The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God
 the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 47: God Mounts His Throne

Curtis Stephan

Ascension: God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trum - pets for the Lord.

All you peoples, clap your hands, shout to God, shout to God with cries of gladness. For the Lord, the Most High, the awesome, is the great king over all the earth.

God mounts his throne amidst shouts of joy; the Lord amid trumpet blasts. Sing praise to God, to God, sing praise; sing praise to our king, sing praise.

For king of all the earth is God; sing hymns of praise. God reigns over all the nations, God sits upon his holy throne.

The Glory of God

Dear Parish Family

On this Ascension Sunday, I can't help but wonder what it must have been like for the apostles to witness Jesus in glory ascend to heaven. What an amazing thing to see with human eyes. As I ponder this, I began to make note of recent moments where I have been blessed to see God's glory in action. As I look back, I am filled with so much joy and gratitude. We began the month celebrating the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation. The children coming to the table to receive Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time, and the Holy Spirit descending over the youth and adults as they are anointed and sealed in his spirit. I am made aware of the gift our Lord has given me to allow me to witness and celebrate these spiritual milestones with the children, teens, adults and their families.

This particular year, I was brought full circle, in my ministry as a catechist. One of the young men who was confirmed, reminded me at rehearsal that I had been his catechist for First Communion, which was almost 20 years ago! When he told me his name I remembered him immediately; his group was a special one for me because it was the first time I taught middle schoolers. Which was a bit scary for me at the time because I am so short and most of the kids in the group were taller than me. They were all so great and I think in the end I learned much more from them.

As the Children's Faith Formation Minister, I don't always get the opportunity to directly interact in the weekly sessions with the children. This past program year, however, I had the opportunity to lead a multi-grade Spark! Zoom session for our distance learners, and when needed, filled in for a catechist who was out sick, and a team member co-leading Three:Sixteen sessions. Many of these days I ended the afternoon physically exhausted but my spirit was on fire! I am reminded why Jesus said to enter the kingdom of God we must be like little children. They are so open to receive his love and to return it. This experience has reignited my love and vocation of catechist. I am grateful to the CFF team, all the catechists, peer leaders and volunteers who tirelessly give their time and talent. Especially during the last two years with all the challenges of the pandemic, this ministry would not be possible without you.

The more I think about it, I come to the conclusion that there are moments to stare into the sky and witness the Glory of God, yet we are not meant to stay there. We are to be sent into the world to spread the good news. Even Noah left the arc, Abraham left his tent, Moses left his nation and went into the desert, as did all the prophets.

Even those healed by Jesus were sent out too. We are not meant to merely dwell in the Glory of God, but instead to bring the Glory of God to others.

"Why do you stand here staring at the sky?"

"Go out to the ends of the earth, and preach the good news."

Becoming Catholic

Do you know someone who is wondering if the Catholic Church is the place for them? It could be your neighbor, your co-worker, or someone in your family. At Padre Serra, we have a group that meets on Tuesday evenings, 7:00 - 8:30 pm in the San Miguel Room, year-round, to explore what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in the Catholic tradition. The atmosphere is informal, open, and free of any pressure. Those attending are invited to ask any questions they may have followed by a discussion on various topics regarding our faith. If you know someone who might be interested, bring them to one of the meetings! For more information, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 ext. 331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Safeguard the Children

Amusement Park Safety

Heading to a family amusement park this summer? Prepare your family with some easy safety tips. Amusement parks are crowded and exciting — and unfortunately, they can also be the perfect scenario for children to get distracted and separated from their families. Before you go, discuss the rules with your children: specify where they can go and who they can go with. Establish a buddy system and a family meet-up spot in case you get separated. For more tips, read the VIRTUS® article “Keeping Kids Safe at Amusement Parks” at lacatholics.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/04/Amusement-parks.APRIL-DYK-21-22.2022.pdf

Luke 24:46-53 ~ Jesus' Ascension

In today's gospel, Jesus was “parted from them and was taken up to heaven.” Have you had an “ascension” experience — a time when you were “lifted up” from pain and despair to healing or hope?
