Call us to be your compassion,
Teach us the song of your love;
Give us hearts that sing,
give us deeds that ring,
Make us ring with the song of your love.

Call us to learn of your mercy,
Teach us the way of your peace;
Give us hearts that feel,
give us hands that heal,
Make us walk in the way of your peace.

Call us to answer oppression,
Teach us the fire of your truth;
Give us righteous souls,

Make us burn in the fire of your truth.

Little Tastes of Heaven

My Dear Parish Family,

During the Easter Season the Second Reading is taken from the Book of Revelation. In today's verses we hear John describe his vision of "the holy city of [the new] Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God." Many of us have a picture of what heaven might be like. In a commentary I recently read, it was defined this way: "Heaven is being in the presence of God. Nothing else matters." I began reflecting on moments in my life that approached this definition:

- Cradling my infant granddaughter asleep in my arms, breathing in her baby scent ... at that moment nothing else mattered.
- Relaxing on a patio with good friends after a good meal, no need to talk as we watched the sun set over the Pacific Ocean ... at that moment nothing else mattered.
- Enjoying the breeze and the babbling fountain in our parish church courtyard on a quiet weekday, then noticing someone in need being kindly and gently interviewed by a member of our St. Vincent de Paul Society in that peaceful place ... at that moment nothing else mattered.
- Watching former RCIA seekers, now fully initiated Catholics, process forward on Sunday to receive Eucharist, one with the Body of Christ ... at that moment nothing else mattered.

I believe that these simple moments are gifts from God and little foretastes of heaven. The commonality in all of them is love, peace, and hope. Such moments give us a glimpse of the love and peace that Jesus promises in today's Gospel. They encourage us to keep our eyes set on the heavenly kingdom ... and to strive to build that kingdom on earth. Amid the injustices of the world and our own personal difficulties, we can savor our little tastes of heaven, gather strength from them and bring that love, hope and peace to our families, neighbors and those we encounter as we go about our days. May the peace of Christ be with you always!

Blessings,

Catherine

Becoming Catholic

The process of becoming a Catholic is not one-size-fits-all. It always considers the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about what Catholics believe. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We meet on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shaddock today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Giving

Together in Mission “As One We Believe” Update!

Goal: $128,384

Year to Date: $32,629 donated by 97 households

Gap: $95,755 to reach our goal

Our parishes and schools desire to be the center of community life, reaching out to those in our midst to create moments for evangelization, to encounter Christ, and encounter hope.

However, some struggle to keep their doors open. Will you join the generosity of others in our community, as one voice keeping hope and compassion alive? Envelopes in the church lobby or visit www.padreserra.org/tim

Stewardship Means Sharing

Give God the first serving, the first portion of our gifts. Giving is not based on the church’s need for money, but on our need to give back to God as a way to say ‘thank you.’

In the Community

Talking About Mental Health ~ May 24

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table

John 14:23-29 ~ The Holy Spirit is with us always.

Today’s gospel passage is Jesus’ promise of the presence of the Holy Spirit with the disciples. Jesus will dwell forever with those who love him and are true to him. This presence of God in the believer and the community of believers bear much fruit. Jesus told us to trust in the Holy Spirit to help guide our lives. How have you relied on the Holy Spirit to guide you?
