GATHERING

10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name.

— Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.

2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.

3. And on that day, when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est. Glo-ry! Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Psalm 104: Lord, Send Out Your Spirit

Jeanne Cotter

Lord, send out your Spir - it and re - new the face of the earth.

Lord, send out your Spir - it and re - new the face of the earth.

1. I praise you, Lord God, with all my heart.
You are glorious and majestic.
Our Lord, by your wisdom you made so many things;
All the earth is covered with your living creatures.
2. You created all of them by your Spirit,
and you give new life to the earth.
Our Lord, we pray that your glory will last forever
and that you will be pleased with what you have done.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

Refrain

Send down the fire of your jus - tice,

Send down the rains of your love; Come,

send down the Spir - it, breathe life in your peo - ple, and we shall be peo - ple of God.

Call us to be your compassion,
 Teach us the song of your love;
 Give us hearts that sing,

 Make us ring with the song of your love.

Call us to learn of your mercy,
 Teach us the way of your peace;
 Give us hearts that feel,
 give us hands that heal,
 Make us walk in the way of your peace.

Call us to answer oppression,
 Teach us the fire of your truth;
 Give us righteous souls,
 'Til your justice rolls,
 Make us burn in the fire of your truth.

Send down the fire!

Dear Friends,

As I think about this weekend's Solemnity which closes and culminates the Easter Season, I try to imagine what the outpouring of Holy Spirit must have been like for those who experienced it as it's described in Scripture – whether it's the Risen Jesus appearing in the locked Upper Room and breathing the Spirit and peace on his disciples, or the rushing wind and tongues of flame described in the Acts of the Apostles, or the sudden ability of Jesus' disciples to speak and be understood in a multitude of languages. All of those stories seem both thrilling and remote.

If there was ever a time where we needed an outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the church isn't now that time? I write this overshadowed by our collective sadness over yet another mass shooting – this time, at an elementary school. How can we joyfully celebrate Pentecost in light of such violence as that, or the war in Ukraine, or any of countless other occasions of violence, hunger, trauma, and grief?

While we may not have experienced it in such a dramatic way as the apostles did, or as the early church did, nevertheless our faith tells us that at our baptism we were given the Holy Spirit – none other than the One who inspired such courage, such wisdom, and such love in the apostles so many years ago. None other than the Spirit that built the church to which we belong today and whose truth we profess.

Often when we celebrate Confirmation, Fr. Patrick tells the newly confirmed (and all of us) that the grace of that sacrament is one that is quietly there for us to draw on when needed – when we need the courage to do the right thing. To stand against bullying and violence. To love the not very lovable, and not very attractive. To care for all of creation. To find the outcasts and bring them back in.

We may feel powerless to change our world, our politics, maybe even ourselves. But we can draw upon the Gifts of the Holy Spirit given to us in baptism and confirmation to be God's love right where we are, to (as a song in the '70s said, probably meaning something quite different) "love the one we're with." It might not change the world, but, then again, it might. St. Teresa of Calcutta said we are called not to success but to faithfulness. Plant the seed, tend the garden, leave the harvest to God. Here is a list of the gifts given to all of us for the good of all:

Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, fear of the Lord, and piety.

Let's support one another in drawing upon the inexhaustible supply of grace given to us by the Holy Spirit.

Siempre adelante,

Dominic MacAller

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

John 20:19-23 ~ Come, Holy Spirit!

After his greeting in today’s passage, Jesus breathed new life on the frightened disciples, and they received the gift of the Holy Spirit. By loving Jesus and keeping his word, we each become a dwelling place for him and the Holy Spirit. In what specific ways can I open the doors of that dwelling place to the people I interact with daily?
