RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 25: Your Ways, O Lord, Are Love and Truth

Dominic MacAller

Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your cov-er-ant.

1. Your ways, O Lord, make known to me.
Teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my Savior.
2. Remember that your compassion, O Lord, and your love are from of old.
The sins of my youth and frailties remember not.
In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord.
3. The Lord is good and upright.
Thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice, and teaches the humble his way.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His holy Church.

Walk this Way

Recently, a friend and I hiked a trail along the Pacific Coast Highway. Said friend — younger, fitter, and spryer — led the way to a beautiful crest overlooking the ocean. Completing the hike felt like a tremendous accomplishment for me, but it was not without a few breathless pauses and a gulp of fresh water. My mental roadblocks and physical weaknesses almost kept me from that beautiful view.

On this first Sunday of Lent, Mark's gospel tells of Jesus' temptation in the desert. "The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert." Newly baptized, Jesus took 40 days in a harsh and barren environment to grapple with, not only Satan, but the enormity of the mission before him. He spent time with his Father to pray and ask for help. What temptations and struggles do we need to take to God? What obstacles are keeping us from a close relationship with Jesus?

Despite Satan's attempts to lead him away from God, Jesus remained steadfast. Without sinning, Jesus was tested in the same ways we are: basic and vainglorious desires. How do we turn away from sin — those troublesome behaviors, attitudes, and mistakes we inevitably repeat or succumb to? Jesus was "among wild beasts," vulnerable and probably weak from hunger, but the angels ministered to him. He was never alone, but empowered by the Spirit and comforted with the presence of his God-family.

Jesus emerged from the desert ready for his public ministry, and he proclaimed with certainty: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand." Now is the time, he said. Now is still the time. Jesus was establishing his new Church then and we are that Church today. During Lent, we are tasked to enter our own wilderness and prepare for an encounter with the person of Christ. We are brought into relationship with him, into the kingdom of God. We get to be a part of his family! What can we do to prepare for this encounter?

We can scour our hearts asking the Lord to empty them of all that is weak, and leave space for Jesus to enter. We can sacrifice some of our favorite things, and admit to our wrongdoings. We can access our gifts to be strong for ourselves and those in our community. Sometimes, we have to go through what is difficult to take on something else. Our Christian hearts are made for greater ways and better things. Our shortcomings and challenges are no match for God's loving presence abiding within us. "Repent, and believe in the gospel." Jesus' mission statement propels us to ask for mercy and move outward from ourselves for others.

Whatever path we walk in life, we never have to go it alone. With the friendship and encouragement of Jesus, experienced in community, we overcome the roadblocks and look forward to a new horizon and a steady direction. Imagine the view of Heaven ...

Peace and joy,

Mary Huebner
Liturgy Assistant

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

First Sunday of Lent

These themes in today's readings invite reflection on God's faithfulness, the significance of baptism, the importance of repentance and conversion, and the strength that comes from God's support in overcoming challenges. They frame Lent as a time to deepen one's faith and commitment to living according to the Gospel. Lent is a time to commit to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Reflect on a time you faced temptation and consider the sources of strength that helped you overcome it. How can the example of Jesus' resistance to temptation in the wilderness inform your approach to challenges in your own spiritual life?

Women's Silent Retreat

The Crucified One Lives: Finding Comfort in the Passion of Christ

June 7 - 9

Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center, Sierra Madre

Register in the courtyard Feb 24 - 25

This retreat will consider ways we find comfort in the Passion of Christ. Doing so brings us closer to God, invites us to a deeper knowledge of ourselves, and impels us to respond to the needs of others, especially those who are poor, suffering, or wounded in any way.

CROP Walk

Sunday, March 10
12:30 pm
Pitts Ranch Park

Register in courtyard February 17-18, 24-25 or www.padreserra.org/crop-walk

Hungry people in developing countries walk as many as six miles daily for food, water, and fuel to bring their goods to market. We walk to be in solidarity with their struggle for existence.

Together, we raise awareness and funds for international and local groups: St. Columba's food pantry, St. Mary Magdalen Christian Service Program, RAIN, and more.

All ages can participate:
Walk 5k, Sponsor Fr. Patrick, Volunteer!
