GATHERING
Come and Follow Me

Francis Patrick O'Brien

1. God has anointed me that I may hear
The cries of all who are oppressed.
I know their doubt and fear, I know their pain.
Who will release them, give them rest?

2. My life is emptied out for those made low.
I bear their burden and their strife.
I win them victory upon a tree.
Who will give comfort, bring them life?

SENDING FORTH

Our God  Jonas Myran, Matt Redman, Jesse Reeves & Chris Tomlin

Water You turned into wine
Opened the eyes of the blind
There’s no one like You
None like You

Into the darkness You shine
Out of the ashes we rise
There’s no one like You
None like You

REFRAIN:

Our God is greater, our God is stronger;

God, You are higher than any other. Our God is healer, awesome in power, our God, our God.

Into the darkness You shine
Out of the ashes we rise
There’s no one like You
None like You

Our God is greater...

BRIDGE:

And if our God is for us then who could ever stop us, and if our God is with us then what could stand against?

And if our God is for us then who could ever stop us, and if our God is with us then what could stand against?

What could stand against?

Our God is greater...

Dear Friends,

Today’s Gospel and Old Testament readings have to do with a call that Jonah experienced and that Simon, Andrew, James and John all heard from Jesus and to which they responded. It’s a call to discipleship and it’s one that is meant for all of us.

Many of us heard the story of Jonah in the belly of the fish when we were young. I find it interesting that the church chose to skip that part of the story for today’s reading which begins:

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding.

The reason Jonah was in the belly of the fish was because he first attempted to escape God’s call by literally fleeing on a ship. When God sent a storm, the sailors threw Jonah overboard, and the fish swallowed him. Three days later, returned to dry land (I’ll spare you the details), Jonah had a different attitude. I wonder if the point is that one way or another, it’s best to respond to God’s call, which is constant and unyielding, even in the face of our disobedience and imperfection.

The disciples that responded so readily to Jesus’ call in today’s Gospel were also far from perfect. Remember how they bickered over who would get to sit at Jesus’ right hand in the coming kingdom? Remember how they fell asleep at Gethsemane and abandoned him at Calvary? Yet they are saints – examples for all of us, celebrated for centuries by the church to which we belong.

So if the call to discipleship is unyielding and uncompromising, and meant for all of us, to what exactly are we being called?

In the Gospel, Jesus calls the disciples to follow him, and they do. What does following Jesus mean? To what are we to follow him? To preaching (announcing the good news that the reign of God is at hand and within), teaching, healing, prayer, obedience, redemptive suffering, death and resurrection. I realize that many of those words may sound churchy or foreign to us living as we do in the complex world of 2018. But they are what we are called to, according to the gifts we’ve been given, by virtue of our baptism. And if we, in our weakness and imperfection will try to respond to the call, God will bring great blessings to our world and to us.

When Jonah preached repentance as he’d been commanded, “the people of Nineveh believed God … When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.”

When Jesus’ disciples obeyed the command to go and teach all nations, a church that none of them could imagine grew to span centuries and to touch all parts of our world. Ours is a church that has accomplished tremendous good, even though it is made up of imperfect, weak and disobedient people just like you and me, who have tried to respond to God’s call, relying on God’s grace.

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Come, follow me

Listening to the Word: Mark 1:14-20
As you hear Jesus calling others to be fishers of people, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart?

Looking into My Life
At the start of Jesus’ ministry, Jesus invites people to “believe in the Good News.” How would I explain what that means to others? If someone asked me: To what work has Jesus called you?, how would I answer?

Our Giving

Quarterly Focus: St. Mary Magdalen School
St. Mary Magdalen students enjoy a wide variety of extra-curricular activities including football, basketball, volleyball, softball, and track teams. After school clubs also include Art Club, Bricks 4 Kidz, Soccer Club, STEM Club, and Chess Club.

Our Youth and Young Adult Leaders Need Our Help!
For years, our retreat leaders have volunteered their time (about 40 hour of preparation) and talent (years of experience sharing faith) for our Confirmation teens. A little known fact, they also pay for room and board while many take time off work to help at the retreat. This year, we are hoping, praying and asking for help to offset the cost. Whatever is donated to our retreat fund will go into a pool to reduce, or even eliminate, the cost for our leaders to volunteer. The total cost for leaders this year is $3,000. Every dollar given will be humbly and gratefully received as ‘thank you for your love and dedication to our young teens.’ Envelopes are in the church narthex. Thank you church.

Set it and Forget it: Online Giving
