Psalm 40: Here I Am, O God

Marty Haugen

Here am I, O God, I come to do your will, here am I, I come to do your will.

I waited for you, and you heard me, O God;
You have put a new song in my mouth;
a hymn of praise to the God of my salvation.

You opened my ear to your word, O God;
You take no delight in empty sacrifice,
to do you your will is my life and my delight, O God.

I sing of your justice, I sing of your peace,
I sing of your faithfulness and steadfast love,
I chant your praise in the midst of all your people.

and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,

he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the
living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,

Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

Dear Parish family,

If you are like me, every new year, I take the month of January to come up with a list of New Year's resolutions. Areas in my life I wish to improve physically, mentally, and spiritually. There is always the one about adding more exercise or better eating choices to my daily routine. There is always one about self-care, to truly respect and make it a priority to have downtime and rest. And every year, I always seek an opportunity to grow in my knowledge and faith or in my outreach to others, sharing God's love. I admit if I succeed in at least one of the items on my list, I feel I did well. I am a work in progress, and I try not to be discouraged when I fail or stumble; I get up and start again.

I bring this up because as I was meditating over the readings of this weekend, one phrase that stood out to me was our response to the Psalm, "Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will." This phrase made me rethink my New Year's resolutions; though it was a good list, it was all about MY will. I revisited them with God's will as the focus. What do you want of me, Lord? I asked.

As I continued to read the Psalm, "he put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God," "ears open to obedience you gave me," "It is prescribed for me to do your will, O my God, is my delight and your law is within my heart!" And finally, in our Gospel, "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

What this all means to me now is simply put: Allow God to work through me. He will place the song (words) in my mouth, but I must open my ears to hear his voice so that I may follow. God's WILL, is my joy. And I will be able to fulfill my Baptismal mission, to testify to all that "He is the Son of God."

Our openness to his will, our YES, is what Our Lord is asking of us. In this task, let us follow our Mother Mary's example and say Yes, to the will of God. In her Yes, she allows God to work through her to reach all the ends of the earth. God is the light, the source of all the good. If we let the light of Jesus shine through us, others might recognize Jesus for who he is, "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world."

I pray that 2023 will be a year of health and blessings for all.

Tere Delgado
Faith Formation Minister

Christian Parenting Ministry

A new ministry to support the vocation of parenting.
Tuesdays, January 24 – March 28
7:00 - 8:30 pm, via Zoom

Learn more and register in the courtyard on January 14 - 15.

We invite you to meet with other parents and share this amazing opportunity to grow as a Catholic Christian family together.

The Christian Parenting ministry is a community of parents seeking to reflect, learn and share how parenting is, at its core, rooted in our Catholic Christian faith. We define parents as moms and dads, single parents, stepparents, foster parents, godparents, grandparents – anyone responsible for supporting the raising of our beautiful children.

Our fellowship is centered on participation in a 10-week program of learning and small group sharing. Our meetings will be primarily done via Zoom to encourage the involvement of the widest number of families. The final session will be a family gathering at church. $10 per person (workbook).
