We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 1: Blessed Are They Who Hope In the Lord

Kathleen MacAller & Dominic MacAller

Bles - sed are they who hope in the Lord. Bles - sed are they who hope in the Lord.

Blessed are they who follow not the counsel of the wicked, nor walk in the way of sinners,
 nor sit in the presence of scorners,
 but delight in the law of the Lord,
 meditating on God's law day and night.

They are like a tree, planted near running water that yields its fruit in due season,
 and whose leaves never fade.
 Whatever they do prospers.

Not so the wicked, not so!
 They are like chaff which the wind drives away.
 For the Lord watches over the way of the just,
 but the way of the wicked vanishes.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.*
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

COMMUNION SONGS

Blessed Are the Poor (Rejoice, Be Glad)

Adam M. L. Tice & Kate Williams

1. Blessed are the poor — the people who live in God’s holy reign.
Blessed are the sad, for comfort is yours through sorrow and pain.
Blessed are the meek for you will inherit what long was denied.
Hungry, thirsty ones, your longing for justice will be satisfied.
2. Blessed are the kind — the merciful ones shall mercy receive.
Blessed are the good your heart shall see God because you believe.
Blessed children, come: grow peace for a planet still choking with hate.
Persecuted ones, for you all the blessings of heaven await.
3. You are salt and light — let earth taste and see God’s glory revealed.
Let your goodness shine; the lost are restored, the broken are healed.
All will be fulfilled — the law and the prophets have shown us the way.
Heaven comes to earth; rejoice and be glad for creation’s new day.

Blessed Are They

Dear Faith Family,

One of my favorite things to experience is when I have the realization that our liturgies work seamlessly with each other. I especially enjoy when the readings have themes that have correlations that are impossible to ignore.

This Sunday's second reading is quite striking and it is indeed true. If Christ has been raised from the dead, how can we ignore the promise that we will be raised as well? It's a pretty direct message and it is quite powerful. God always keeps his promises, even those that we perceive to be impossible.

This Sunday's Gospel fits perfectly with this idea. As humans, it is impossible to avoid suffering. We all have encountered the poor, hungry, weeping, etc., but I feel that it is safe to say that we have experienced these things as well. A lot of us have experienced times in our lives where it seems impossible that God is present.

When we experience these things, we can sometimes correlate them with death. When we are downtrodden with nowhere to look, it may feel like a glimpse of death. Our Lord helps us to see that although the pursuit of suffering is not something we should do, there is somehow blessing in our most difficult times.

Death is something that is not desired, but it is inevitable. But if Christ preaches perfect life after death, love still somehow conquers. If love conquers the unconquerable, God is not only present in the pleasant parts of our lives, but he is equally present in the difficult parts. What an amazing message that our God preaches. He is there, at all times, even when it is hard to see Him.

Notice though, that the theme of these readings aren't "just be happy!". God is simply letting us know that He is there, even when it seems like no one is. His love is eternal, not faltering when things become difficult. God meets us where we are, and we are truly blessed to have a God who will never fail in loving us, even in situations where we find it most difficult to love others or ourselves.

These past 2 years have been hard, but on reflection, hopefully we recognize the God that conquered death has been present the whole time and he continues to be present to this day.

Let us be images of God and let our friends and family who are suffering know that we are present, in the good and bad.

God Bless,

Brett Becker

Becoming Catholic

The Sacraments

The seven sacraments are essential to the Catholic way of life. They are blessed encounters with the risen Jesus. Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist are called the Sacraments of Initiation because they incorporate us into His saving death and resurrection. Baptism and Confirmation are not repeatable because they give us an "indelible mark" as members of the Body of Christ. Eucharist, the high point of our initiation, can be received daily but at least on Sundays. The Eucharist nourishes and strengthens us to live as disciples of Jesus. It is also a sign of unity with Jesus and with each other. If you would like to investigate receiving the Sacraments of Initiation, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-56417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Luke 6:17, 20-26 ~ Trust in Jesus, the way to true happiness

Luke's Gospel portrays Jesus' special concern for the poor and vulnerable. He pronounces a blessing on the poor and woe to the rich. This is true for us today; we will be either blessed or have woe done unto us. It's a challenging teaching! Which half of this Gospel reading applies to you? How does trusting in God make a difference in your life?
