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

For you have been my help, you have been my help;
In the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you; your right hand holds me firm;
In the shadow of your wings I shout for joy,

Steve Angrisano &amp; Tom Tomaszek

Come, Lord Jesus, come.
Come and fill my heart with your life.
Hold me close, Lord, hold me tight,

Where there's despair in life, Lord,
let me be your voice of hope.
Where there's injury, Lord, let me be your voice of peace.
Come, Lord Jesus, come...

Where there is sadness, let me be your comfort and your hope.
Where there's fear in our hearts, let me be a sign of faith.

Praise the Lord who heals the brokenhearted.

Dear friends on the journey,

As I was preparing for this weekend's message, today's Psalm really spoke to me because, as I write this, I am feeling brokenhearted for so many reasons. The new year began with so much illness. Covid, the flu, and all the normal seasonal sickness has been compounded by the news from people I care about who received cancer and other diagnoses. Friends are facing surgeries and long recoveries. Children around our county have lost a parent in traumatic deaths. Parishioners are grieving the loss of spouses. My beloved high school, La Reina, is closing its doors after 60+ years of educating and forming young Catholic women in Ventura County. Broken relationships, poverty, isolation, mental health issues, chronic pain, and spiritual desolation abound. It's only the fourth week of January and heartbreak and sadness surround me.

But then God, per usual, taps my shoulder and offers me light in the darkness. Psalm 147: 1-6 reminds us to praise and worship our good and gracious God who will always rebuild what is broken, heal the heartbroken, bind our wounds, sustain us, and cast out the wicked. As people of faith, we are by no means exempt from suffering and heartbreak but we have these words as God's promise to always be with us in that suffering. The Israelites received these promises through the prophets. Jesus lived these promises while on earth. And they are God's promises to us now. They bring me comfort and hope that the sadness will not persist, that light and peace will return, that pain will lessen, and good will triumph. The Paschal Mystery of Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection that we celebrate at every Mass is a reminder of God's promises.

I've shared here before the story of the little girl who tells her mom that she wants "Jesus with skin" meaning she needs her mom to be Jesus and hold her tight. Don't we all want to feel Jesus' embrace? If you need a Jesus hug today, don't be afraid to ask for one. Padre Serra's a very "huggy" place! If you know some in need, reach out to offer a hug, a shoulder, a hand for holding. Loving human touch may not subside the pain completely but it can be just the right balm in a moment between friends.

This week I invite you to pray with Psalm 147. Call to mind your own heartbreak, current or in the past. Offer gratitude for the wounds that have healed or are still in process. Ask God not to let your suffering be wasted but rather be put to good use, to help others. Consider that neighbors, coworkers and friends may be living with heartbreak right now and simply pray for them. Then give praise to God who continually heals the brokenhearted and offers hope.
