JULY 15, 2018 FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

12 crosses mark the places where the walls of our church were anointed with Sacred Chrism during its dedication on July 1, 1995. They are lighted annually on the anniversary of the dedication which is also the feast day of St. Junípero Serra, our patron. Go be God's light in the world!

Knocking on Doors

Dear Faith Family,

Happy summer to all of you!

This Sunday's gospel is a unique one. As you may know by now, I like to try to relate our Sunday readings to something that is relevant to us in our current lives. Upon first glance, it seems pretty difficult to do so with the instructions that Christ gives to the Apostles regarding sacks, tunics and sandals. It especially seems irrelevant to us when Jesus gives authority to the Apostles over unclean spirits.

While it seems tough to relate to, there is plenty in this reading that can help us share the love of Christ with others.

I don't know about you, but I can be timid when it comes to sharing my testimony to "random people." There have been plenty of times in my life where I just assumed that people don't have an interest or that they do not welcome my profession of faith. Looking back though, in plenty of those times where I was hesitant and didn't utter a word, I missed out on a great opportunity to just knock on a door to see if I am welcomed. It is such a great disservice to our faith life to assume that everyone we speak to will not welcome your message.

Humility is rough; it is especially rough to exercise humility with a false idea of what it actually is. Father Patrick told me once that humility isn't a denial of our gifts, but rather, an understanding of them. Once we understand our gifts, it is through humility that we know how effective and beautiful they can be. Especially in regard to sharing our story.

Yes, Jesus does let the Apostles know that there are some houses that will not welcome their message. But Jesus also doesn't ask the Apostles to avoid those houses. In my worst times, I assume all houses hate my message. Because of that, I hesitate to knock on doors to share God. In this gospel message, I think Jesus is instructing us to not be afraid to be declined. If we lack this fear, then sharing our story will become an everyday occurrence.

So friends, be sure to share your story. Start with your friends and family and branch out from there. Let your faith be the most important part of your family, because it is through our faith that we have an understanding that we are all children of God and that we are loved. That seems like something worth sharing, even if we think no one wants to hear it.

God Bless,

Brett Becker
Youth and Young Adult Minister

Little Church ~ July 15, 22, 29

Super fun to make friends and be at church on Sundays!! Parents love it too. Register your child as soon as they turn 3. soraya@padreserra.org

Spark! at home ~ In today's gospel, we hear Jesus give instructions to his disciples to tell people about his love for us and to help people in his name. He is asking us to do the same, but he does not expect us to do this job alone; he wants us to work with others. What are some of the things you need a partner or friend in order to do them?

Three:Sixteen at home ~ In this Sunday's gospel reading, Jesus gives authority to the Twelve and sends them out, giving specific instructions about what they are to bring for their journey. By taking little supplies, his Apostles (the word means "one who is sent") needed to trust in God and rely on the community to meet their needs. In sharing daily tasks, we accomplish more and build relationships that last—and it's a lot more fun! Have you ever needed to rely on others to help you with a task or to meet your needs of shelter, food, water or clothes?

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Mark 6:7-13 ~ Called to discipleship

When Jesus sent the disciples out, he was preparing them for the future when he would be gone and they would carry on his mission. What is the mission given to me by Jesus, by virtue of my baptism? In what ways am I aware of it, living it out? Have I ever had the sense of being called to do something? How did I respond?

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

School-Age Children Seeking Baptism

We have a loving and welcoming process at Padre Serra through which children 6 years of age and older are prepared to be received into the Church. Infants and very young children are baptized based on the faith of their parents, godparents and the community. But school-age children, capable of having a faith of their own, are initiated through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) process, adapted for children. Children new to the process meet on Monday afternoons, starting in September, to begin learning about the Bible, Jesus, the Church, prayer, and how God is acting in their lives. They participate in some of the Faith Formation activities with the baptized children in the parish and gradually learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. Family members, especially parents, are encouraged to participate as much as possible in their child's journey to the sacraments. It is a wonderful experience for the whole family which integrates them into the life of the parish.

If you have a child 6 years or older who is not baptized or was baptized in another Christian tradition, please contact Catherine Shaddock for any questions or to register: catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 x331.

Memorial & Honorarium ~ Gifts for Building Fund

This giving program benefits our parish's building fund but more importantly is a beautiful way to remember or honor a loved one or friend. If you'd like to remember someone or celebrate a birthday or anniversary, please pick up an envelope in the lobby or office. This calendar year a total of $2,670 has been donated. Thank you.

Mission Co-op Appeal Special Collection Leprosy Relief Rural Centre (LRRC)

Leprosy Relief Rural Centre (LRRC) provides medical assistance to patients with leprosy and tuberculosis throughout the diocese of Salem at no cost. LRRC was started in 1956 when leprosy affected one in ten thousand people in the Salem district. The Centre has cured thousands of leprosy patients.

The centre is staffed to find those with leprosy, bring them in, and provide free medical care, The patients are diagnosed and if need be they are kept as inpatients also at no cost. In this way thousands of patients have been cured.

Since the leprosy cured patients are vulnerable to ulcers, mainly due to loss of sensation, LRRC imparts adequate awareness and training too on self-care management. It provides Micro Cellular Rubber Footwear and ulcer care materials. Patients with large ulcers may be hospitalized for a long time. Wherever possible skin grafting is performed for an early cure. Deformity is one of the most common problems for people with leprosy, so LRRC performs reconstructive surgeries to correct deformities in legs and hands so that patients can manage for themselves. Even now, LRRC performs 20 to 30 surgeries per year. The centre has rehabilitated several leprosy patients with self-employment, for example, some have been hired to clean and maintain the centre.

Since 1995, LRRC has also cared for tuberculosis patients. Patients are identified through saliva test, X-ray and treated with oral medications. Some patients need help getting nutritious food to help them get well quickly. We also have St. Joseph's, a multi-speciality hospital with 70 beds caring for poor people from rural areas. We are conducting more than 20 cataract surgeries per month and we are treating diabetic ulcers also. We are providing free physiotherapy treatment to children suffering from syphilis and polio.

Our motto is quality medical care at affordable cost. We have a team of nurses who go to people's houses, teach about the need for good health, and invite them for free diabetic and eye screenings and for free treatment for basic health care. We are providing total care to the leprosy and tuberculosis patients – all at no charge.

Obviously, the centre needs financial support for all the medical care we provide. We depend solely upon philanthropic donors and well-wishers to be able to continue these free treatments. The centre needs to renovate some old buildings which keep inpatients. Your generous contribution is greatly appreciated and allows us to continue the Lord's work. I look forward to meeting you after the masses on July 14th and 15.
