Going Without Knowing: Pitching Our Tent in Faith

What is faith? Simply stated it is that moment of trust when we say yes to the invitation to enter a loving relationship with God. At times faith feels like a dance, a celebration, all is well. Then comes times of spiritual darkness and doubt. How can we nourish a faith that seems to be dying of thirst in the wilderness? How do we go without knowing? How do we live a focused and purposeful life of faith in season and out of season? With Abraham, Sarah and the Israelite as our guides, this retreat will challenge and invite us pitch our tents in faith.

Love

Dear Parish Family,

Today we are reminded of our life's purpose, to love one another as God has loved us. We were created out of love and for love. If we have experienced love in our lives, we have known God, for God is love.

There are many kinds of love. Love for parent, child, spouse, friends, even love for our pets. Each love is special and forms a connection with those we love, wanting their happiness more than our own. The experience of love in our lives empowers us, it fills us with joy and happiness, strength, courage and even self-giving sacrifices. It is the force that drives us, essential to our survival. It is an internal attitude which influences every single thing we do, say and think.

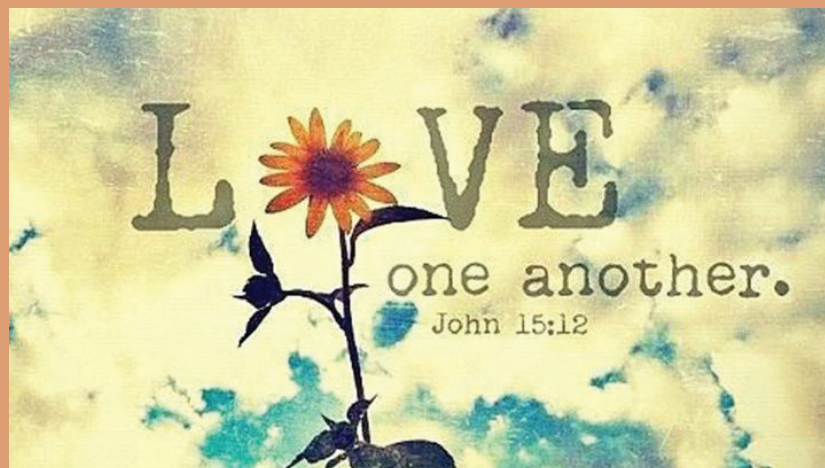

It is easy to love those who love us, like our friends and family or those we admire. I think that when Jesus gives us the commandment to love one another, this is not who he was referring to. It is an automatic response to immediately think of those we love, and their needs. The challenge is to love those who are hard to love. Those who reject us, the stranger, the poor, the sick, the immigrant, or the criminal. They are God's beloved too. Created in God's image, with dignity. They too are the body of Christ. We are called to love as God loves, unconditionally.

When we act out of love for one another, we seek to meet the needs of our brothers and sisters. Through love we are connected and their needs are our needs. We teach love by loving. Let us actively seek those who are in need of love, and show them love and kindness.

John 15:9-17 ~ Love One Another

Jesus commands us to love one another. In what ways have I experienced God's love, offered to me through family, friends, or even strangers? How do I concretely show love to others? Who is most in need of my love and kindness right now – family, neighbors, coworkers, friends? How can I be more loving to strangers I meet in my day?

Our Giving

Together in Mission ~ Padre Serra Update!

Goal $130,510 donated by 1,000 households

YTD $92,119 donated by 437 households

Every year, every parish is asked to contribute to less fortunate parishes and schools in the Archdiocese. These funds go to people – salaries for employees, tuition for children, and assistance to families.

Quarterly Focus: St. John's Seminary

The Seminary is planning campus enhancements to provide a uniquely blended atmosphere conducive to discerning a priestly vocation; space that is prayerful, reflective and engaging. They are creating interactive learning centers with updated technologies and a much needed remodel of the recreation room for relaxation and fellowship.

Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity ~ May 6

There are a dozen or so special collections every year, all for different groups and all needed. This one, the Cardinal McIntyre Fund, goes to 'emergency needs' for people who are already poor and are now faced with a crisis and have nowhere else to turn. Envelopes are in the church lobby.

Protect the Children

Parents Should Research Childcare Providers

Parents need to be the first line of protection for their children, and this includes thoroughly screening anyone who has access to the children. Ask for background information and confirm that all workers have the appropriate clearances before committing to a daycare or childcare provider. ## Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

New members are welcomed into the Catholic faith through the RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Through this process, seekers encounter Jesus in scripture, in prayer, in liturgical rites and through interaction with the parish community. They gather for weekly catechetical sessions to inquire about what the Catholic Church teaches, and to discern how they are being called to be disciples of Jesus, each in his or her own particular circumstance. There is a corresponding process adapted for school-aged children, middle-schoolers and teens who are seeking baptism. If you would like to know more about the RCIA process, for adults or for children, please email Catherine Shaddock at catherine@padreserra.org or call (805) 482-6417 ext. 331.
