God's Mysterious Work in Us

Dear Friends,

As I look at this weekend's readings, and think about being a dad, a grandfather and a son, a few themes emerge and I'd like to share them with you, in case they'd be useful.

Patience

In the second reading from Paul's 2nd letter to the Corinthians, the apostle acknowledges the tension of living in the here and now, and yet living by faith: "... we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what s/he did in the body, whether good or evil." Clearly patience is required to live with this tension. Patience is also required of fathers, grandfathers and sons. I don't mean only the patience a father must have as his children grow and learn and make mistakes along the way. I mean also the patience that fathers must learn to have with themselves, grappling with the truth that they are not perfect any more than their children are, nor than their own fathers were. The stakes are unbelievably high, though, when it comes to raising our children and we so badly want to get it right from the beginning. In Hearts On Fire, Teilhard de Chardin, S.J. puts it this way:

Above all, trust in the slow work of God. We are quite naturally impatient in everything to reach the end without delay. We should like to skip the intermediate stages. We are impatient on the way to something unknown, something new.

Allowing

In our first reading from Ezekiel, we are reminded that the LORD operates in ways beyond our understanding: "I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom." Dads know what it is to see our children turn out differently than we had planned, or to arrive at a good place but by a route we had not foreseen, nor endorsed! If our children, who are really only on loan to us, don't succeed in some way to teach us to allow God to operate in his sometimes strange ways, then I don't know who or what will. Chardin continues:

And yet it is the law of all progress that it is made by passing through some stages of instability – and that it may take a very long time. And so I think it is with you; your ideas mature gradually – let them grow, let them shape themselves, without undue haste. Don't try to force them on, as though you could be today what time (that is to say, grace and circumstances acting on your own good will) will make of you tomorrow.

Trust

In today's passage from Mark's gospel, Jesus tells the parable of a man who scatters seed on the land and goes about his business, rising and sleeping, night and day, trusting that through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Since the man's livelihood, indeed his life are dependent on what happens "of its own accord," that is, the land yielding fruit for the harvest, it's clear that trust is in play here. And so it is with fathers, and grandfathers and sons. It may be that we come to trust in God only with great struggle. It may be that we have to renew that struggle daily, or maybe in different seasons of our lives. But trust we must. Chardin concludes:

Only God could say what this new spirit gradually forming within you will be. Give Our Lord the benefit of believing that his hand is leading you, and accept the anxiety of feeling yourself in suspense and incomplete.

And why are we counseled to accept this anxiety and to trust? Because "of its own accord, the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come."

So, our children, our dads, ourselves ... one way or another we all become ripe for the harvest, in God's mysterious way, in God's time.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Mark 4:26-34 ~ I will choose Christ

The growth of a seed is imperceptible; it happens over time and we cannot make it grow. All we can do is work to provide the right environment and trust that by doing our part, the seed will grow. Our life and faith is much like the seed. What are the ways in which I keep the soil of my life cultivated so it's a healthy growing environment for the Word of God? Are there things I could do differently?

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Baptism for School-Age Children

We have a loving and welcoming process at Padre Serra through which unbaptized children 6 years and older are prepared to be received into the Church. They meet on Monday afternoons, starting in Sept, to learn about the Bible, Jesus, the Church, prayer, and how God is acting in their lives. They also participate in various Faith Formation activities with the other children of the parish. Parent participation is encouraged and it is a wonderful way for the entire family to become integrated into the life of our parish. A reduced registration fee is available through July 1. For questions or to register your child, please contact Catherine Shaddock: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Our Giving

He used every gift to glorify and serve God, including his life.

In the Courtyard

Serra Seniors Luncheon Tickets

Safeguard the Children

Educate Children to Identify Risky Behavior

Recently, abuse against women has been thrust into the public spotlight, with the "Me Too" movement. It is important for parents/caregivers to be aware of risks to girls and risks to boys. Boys and girls both need to be educated on what's acceptable and what's inappropriate, and how to react if someone does something that crosses the line. It is important for adults to reinforce the message that we must all look for, identify, and call attention to the risky behavior exhibited by any adult toward any child.

Our Prayer Life

Celebrating Dad ~ Sunday, June 17

Enroll your father living or deceased, in our novena of masses. Get your card in the parish office. For nine days in a row, your dad will be prayed for in community during Mass. This prayer tradition has its origin in the 9 days that the apostles prayed in the upper room while they waited for Jesus to send the Holy Spirit. It is concentrated prayer for a specific intention done in a community of love.
