Love is Not Loved: A Readers Theater Friday, February 16 7:00pm, Serra Center

Pope Francis said, "We Christians are called to contemplate the mystery of Love not loved and to pour out mercy upon the world. On the cross, the tree of life, evil was transformed into good; we too, as disciples of the Crucified One, are called to be "trees of life" that absorb the contamination of indifference and restore the pure air of love to the world."

Sharon and David Hoover from Inscape Ministries present a readers theater using a scene from their play Francis of Assisi: Face to Face and storytelling to confront indifference to the sufferings of the world and invite participants to become engaged lovers in a world gone awry.

RSVP: www.padreserra.org or deserie@padreserra.org

When the dark - ness clos - es in, Lord, still I will say,

"Bless-ed be the name of _ the Lord, _ bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of _ the _ Lord, _ bless-ed be Your glo - ri - ous name." _

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Quiet Heroes

In today's Gospel Jesus worked his first miracle in Mark's Gospel – and it's a healing – no surprise there. The entire ministry of Jesus demonstrated His compassion for the suffering. He laid hands on lepers, restored sight to the blind, returned vitality to those whose limbs have failed them, and saved Peter's mother-in-law from her fever. In well-fed cultures like ours, we may not appreciate how threatening fevers are to the malnourished, who don't have the physical resources to feed the fever that fends off the infection. Fevers were often death sentences. Jesus, instructed of her fragility, moved directly to her aid, and with a touch, restored her completely.

Oh, to be able to lay hands and cure!

Even though we don't have Jesus' amazing powers, we can do the same good work as those attending Peter's mother-in-law, in bringing Him to the afflicted. We do our best to see to it that those who are unable to join us on each weekend in person are still able to feel the Lord's presence in their lives. To accomplish this, in our parish we have over thirty people, quiet heroes all, who do just that, bringing the Body of Christ to the sick and infirm.

They visit people in their homes, in convalescent hospitals, in assisted living residences, rehabilitation centers, and at both Pleasant Valley Hospital and St. John's Hospital in Oxnard. Some of our ministers work full time and have families. Some are retired, and are generously making good use of their free time. They try, at each encounter, to spend some social time with their communicant, lead the sick in brief but intense and worshipful prayer, and then offer them communion.

I frequently note how deeply connected these ministers become to their charges, often accompanying them from home care, to hospital and convalescent care, all the way to their deaths, at times even attending their funerals. From personal experience, I can attest to the beautiful faith of our elderly and sick parishioners. I often feel that I receive more than those I visit, whose trust in, and love of the Lord is often so deep.

Those that do will often exhibit many other beautiful qualities of generosity, tenderness, prayerfulness and compassion. In effect, they resemble Jesus, at least to me.

This ministry is not for everyone. I encourage you to consider joining this marvelous company of Christ-like, quiet heroes. You don't have to be wise or eloquent. You do need a caring heart, but I bet that's already true about you. Give this service some deep thought.

Siempre adelante!

Our Giving

Together in Mission ~ February 3 and 4

Our gifts are an active demonstration of our faith and love for those in our Archdiocese who need our support. We invite all families, those who have given in the past, and those who have not yet made a gift, to prayerfully consider making a commitment this year. Jesus' great love for us calls us to love one another, especially people in need. Info at <http://ourmissionla.org>.

Quarterly Focus ~ St. Mary Magdalen School

My name is Caroline Waltman. My family and I have been parishioners of PSP since 1992. I am blessed to be a Catholic school teacher and a parent of a student and a graduate of St. Mary Magdalen School. This unique roll provides me with the opportunity to "Encounter Jesus" through priests, my principal, colleagues, students and their families. It also allows me to "Be a Disciple" by weaving our Catholic faith and my love for God into each lesson I teach. As important, my husband and I witness our sons receiving a strong Catholic education that challenges them academically and encourages them to live out the Gospel through service projects and ministries offered at school and this wonderful parish.

Preparing for Lent

Lent is a solemn religious season that begins on Ash Wednesday and lasts for forty days. It is the Church's annual retreat — a time-out — and often we add a spiritual practice to grow closer to God.

Ash Wednesday

February 14

Masses: 8:00am, noon, 7:00pm

A day of fast and abstinence

Love is Not Loved

Friday February 16, 7:00pm Serra Center

Sharon and David Hoover from Inscape Ministries present a readers theater using a short scene from the play, "Francis of Assisi: Face to Face," and storytelling to confront indifference to the sufferings of the world and invite participants to become engaged lovers in a world gone awry.

Community Reconciliation Service

Wednesday March 7, 7:00 – 8:30pm

About ten caring priests will be available to hear confessions. Bring a can for the food pantry. Stay for some refreshments afterwards in the courtyard.

Living Last Supper and Soup

Friday March 23, 7:00pm

A thought-provoking, portrayal of what may have gone through the minds of the apostles when the Lord said "One of you will betray me..." Come at 5:00pm for Soup Supper hosted by St. Vincent De Paul.

Stations of the Cross

Pray them anytime, in the garden

Various versions of the Stations of the Cross are available for adults and families in the metal box in the garden.
