The stone which the build - ers re - ject - ed has be - come the cor - ner - stone.
 Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, has be - come the cor - ner - stone.

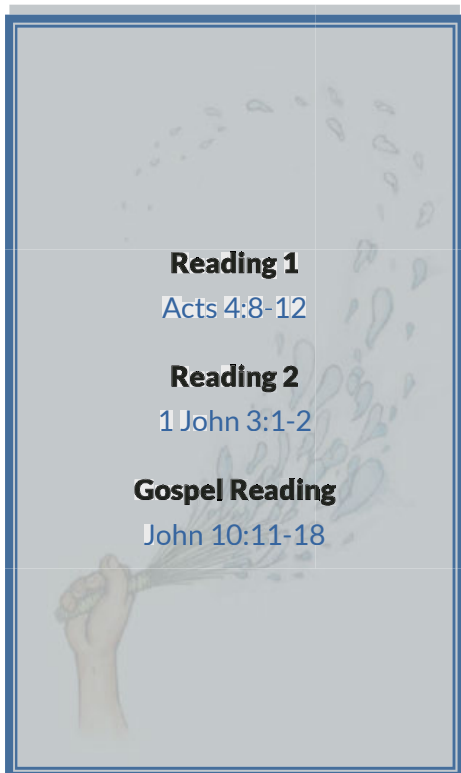

Let the family of Israel say: "God's love has no end, God's love has no end."
 Let the family of Aaron say: "God's love has no end, God's love has no end."
 And let all who fear God, and let all who fear God say his love is without end.
 Alleluia, alleluia, God is here to help me now.

I called to the Lord in my distress, he answered me and set me free.
 God is at my side, God is at my side, God is here to help me now.
 Alleluia, alleluia, God is here to help me now.

Open the gates of holiness; I will enter and give thanks.
 This is the Lord's own gate, the gate where the just may enter in.
 I will thank the Lord, I will thank the Lord, for you hear and answer me.
 Alleluia, alleluia, for you hear and answer me.

Go forward with branches, go forward processing, go to the altar of the Lord and give thanks to God, and give thanks to God for his love is without end.
 Alleluia, alleluia, for his love is without end.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;

 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,

A Love Like No Other

Dear friends on the journey,

The first year of a baby's life is so much about learning and adjusting. While parents are learning to distinguish their babies' cries in order to respond accordingly, babies are learning about their new world through their senses. Studies show that the maternal voice is audible in utero so an infant will recognize mom's voice after birth. I am witnessing this right now with my three-week-old granddaughter who knows her mother's voice, touch, scent and responds to her very presence. The comfort and peace a parent's presence can bring a child is beautiful.

This deep intimacy between a parent and child reminds me of today's gospel and the intimacy shared between the Good Shepherd and his flock. Perhaps this is why I am so drawn to the image of God as shepherd.

Jesus did not come to be a powerful political or military figure, nor to control or enslave us. He came as our Good Shepherd to care and provide for us, to lead us in this life, and to bring us home to eternal pastures. Our Good Shepherd Jesus knows us intimately and calls each of us by name. When we stray or become lost, Jesus searches for us and tenderly carries us back on his shoulders. He guides us ever so gently to what is right and good for us.

Today's readings are a good reminder that in the depths of our being, we know God's presence, guiding, and voice. I encourage you to take this image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd to prayer this week. To imagine how Jesus looks at you. To imagine him seeking you out when you are lost. To imagine his joy in finding you, picking you up and placing you on his shoulders. To imagine the sense of comfort and peace Jesus' presence brings. To imagine God's love for you.

I think this image of God as shepherd became more profound for me when my grandchildren were born. Grandparenthood is all the best parts of parenting with none of the overwhelming responsibility. As a nana, I am experiencing a new kind of love with my grandchildren. One day as I was rocking my first grandchild, I had the profound realization that the love I have for this tiny human is the closest I had ever come to deeply knowing God's love for us. Just imagine if we bring this gentler, kinder, more compassionate love to ourselves and to all those we meet.

Mother's Day Novena

First Mass Saturday, May 11

Novena Cards will be available after April 26 in the church lobby for those who wish to enroll their mother, living or deceased.

For nine consecutive Masses, your mom will be prayed for in a community of love.

This prayer tradition originates in the nine days the apostles prayed in the upper room while waiting for Jesus to send the Holy Spirit. It is concentrated prayer for a specific intention.
