What does the Church really say about Mary of Nazareth? How do Fatima, Lourdes and Guadalupe fit in?

Sr. Gretchen Hailer, RSHM, will guide us through scripture, Church statements, devotions and feast days, so we may have a more complete and authentic picture of Mary, the Mother of our Lord.

Sr. Gretchen is religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary and active in a variety of ministries including hospice care, bereavement, and media literacy education. She holds a masters in religious education and has published several books, produced a film, and presented at religious education conferences in more than 80 dioceses.

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
 Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
 We give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
 You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
 You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

The Peace and Anxiety of Discipleship

Dear Faith Family,

I hope you all are having a wonderful Easter Season!

This Sunday's Gospel is quite interesting to me. I love how it opens with two disciples discussing their previous encounter with Jesus. A lot of us are blessed to have encounters with God; many of us have had an instance in our lives where God was present and it gives us fuel as we live our lives as disciples. But what makes this Sunday's Gospel interesting, is that Jesus approaches them in the present and they are filled with anxiety.

I find this part of the Gospel relevant to our lives because we sometimes think of the past times where we have experienced God's love, and also fail to realize how God reveals himself in the present.

I've been blessed with encounters of God on various retreats and I tend to hold these encounters close to my heart. There is absolutely nothing wrong thinking back to a time where God's love was tangible and vibrant, and like I said, it is great fuel for our mission as disciples. Sometimes though, there is a temptation to only focus on those times and not recognize how God is calling us to mission in the present moment. In fact, when Jesus appears to the disciples, it says that they were "startled and terrified." I think it's common for us to feel this way as well.

It is normal to be a bit scared of what God is calling us to do in our everyday lives. But I think it should give us some sense of peace to know that His disciples felt the same way at times. It is nice knowing that we may share some insecurities that the disciples also had. In the Gospel their literal encounter with the resurrected Christ had them feeling startled and terrified. But when Jesus says "peace be with you," to the disciples in this passage, he also is directing that toward us, His current disciples.

So faith family, I invite you all to lift each other up during this Easter Season and to help each other not only share your personal, past accounts of God's grace, but to also show each other how God is currently present in our lives, calling us to share His loving message and to have a meal with Him. Although discipleship can be scary sometimes, every time we encounter Christ, I pray that we allow ourselves to be at peace with the encounter and to have the bravery to go touch his wounds and have a meal with Him.

Happy Easter everybody!

Our Giving

Quarterly Focus: St. John's Seminary

Our founding families cherish memories of our early years celebrating mass in the college chapel at St. John's Seminary, before our church building was constructed. The seminary held their arms wide open for our parish community from 1988 to 1995. They are hosting an open house, Saturday, April 21 from 1:00 to 4:00pm. All are welcome to tour the grounds, see the historic chapel, visit the Our Lady of Lourdes grotto and meet the seminarians.

Bundle Sunday ~ April 15

Please bring your gently used clothing, books, household items for St. Vincent de Paul. The donation truck will be in the east parking lot from 8:00am-12:30pm. liz@padreserra.org

Protect the Children

Pray for Healing of Abuse Victims

Each of us, as members of our Catholic community, can contribute to the healing of those harmed by abuse by remembering survivors in our prayers:

Mindful that Jesus' resurrection transforms all who believe, we as church embrace our shared responsibility to protect our children and youth, and to ensure that they grow up knowing they are safe and loved. In solidarity with those victims who have endured the pain of abuse, we re-dedicate ourselves to their healing by increasing our own awareness and understanding, by contributing to the safe environment and practices of our church, and by extending our efforts out into the world.

For specific information on how you can make the world a safer place for children and youth please visit: www.archla.org/protecting

Special Children's Bulletin

Be sure to pick one up for your family in the church lobby. Great activities for kids and discussion points for the whole family.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Is the Catholic Church Right for You?

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Do you have questions about what the Church teaches about suffering, hope and forgiveness? Do you wonder why we worship as we do, what happens at confession, why the Blessed Virgin Mary is so important to Catholics? These and many other topics are explored on Tuesday evenings at the parish in an informal setting. Come and see. For more information, please contact Catherine Shadduck at catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 ext 331.
