What does the Church really say about Mary of Nazareth? How do Fatima, Lourdes and Guadalupe fit in?

Sr. Gretchen Hailer, RSHM, will guide us through scripture, Church statements, devotions and feast days, so we may have a more complete and authentic picture of Mary, the Mother of our Lord.

Sr. Gretchen is religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary and active in a variety of ministries including hospice care, bereavement, and media literacy education. She holds a masters in religious education and has published several books, produced a film, and presented at religious education conferences in more than 80 dioceses.

Faith Formation for Children and Teens

Live a Life of Faith, Understanding and Love

Every year we have about 600 children and teens enrolled in Faith Formation. Kids come to church after school to make friends, have fun and learn about our Catholic faith. This is not just sacrament preparation; it is for every year from age 3 through high school. Church is fun and amazing the more we learn about Jesus!

Little Church 3 years old to K

During Sunday mass at 9:00am and 11:00am. Children gather to make friends and learn about our Catholic faith through stories, prayer, songs, crafts and snacks.

Spark! Grades 1 through 5

Where 'sparks' of faith turn into hearts on fire for Jesus! Small groups of 12 children learn about our Catholic faith in a way that fosters fun, fellowship and discipleship.

Three:Sixteen Grades 6, 7 and 8

The name is from the gospel of John 3:16! Kids have a blast reading scripture, playing, praying and being crazy. They have an equal focus on bible study and building community with one another.

First Reconciliation and First Communion Grades 1 through 8

After two consecutive years of the whole family participating in Faith Formation, children who are ready attend 2 half-day retreats with their parents to prepare for these holy sacraments.

4:12 High School

The name is from the first book of Timothy. Teens meet weekly to make connections, share and grow in faith. They gather with young adult leaders and our Youth Minister.

Youth Confirmation High School

This two-year process for high school teens includes Sunday sessions, hands-on ministry, group faith sharing, events, retreats and service experiences that culminate in receiving the sacrament.

Registration packets are available beginning May 1, in the parish office and at www.padreserra.org/children, please print them and turn them in before July 1. Contact tere@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 x347

Celebrate True Sabbath:

Sunday is fun day for families, a day to spend time with God and friends too. Enjoy the lovely fellowship and conversation in the courtyard, prayer gardens, chapel and a myriad of ways to connect the kids. Plan to spend a couple of hours.

GLORIA

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALMPs. 118: The Stone Which the Builders Rejected

Bernadette Farrell

1. Let the family of Israel say:
"God's love has no end,
God's love has no end."
Let the family of Aaron say:
"God's love has no end,
God's love has no end."
And let all who fear God,
and let all who fear God
say his love is without end.
Alleluia, alleluia,
say his love is without end.
2. I called to the Lord in my distress,
he answered me and set me free.
He answered me and set me free.
God is at my side, God is at my side,
God is here to help me now.
Alleluia, alleluia,
say his love is without end.
3. Open to me the gates of holiness;
I will enter and give thanks.
This is the Lord's own gate,
the gate where the just may enter in.
I will thank you, Lord,
I will thank you, Lord,
for you hear and answer me.
Alleluia, Alleluia,
for you hear and answer me.
4. Go forward with branches,
go forward processing,
go to the altar of the Lord
and give thanks to God,
and give thanks to God
for his love is without end.
Alleluia, alleluia,
for his love is without end.

I Am the Vine

Bob Hurd

Refrain

I am the vine, you are the branch-es. Re - main in me, you shall be fruit - ful. Love for the world, hope for the hope - less.

1. If you love, then you must root yourself in me;
For the branch will fail and die without a tree.
2. If you give, then you must give yourself to me;
For the well will soon run dry without the sea.

Blessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

Do All Things with Love

Dear Parish Family,

There is so much we can say of our Sunday Gospel this week, I will keep it simple. Jesus is the Good Shepherd, who showed us total self-giving love. For some of us, it's hard to understand the sacrifices that a good shepherd was willing to make for his flock. A hired hand is there for the pay, at the sign of danger abandons the sheep, he has no investment with the sheep in his care. A good shepherd loves his sheep, living alongside of them for many years, knowing each one. He would see to the needs of his sheep, guiding them where to eat and drink, finding shelter from the weather, even risking his life to protect the sheep from wolves or thieves. A good shepherd knows his sheep and they know his voice, they trust him and follow him. He cares for his sheep not out of obligation but of love.

For those of us who have only seen sheep or shepherds at the county fair, perhaps it is easier to understand this kind of self-giving love, in the relationship of a parent and his child. In the second reading we are reminded, "Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God." We are His Children, his beloved. As his children, no sacrifice is too much. When I was a child my parents worked in the fields, at times leaving the house as the sun was rising and back as it was setting. A hard job and low wage, to be able to provide for my siblings and me. Even after they got home, they did not have the luxury to put their feet up and rest. Together they would take on the daily house tasks, mom making sure we ate together a warm healthy dinner, dad would make sure we had done our homework and have us share our day's adventures. I remember dad always keeping up the yard, watering the grass and flowers. Why would he add another task to his already exhausted body? He did this because he wanted us to have a place to play and knew how much my mom loved the roses in the garden. Sundays, their only day off, after church, we would pack up the car and go to the park or beach. I am sure they would much rather have stayed home and slept in. I don't remember ever hearing them complain about how tired they were. I am able to see all their sacrifice was done not out of obligation but out of love. I am sure you have many similar stories of your own. No sacrifice is too big for those you love.

This Sunday is also Vocation Sunday, we pray for our priest and Church leaders who are caring for the souls, who go out and gather the lost sheep to bring back to God's loving embrace. And for all the many good shepherds in our lives, who are given the responsibility of caring for others, may we all be his good sheep, listening attentively to his voice, and follow his example of self-giving love. Inspiring others to follow him especially in the vocation of priesthood or religious life. Jesus the Good Shepherd is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Let us as followers of Jesus, be witnesses to his resurrection, and do all things with love.

Siempre adelante,

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Congratulations to our new members!

The baptismal font is where our lives as Catholic Christians begin sacramentally. It is the place where the sacrament of baptism is celebrated and where we bless ourselves every week with its holy water to remind us of our life in Christ Jesus. At the Easter Vigil liturgy, the font is the focus of much of the night's activity. At this year's Easter Vigil, 14 people were immersed in the waters of the font. Then they were confirmed and received Eucharist for the first time. It is with great joy that we welcome into our community April Arguelles, Abby Booth, Brittany Carruth, Kylan Carruth, Shay Carruth, Josh Castillo, Adan Guzman, Alonso Guzman, Robert Henson, Daniel Mendoza, Isabel Mendoza, Alina Miller, Bryan Petrie and Trinity Wade-Gunnels. Our parish community and the universal Church is enriched and renewed by their gifts as together we strive to carry on the mission of Jesus to build God's kingdom. If you are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please contact Catherine Shadduck at catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 ext 331.

Quarterly Focus: St. John's Seminary

Since 1939, St. John's has served as our Archdiocese's Seminary, preparing men for the priesthood. More than 1,200 men have lived, studied, and prepared to serve God and his people, quietly right next door to our parish. The tradition continues as they enter their 80th year.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 10:11-18 ~ Jesus is the Good Shepherd

What qualities of God does the image of the Good Shepherd suggest? How do I experience God in this way? How do I feel about Jesus' being my shepherd? What does it mean that he lays down his life for me? How would I explain this to others?

Our Prayer Life

Mother's Day Novena Cards

Cards are available in the church lobby for those who wish to enroll their mother, living or deceased, in our novena of Masses. For nine days in a row, your mom will be prayed for in community during Mass. This prayer tradition has its origin in the 9 days that the apostles prayed in the upper room while they waited for Jesus to send the Holy Spirit. It is concentrated prayer for a specific intention done in a community of love.

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
 with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . .
 refuses to ADVERTISE
 believing it doesn't pay.
 Later if business is poor
 he ADVERTISES it for sale.
