ADVENT CONSPIRACY

Let's conspire together to change the way we celebrate Christmas! Every Sunday of Advent we'll focus on four simple ways to worship fully, spend less, give more, and love all.

This week we focus on the second principle of the Advent Conspiracy:
Give More

Give relationally to offer one another presence, rather than merely presents

We know what you're thinking. "Wait, didn't you just say I should spend less, and yet here you're telling me to give more? What gives?" The most powerful, memorable gift you can give to someone else is yourself. And nobody modeled this more than Jesus.

So what could this look like for you...

- Tickets to a ball game, the theater, a day trip to a museum or local festival
- A movie, game or puzzle night
- A road trip up the coast with a picnic at the beach
- Christmas concert and dinner on December 15 at Padre Serra

The main point is simple: When it comes to spending time with those you love, it's all about quality, not quantity.

Prelude (11)—Nasilayan (Beheld)

JMCV, SJ &amp; EFH, SJ

Those walking in the dark beheld a Great Light. A blazing Star led those searching for the Way! Now is the time when the poor and the oppressed are blessed, when gold and silver lost their sparkle, when weapons lost their power. For a Babe is given to us, King of all from age to age! And his name is Power. And his dwelling place is Peace!

Reading 1      Isaiah 61:1-2a,10-11
(proclaimed in Tagalog at the 11:00 liturgy)

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me,
because the LORD has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor,
to heal the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives
and release to the prisoners,
to announce a year of favor from the LORD
and a day of vindication by our God.

I rejoice heartily in the LORD,
in my God is the joy of my soul;
for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation
and wrapped me in a mantle of justice,
like a bridegroom adorned with a diadem,
like a bride bedecked with her jewels.
As the earth brings forth its plants,
and a garden makes its growth spring up,
so will the Lord GOD make justice and praise
spring up before all the nations.

Reading 2      1 Thessalonians 5:16-24
Gospel Reading      John 1:6-8,19-28

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me

to bind the Broken hearted.

Point to Jesus

My Dear Parish Family,

In the Gospel today, John cried out in the desert, “Make straight the way of the Lord.” John is pointing to Jesus and encouraging us to abandon our crooked ways, our self-centered paths. John points to Jesus in his statement, and then recedes into the background. His actions say, “It’s not about me, it is about him.” I wonder what percent of our actions say it is not about me. How do we point to Jesus? Daily. Do we recede into the background?

It is easy to see examples of when folks are behaving selfishly, in general we seem to be less trained or focused on when people get things right. I want to stay positive ... I love that we have 466 parking spots at church and six of them are dedicated to visitors. When I see them full, I rejoice! What a dishonor it would be if able-bodied parishioners used those spaces. We are all grateful to the wonderful hospitality ministers that brew fresh coffee, 275 pots a year, 5 every Sunday plus Christmas and Easter. What a dishonor it would be to grumble about one pot that is a little delayed. Take it from St. John, it is not about me, it is about our Lord Jesus. How can we point to him? Offer others good parking and hot coffee.

I have been talking with middle school children about growing up and growing into a deeper, more lived-out sense of Christian responsibility. I am proud to hear their ideas and even more proud to witness their actions such as hosting bake sales to raise money for hurricane and fire victims, picking up trash, saying ‘hello’ to people in wheel chairs, helping with Angel Tags.

There is so much goodness in the world! It seems it has to do with giving. Giving consideration to others ahead of myself. Giving to Angel Tags gifts. Giving time and so much talent at the Christmas concert. Giving prayers and words of encouragement to those in need. Giving the gift of ourselves, our time, to our loved ones. Consider going to a movie, mass or a ball game, baking cookies, helping to shop or wrap packages or decorate, whatever you are good at or want to be good at ... try doing it for someone you care about. When we empty ourselves of self-centeredness, we make space that fills up with the love of Jesus. We point to Jesus.

In a spirit of networking, I want to share that in January, we will be looking for a new Business Manager for the parish. We will advertise both in and outside the parish. We trust that God will bring us the right person to manage our business processes, connect with the people that God brings to our doors, and lead us in ways to Encounter Jesus and Be Disciples.

In a spirit of giving, I want to remind everyone, including my own family, tis the season! To remember our favorite charitable organizations and of course the parish in year-end giving. It is easy to get busy and postpone this task. It is so important to keep the parish not only going, but growing. The fruit of the gifts of our hands is immeasurable. I am convinced that God is working in and through the people of Padre Serra Parish to point to Jesus. Thank you.

God bless you and all those you love this Christmas,

Eve Collier

Protect the Children

Pay Attention to Signs of Neglect

Neglect is a form of child abuse characterized by a failure to meet a child’s basic needs for nourishment, shelter, clothing, healthcare, education and so forth. Be on the lookout for signs of neglect in the children you see on a daily basis because if these needs are not met, a child may be suffering physically and emotionally. Some signs of neglect include malnourishment, poor hygiene, and insufficient medical care. For more information, and a copy of the VIRTUS® article “The Oft-Forgotten Type of Abuse: Neglect,” visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>, or call (213) 637-7508.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

God is doing great things for us.

Listening to the Word: John 1:6-8, 19-28

Listen carefully to John’s words. What do you hear John saying here? What single word or phrase catches your attention?

Looking into My Life

John tried to help people prepare their lives for the coming of the Messiah. What do I need to change about my life to be ready for Jesus’ coming? Where do I see Jesus already in our midst today? How would I describe the joy that this knowledge brings me?
