RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 27: The Lord Is My Light

Christopher Walker

Refrain

The Lord is my light, the Lord is my help, the Lord is my sal - va - tion.

The Lord is my light, my help, my salvation.
 Why should I fear? With God I fear no one.
 God protects me all my life. With the Lord what should I dread?

There is one thing I ask of the Lord that I long for:
 all of my days with God to be dwelling,
 gazing with awe at the beauty of God,
 and in wonder look on God's house.

I know I will live to see the Lord's goodness;
 now, in this life, I'm sure I will see it.
 Trust in the Lord, be strong and be brave;
 wait in hope for God, our salvation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Celtic Lenten Gospel Acclamation

Christopher Walker

Praise and hon-or, hon-or and glo-ry, glo-ry to you, Lord Je-sus Christ.

Go in peace to hear the word of God.
 Go in peace to meet the risen Lord,
 the One who speaks to us in the Gospel.
 Go in peace, go in peace.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the
 living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

*May the Lord accept
 the sacrifice at
 your hands,
 for the
 praise and glory of
 His Name,
 for our good
 and the good of all
 His holy Church.*

SENDING FORTH

The Lord Is My Light

Lillian Bouknight, arr. Daniel Houze, Gather #690

The Lord is my light and my salvation,
 the Lord is my light and my salvation,
 the Lord is my light and my salvation;
 whom shall I fear?

In the time of trouble, he shall hide me,
 O in the time of trouble, he shall hide me,
 in the time of trouble, he shall hide me;
 whom shall I fear?

Wait on the Lord and be of good courage,
 wait on the Lord and be of good courage,
 wait on the Lord and be of good courage.
 He shall strengthen thine heart.

Awake, to see God's Glory!

Dear Parish Family,

If you are anything like me, it's so easy to get sidetracked on our many tasks and can lose track of time. Even more so when we may be doing something you really enjoy, such as reading a good book, binging on Netflix or sleeping in the morning. My alarm clock is my best tool to make sure I am up in the morning and where I need to be on time. To help me manage my time on my busy days when I have time-sensitive tasks, I recently started to use the alarms on my cell. Since I have begun this new habit, I get my most important tasks done on time, and on occasions I surprise myself that I may have some time to spare. I bring this up only because I think that at times we need tools to help us, to make sure we are awake and alert to what comes next.

In our Gospel today, Peter and John and James went with Jesus to the mountain to pray. Yet while Jesus prayed, his disciples fell asleep. Had they not woken up on time, they would have missed seeing Jesus in his Glory. They would not have heard God's voice say, "This is my chosen Son; Listen to him." It was through God's grace they did wake up on time, and were able to experience Jesus' Transfiguration. They were given the opportunity to see his divinity.

Our lives can be like this, where we too fall asleep, letting everything else distract us and not keep us from recognizing Jesus is always with us. God desires us to see him, but we must be willing to see. During the season of Lent, through the practices of Fasting from food and habits, Prayer and Almsgiving, can be like our alarm clocks to "wake up." Through these practices they can lead us to see and feel Jesus more clearly and to listen to what he tells us. As we fast, and experience hunger, it awakens our awareness of the hunger and needs of others. As we pray, especially with the scriptures, we learn to hear God's voice and his desires for us. We learn to see Jesus in our brothers and sisters; through almsgiving we seek to meet their needs. "What you do for the least of your brothers, you do for me."

God gave us the Transfiguration to let us know what we have to look forward to at the end of our lives. We know that after we've done our best down here on earth — at the bottom of the mountain — and if we die in a state of grace, we can look forward to seeing Christ in all His glory, as He was at the Transfiguration. Only after we go through this difficult life, can we enjoy the glory of Easter.

May we stay awake this Lenten season and see every opportunity to grow closer to our Lord, through our brothers and sisters.

Siempre Adelante,

Tere Delgado

Becoming Catholic

The Scrutinies

Lent is an important time for the Elect, who are in their final preparation for initiation into the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the first reception of the Eucharist. On the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent, they will celebrate three important rites called scrutinies. The purpose of the scrutinies is to uncover and then heal whatever is weak and sinful in the Elect ... and in us, as we pray together. The scrutinies also are meant to bring out and strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. (RCIA #141) By celebrating these rites with the parish community on three successive Sundays, the Elect will reflect ever more deeply on the mystery of sin and the power of Christ to overcome sin. Please continue to pray for our Elect as they draw nearer to the sacraments. For more information about the process of becoming Catholic, please get in touch with Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

Luke 9:28b-36 ~ Lent calls us to transform our lives.

Immediately after Jesus told the disciples that he would suffer, die, and rise again, he takes Peter, John, and James up the mountain to pray and reveals his divine identity. Sometimes we can see Christ with clear eyes, as the disciples did on that mountain. Share about such a time in your own life. What do you most want God to help you with?

Giving

St. Mary Magdalen School

Our beautiful town is blessed to have a lively Catholic community served by two Catholic parishes and one excellent Catholic elementary school. Half the students are from Padre Serra Parish, and half are from St. Mary Magdalen Church. Students develop their faith daily; they enjoy daily religion classes, weekly Mass, and many other growth opportunities. We love our school. For more information or to contribute, contact pam@padreserra.org

Stewardship Means Sharing

Give God the first serving, the first portion of our gifts. Giving is not based on the church's need for money, but on our need to give back to God as a way to say 'thank you.'
