GATHERING

In Christ Alone

1. In Christ a - lone my hope is found. He is my light, my strength, my song. This cor - ner - stone, this so - lid ground Firm through the fierc - est drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, When fears are stilled, when striv - ings cease, My com - fort - er, my all in all, Here in the love of Christ I stand.

Keith Getty & Stuart Townend

In Christ alone, Who took on flesh
Fullness of God in helpless babe.
This gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones He came to save.
'Til on that cross as Jesus died,
The will of God was satisfied.
For every sin on Him was laid,
Here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the tomb His body lay,
light of the world by darkness slain.
Then bursting forth in glorious day,
up from the grave He rose again.
And as he stands in victory,
sin's curse has lost its grip on me
For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death,
this is the power of Christ in me.
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man can ever pluck me from his hand.
'Til he returns or calls me home,
here in power of Christ I'll stand

John 14:23

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,*
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of t'he body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

COMMUNION SONGSThere's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.

So be mer - ci-ful, just as our God is mer - ci-ful. — Be mer - ci-ful, just as our God is mer - ci-ful to us. Let there be a wide-ness in our mer-
- cy. Let there be a kind-ness in our hearts.
Oh, may our lives — be mer - ci - ful. —

Remaining With Jesus

Dear Friends,

Several decades ago, when I was a student at UCLA trying to figure out what God wanted me to do with my life, I struggled with the concept of altruism. It seemed like a conundrum. God wanted me to act unselfishly to do the right thing, yet if I looked after the welfare of others, I would feel good about my own actions. I reasoned my actions couldn't be considered altruistic because they were in my own best interests. I foolishly wondered if there really is such a thing as altruism.

I no longer worry about such dilemmas. Life has a way of throwing situations at us, and many times our choices are tough. Whether we make our decisions instantly or after careful consideration, they reflect who we are. As God's children — chosen and befriended by him — we bask in his love. This love is reciprocal. God loves us, and we are called to be love to others in God's image.

Of course, there will be confusing forks in the road where we make unfortunate choices. Love may get lost as we wander in the shadows alone for a bit, but our Lord finds us, heals us, and lures us back to the path of true altruism so we can walk with the others who have been gifted to us by our loving God. Some encounters are brief — a smile and perhaps only a short greeting for a passing stranger. Other opportunities can involve a lifetime partner or friend who knows and forgives our faults.

Love goes both ways. God shows us that, whether we label it altruism or not. Jesus tells us to remain in his love, and he commands us to love one another. It really is all about responding to God's love!

Faith Sharing Question

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table
John 15:9-17 ~ So I have loved you ... love one another

Today’s readings focus on love and inclusion, that God’s love is for everyone. God welcomes everyone into his family. The readings also emphasize that love is central to knowing God because God is love. Jesus tells us to love each other as he has loved us, which is key to following him. He explains that the greatest love involves sacrifice, like his sacrifice for us. Jesus also calls us friends, not just followers, showing a deep, personal relationship with us. When have you experienced God’s love through someone else? What was that like? What are some practical steps you can take to follow Jesus’ command to love one another?
