Mother's Day Novena

Novena Cards are available in the church lobby for those who wish to enroll their mother, living or deceased, in our novena Masses.

For nine consecutive Masses, your mom will be prayed for in the community during Mass. This prayer tradition has its origin in the 9 days that the apostles prayed in the upper room while they waited for Jesus to send the Holy Spirit. It is concentrated prayer for a specific intention done in a community of love. First Mass May 7.

Jonas Myrin & Matt Redman

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name

— Sing like nev-er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name.—

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning, It's time to sing Your song again. Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me, Let me be singing when the evening comes.
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger. Your name is great and Your heart is kind. For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing; Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.
3. And on that day, when my strength is failing, The end draws near, and my time has come; Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 30: I Will Praise You, Lord

Paul Inwood, Gather #42

I will praise you, Lord, you have res-cued me, I will praise you, Lord, for your mer - cy. I will praise you, Lord, you have res-cued me: I will praise you, Lord.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favor through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord y God, I will thank you forever.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

BBQ on the Beach

Dear Friends,

This Easter season, I have been thinking about the resurrection of Jesus and what it means for us 2000 years later. Additionally, I've been considering the evidence for Jesus' resurrection having happened. We don't have any eyewitness accounts in the Scriptures of Jesus' actual rising from the dead. But we do have the empty tomb, the testimony of the women who encountered the angel there, and the apostle's accounts of the Risen Jesus appearing to them. Of all the post-Resurrection stories, I think the one from today's gospel is the one I love the most: the barbecue on the beach after an eleventh-hour reprieve from a night's fishing that yielded nothing, and the opportunity for Peter to repent of his threefold denial by declaring his love for the Lord three times¹.

The instructions (feed my lambs) that follow Peter's expressions of love are meant for us, too, and that leads me to what I think may be the most convincing evidence for Jesus' resurrection: the vibrant, loving Church, of which we are all a part, still ministering today, feeding the Lord's lambs, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Still, one cannot deny that there is evil in the world, even within the Church, and that can be discouraging, perhaps obscuring the truth of the Church as the Risen Christ's Body. The fourth verse of Bob Hurd's "Two Were Bound for Emmaus" that we are singing at liturgy today may be helpful:

When the road makes us weary, when our labor seems but loss, when the fire of faith weakens and too high seems the cost, let the Church turn to its risen Lord, who for us bore the cross, and we'll find our hearts burning at the sound of his voice.

How do we turn to the risen Lord? In Scripture, in sacrament, and in service: if we feed his lambs, we will find him.

Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always considers the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about what Catholics believe. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shaddock today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

John 21:1-19 ~ Jesus feeds us so we can feed and serve others.

After the resurrection, the disciples returned to their homes in Galilee and their former occupation of fishing. Suddenly, the appearance of the Risen Christ transforms all aspects of the disciples' lives. Christ continues to feed us as his disciples, even after his death and resurrection. How does the Eucharist feed your faith?
