Dear Friends,

During these weeks of Lent, we've been preparing ourselves through fasting, prayer, and almsgiving so that we might open ourselves more fully to God's presence in our lives. This has been a journey. So here we are now on Palm Sunday, hearing the story of Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem, his passion and his death. It's a story we've heard many times before. We know how it begins and how it ends. But I invite you to consider experiencing Jesus' journey, passion, death, and resurrection this Holy Week.

Today, like the crowds of Jesus' time, we carry palms and praise him but during the Passion we are reminded that we are all sinners in need of God's salvation. Today put your palms in a place that will be a constant reminder of your journey from the darkness of sin to God's eternal light.

In Monday's gospel, we hear the story of Jesus' meal with Lazarus, Martha, and Mary. Judas the Iscariot criticizes Jesus for allowing Mary to use a costly perfumed oil to anoint his feet when it could have been sold "for three hundred days wages and given to the poor." Jesus responds, "You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me." This is our reminder that we will never lack opportunities to give ourselves in imitation of Jesus to serve the poor. This week share more of your God-given gifts to help those in need.

In John's account of the Last Supper in Tuesday's gospel, Jesus announces that one of his disciples will betray him, leaving them all asking, "Is it I?" We know how the story goes: Judas betrays Jesus for thirty pieces of silver. But, really, haven't we all betrayed Jesus at one time or another in our lives? Today, identify and resolve to overcome those behaviors that betray God.

In Wednesday's gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to prepare a place for the Passover meal, his Last Supper. Today is a good day to reflect on how this Lenten journey has helped us prepare a room for Jesus in our lives. Identify what worked and how you can continue that practice beyond Easter.

On Holy Thursday we celebrate the Last Supper, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrament in which we receive his body and blood, and the priesthood through the washing of the disciples' feet. This evening we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper (7:00pm), a beautiful liturgy that reminds us of our call to be Jesus' disciples, washing the feet of others in service and receiving the life giving food that sustains us in that service. This evening is a good opportunity to renew or commit to being a true disciple of Jesus.

Our Holy Week journey continues to Good Friday, the day Jesus suffered and died. Make a commitment to experience the Lord's passion by attending one of our Good Friday liturgies (12:00 or 7:00pm) and the Living Stations of the Cross (1:45pm). Reflect today on how you have grown closer to God through your experience of physical or emotional suffering.

Holy Saturday is the night in which God turned death to life. Appropriately, at the Easter Vigil, we baptize new Christians and accept them into full communion with the church. Through the waters of baptism, they "die" to their old life and joyfully join themselves to Christ, to new life. If you've never been to an Easter Vigil, I invite you next Saturday (7:30pm). This night discern what needs to die in your life so that you may be joined more fully with Christ.

By experiencing Holy Week and allowing ourselves to enter into Jesus' suffering, we can truly experience the joy of Easter Sunday when resurrected life begins, when love and light triumph over sin and darkness. At our Easter morning liturgy, the "Alleluia" will never sound so good or be more profound in our hearts.

Families

Spark! Needs Your Help

Children's Faith Formation Spark! is in need of parent volunteers who are able to sub a center on an as-needed basis. This is low-level responsibility and high level, just be present to the kids. Put your name on the call list, please contact Tere@padreserra.org.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Is the Catholic Church Right for You?

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Do you have questions about what the Church teaches about suffering, hope and forgiveness? Do you wonder why we worship as we do, what happens at confession, why the Blessed Virgin Mary is so important to Catholics? These and many other topics are explored on Tuesday evenings at the parish in an informal setting. Come and see. For more information, please contact Catherine Shadduck at catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 ext 331.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Jesus dies for us ~ Mark 14:1-15:47

Every Palm Sunday we hear the story of Jesus' passion and death. Have I ever felt abandoned by God? Looking back on that time now, do I have a sense of how God was still present and active then? How? Thinking of people in my life who are suffering or despairing for any reason, how might I make myself available to them so they'll know they are not alone?

Our Giving

Holy Thursday Collection ~ March 29

Jesus himself spent a night in jail. This special collection supports prison ministry in the Archdiocese, including the youth correctional facility here in Camarillo.

The Pontifical Good Friday Collection ~ March 30

Pope Francis asks us to support this collection which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace. Please send help using the envelopes in the church lobby. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit myfranciscan.org/good-friday

Box Tops for Education!

Help our school! St. Mary Magdalen School, transitional kindergarten (TK) through grade 8, earns money by collecting Box Tops. Each box top is worth 10 cents. This is an easy and great way to help our school earn money. Please collect your box tops and turn them into the parish office.

Set it and Forget it: Online Giving

Go to the parish website or contact Pam Kingsley pam@padreserra.org to learn how to sign up. Two hundred and fourteen Padre Serra households use online giving successfully.

One Can Make a Difference

Remember our friends and neighbors served by our food pantry. All the items you place in the boxes in church are taken over to our centralized storage at St. Mary's Chapel on Sunday afternoon. Every Monday food is bagged and distributed to families in need.

Protect the Children

Teach Children Gratitude

Gratitude is one of life's greatest virtues. Teaching children to recognize the many blessings in their lives helps them to have grateful hearts. Modeling gratitude at home can help children learn what to value and be grateful for, and learn to avoid the things that are not valuable or worthy of their time and interest.

Other Notes

Holy Week Office Hours

The office will close on Good Friday, March 30 at 12:00pm and on Easter Sunday.

Website ~ Calendar

Did you know you can see the parish calendar on the website? All meetings, faith formation, even funerals are on the parish calendar. From the same page, you can choose presider's schedule. The parish website is full of great info! www.padreserra.org → Engage → Parish Calendar

Lost and Found

Have you lost a pair of glasses, a sweater or maybe car keys? The Lost and Found basket is located on the east side of the main church doors or please stop by the office to inquire.
