GATHERING

Fifth Sunday of Lent Entrance Antiphon

Give me justice, O God,
and plead my cause against
a nation that is faithless.
From the deceitful and
cunning rescue, for you,
O God, are my strength.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and what I have failed to do,
*through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;*
therefore I ask the blessed Mary
ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 51: Create In Me

Bob Hurd

Cre-ate in me a clean heart; give me a will-ing
spir-it. Cre-ate in me a clean heart.

In your goodness have mercy on me;
in your compassion, wash me, wash me from my guilt.

Give me back the joy of your presence; give me a steadfast spirit.
I will sing your praise.

A broken spirit I give you.
You will not spurn a humbled heart.

9:00—Psalm 130: With the Lord There Is Mercy

Marty Haugen, Gather #87

With the Lord there is mer-cy, and full-ness of re - demp-tion.

From out of depths, I cry unto you,
Lord, hear my voice, come hear my prayer;
O let your ear be open to my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
then who could stand within your sight?
But in you is found forgiveness for our failings.

Just as those who wait for the morning light,
even more I long for the Lord, my God,
whose word to me shall ever be my comfort.

*I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord;
whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will never die. -John 11:25a, 26*

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

*May the Lord accept
 the sacrifice
 at your hands
 for the praise and glory
 of His name,
 for our good and
 the good of all
 His holy Church.*

“And Who Is My Neighbor?” Lk 10:29

Who is our neighbor in this, our nuclear age with its wars and global conflicts? At the core of the Gospel is inclusiveness, challenging us to do the hard work of ever expanding our consciousness about who is our neighbor, and how best we can care or help in some fashion. We may associate neighbor with closeness, a next-door neighbor, or the person sitting in the next pew dealing with a mix of stresses, burdens and dreams. With a fiery new beginning in Lent, we can broaden our view of neighbor to see our neighbor in everyone with whom we come into contact: an overworked grocery clerk needing a kind word, a prayer for an impatient driver ahead of us in traffic, or a frustrated co-worker who really could benefit from a Snickers bar.

It can get tough. Love of neighbor means those who may have hurt us, those we may not like, those we need to forgive, and those from whom we need forgiveness. Love of neighbor connects us closer to suffering brothers and sisters in Ukraine, Israel, Gaza and people all around the world. Love of neighbor means loving those with whom we may strongly disagree politically. Perhaps, most difficult of all, may be loving the professed enemies of our country, who, like us, have the weaponry to destroy the earth.

The magnificent Canticle of St. Francis of Assisi praises God for “Brother Sun and Sister Moon,” and for our “Brothers Wind, Air, and Fire,” and for “Sister Water and Mother Earth.” Can it be that in our nuclear age, the risen Christ reveals to us, that love of neighbor connects us with all of creation – including every person and every creature, even to the ends of the earth?

Becoming Catholic

The Scrutinies

Lent is an important time for the Elect, who are in their final period of preparation for initiation into the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and first reception of Eucharist. On Lent's Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays, they celebrate three important rites called scrutinies. The purpose of the scrutinies is to uncover and then heal whatever is weak and sinful as we pray together and bring out and strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. By celebrating these rites, the Elect reflect ever more deeply on the mystery of sin and the power of Christ to overcome it. Please continue to pray for our Elect as they draw nearer to the sacraments. Visit www.padreserra.org/becoming-catholic
