

One hundred eleven children and their parents attended a reconciliation retreat to learn about and reflect on this sacrament to grow closer to God. Our Lenten whole community reconciliation service with individual confessions is this Wednesday, March 7 at 7:00pm. If it has been a while, this is the time. Please bring a can of food for the pantry and stay after for refreshments at the bell tower.

Going Without Knowing: Pitching Our Tent in Faith

What is faith? Simply stated it is that moment of trust when we say yes to the invitation to enter a loving relationship with God. At times faith feels like a dance, a celebration, all is well. Then comes times of spiritual darkness and doubt. How can we nourish a faith that seems to be dying of thirst in the wilderness? How do we go without knowing? How do we live a focused and purposeful life of faith in season and out of season? With Abraham, Sarah and the Israelite as our guides, this retreat will challenge and invite us pitch our tents in faith.

Spending Time with God

Dear Faith Family,

Today our Confirmation Year 2 teens embarked on our Confirmation retreat. This year, we had a new date and a new venue (Gindling Hilltop in Malibu), but the same mission: To allow the teens to encounter Christ and to advocate discipleship. I believe that we were successful.

I have been blessed to watch this encounter for almost a decade and it never ceases to move and motivate my spiritual life as well. With the help of the testimonies of our peer, young adult and adult leaders, the goofy ice breakers and the participation in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament I can honestly say that vibrant evangelization is at the forefront of our retreat.

Every retreat there seems to be, what we call in Youth Ministry, the “retreat high” and there is no doubt in my mind that our teens are currently feeling this. This tends to happen when you fall in love, or realize that someone loves you. This is what happens at most retreats; the realization of God’s love and the reciprocation of it tend to lead to this feeling.

Let us pray that after this retreat the understanding of God’s love is held onto, especially after the “retreat high” subsides. God’s love isn’t conditional, and it is there even in our busyness and our failure to recognize it.

With that said, it is still important to go on those “dates” with God, to reignite the feeling. For this Lenten season, I challenge you all to take time to spend with God. It doesn’t have to be a retreat (but if you can, go for it), but maybe time in the chapel, silent time in scripture or even listening to some music that resounds God’s love for us.

I also wanted to take this time to thank all of you who donated to our Peer Leader Retreat Fund. It was because of you we were able to send all 40 of all our leaders at a reduced cost. Your generosity always amazes me and on behalf of the leaders, I’d like to say that we are truly blessed to have such a strong parish family that truly cares for each other.

God Bless,

Brett Becker

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

The zeal of Jesus ~ John 2:13-25

Jesus' action in this gospel points to spiritual complacency. His bold gestures proclaim that conventional religion is not enough. Faith is not a matter of convenience. We must be in love with God, be passionate about worship and prayer, and live the covenant with God fully.

Have I experienced a time of lukewarm faith? How can I reawaken myself from "business as usual" to a more lively faith? What would be the "signs" of such a change of heart in my life?

Protect the Children

Urge Kids Not to Keep Secrets from Trusted Adults

Abusers often encourage their victims to keep secrets from their parents or other trusted adults, and reinforce secrecy through bribes, threats or by making it seem fun and exciting to keep a secret.

Parents should talk to their kids about secrets, and teach them the difference between fun secrets like a birthday surprise and bad secrets like unsafe touches. Kids should know that adults should never ask them to keep secrets from their parents, and if an adult does ask them to keep secrets, to talk to their parents immediately. To view a kid-friendly video on this topic, visit <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GWqTzelTGLY>.

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
 shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
 brushes his teeth
 with ADVERTISED toothpaste
 washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
 drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . .
 refuses to ADVERTISE
 believing it doesn't pay.
 Later if business is poor
 he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
