Gospel Reading

Mark 6:30-34

Refrain

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want;
I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love;
I walk by the quiet waters of peace.
3. Though I should wander the valley of death,
I fear no evil for you are at my side;
Your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.
4. You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred,
Crowning me with love beyond my power to hold.
5. Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life;
I will dwell in the house of my God forevermore.

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND GIFTS

As a Fire Is Meant for Burning

Marty Haugen, Gather #744

As a fire is meant for burning with a bright and warming flame,
So the church is meant for mission, giving glory to God's name.
Not to preach our creeds or customs, but to build a bridge of care,
We join hands across the nations, finding neighbors everywhere.

We are learners; we are teachers; we are pilgrims on the way.
We are seekers; we are givers; we are vessels made of clay.
By our gentle, loving actions, we would show that Christ is light.
In a humble, list'ning Spirit, we would live to God's delight.

As a green bud in the springtime is a sign of life renewed,
So may we be signs of oneness 'mid earth's peoples, many hued.
As a rainbow lights the heavens when a storm is past and gone,
May our lives reflect the radiance of God's new and glorious dawn.

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while”

Dear Parish Family,

The summer is here and our recent heat wave made sure we knew it! I hope you all found a way to keep cool, whether it was in an air-conditioned shopping mall, splashing in a pool or enjoying the cool breeze at the beach. Maybe you treated yourself to a tasty frosted drink or ice cream cone. Our necessity to stay cool perhaps provided us with an opportunity to take a much-needed and enjoyable respite from our otherwise busy, same old-same old routine, a joy we may not have taken the opportunity to experience had the weather not been so extreme.

In our gospel today, Jesus tells his apostles after their return from preaching the good news and healing many, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” To put balance back in their lives they needed time to withdraw for a while to reflect, rest, pray, and be at peace. God the Father set the example, “God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work he had done in creation” (Gen 2:3). Jesus too “would withdraw to deserted places to pray” (Lk 5:16). While he was so available to all those in need, the poor, the sick, the outcasts, he knew there was a limit to his availability. He took the time to get away, to rest the body, mind and spirit, being at peace with the Father and the Holy Spirit, a gift he gives us too: “Peace, I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid” (Jn 14:27). His peace gives us salvation, wholeness, health, welfare, safety and balance.

As we make plans and set out on our summer vacations (or staycations), let us not miss the opportunity to recharge our inner selves. It is not about how many items we can check off our bucket list, and it should not be filled with stress in the planning and execution of our plans (I can’t help but think of the Griswolds in National Lampoon’s Vacation). Consider a personal goal to take some time to rest, refocus and recharge our spiritual batteries, restoring balance in our lives, especially caregivers of children, parents, or others entrusted in our care. Find some time this summer, even if it is just 10 minutes a day, where you can have some quiet time to reconnect with God.

Last week while on vacation with my husband, we stopped at Margaret Dodd Park in Pismo Beach. The weather was perfect, the view was absolutely breathtaking and my husband practiced his guitar (yes, we take it everywhere). I had the gift of God's presence and his peace. I began to thank him for the beauty of his creation, but soon found myself in complete silence and feeling happiness and peace in His presence. I could have stayed there forever, but just like the apostles after they have rested, I must return to my ministry. Now with my spiritual battery recharged, I return filled with joy and excitement for my continued service and ministry. I even came home with new ideas for the new program year.

Here are some suggestions of what you can do in your “Retreat with God.” For those of you who have young children, planning some quiet, alone time may be a big challenge. Why not do it together, by spending ‘one quiet minute with God,’ where your family can learn to listen for God's voice in the whisper. At first it may be more like 10 seconds, but that's okay. If you enjoy a good book, let your summer reading be an opportunity to be inspired by a saint’s life. If you enjoy the outdoors, find a beautiful and tranquil location where you see and feel the presence of God in his creation such as the beach, on a mountaintop, near a waterfall or a beautiful garden. Once you are there, ask our Lord to join you, then, just be in His presence ... don't speak, just listen, and enjoy the quiet. With every breath, breathe in the peace of the Holy Spirit. If getting out to nature is not your thing, consider visiting Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel or find another quiet space. If you love apps, try the 3 Minute Retreat by Loyola Press, or God Moment (3 random daily reminders to take a moment to pray) or perhaps a podcast is more your style. Do what works for you and allow your soul to be at peace.

Super fun to make friends and be at church on Sundays!! Parents love it too. Register your child as soon as they turn 3. soraya@padreserra.org

Spark! at home ~ In this Sunday's gospel, even Jesus and his apostles got tired from all the work, and they needed some quiet time to rest and recover. How will you find time to rest this summer? Where will you find some quiet time for prayer?

Three:Sixteen at home ~ This Sunday we are reminded of the importance of quiet time for prayer. In prayer, Jesus renews and strengthens us to live as his disciples. When we pray, we can talk with Jesus about our own needs and the concerns we have for others. Just as Jesus was moved with pity when he saw the crowds, Jesus will hear us and respond with love when we bring these concerns to him in prayer.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Mark 6:30-34 ~ Rest and Renewal

The gospel tells us the apostles “reported all they had done and taught” when they met with Jesus. How do we discern the right time to rest and retreat and when to respond to the needs of others? What clues do I have that indicate it is time for rest and renewal? How do I rest in God?

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

School-Age Children Seeking Baptism

We have a loving and welcoming process at Padre Serra through which children 6 years of age and older are prepared to be received into the Church. Infants and very young children are baptized based on the faith of their parents, godparents and the community. But school-age children, capable of having a faith of their own, are initiated through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) process, adapted for children. Children new to the process meet on Monday afternoons, starting in September, to begin learning about the Bible, Jesus, the Church, prayer, and how God is acting in their lives. They participate in some of the Faith Formation activities with the baptized children in the parish and gradually learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. Family members, especially parents, are encouraged to participate as much as possible in their child's journey to the sacraments. It is a wonderful experience for the whole family which integrates them into the life of the parish.

If you have a child six years or older who is not baptized or was baptized in another Christian tradition, please contact Catherine Shaddock for any questions or to register: catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 x331.

Memorial & Honorarium ~ Gifts for Building Fund

This giving program benefits our parish's building fund but more importantly is a beautiful way to remember or honor a loved one or friend. If you'd like to remember someone or celebrate a birthday or anniversary, please pick up an envelope in the lobby or office. This calendar year a total of $2,670 has been donated. Thank you.

Safeguard the Children

Cellphone Snapshots May Not Be So Innocent

Nearly everyone has a cellphone and that may be great for communication and connection, but it also gives rise to concerns about who may be taking photos of you or your children without your knowledge. You can't police the behaviors of others around you, but you can avoid taking pictures of your own children in public, and posting photos online that give away the locations of your favorite parks and hangouts. If your children have phones, monitor the photos they are taking and sharing, too.

Refreshing Your Faith

Come refresh your understanding of our Catholic faith and deepen your spirituality! All parishioners, catechists and anyone in ministry are encouraged to participate.

Jesus was a teacher and, for the most part, he taught adults in synagogues, in the Temple, on festive occasions, and often in his daily gatherings with people. His goal was to convey the genuine message of God: to let it be known and to guide many people to accept it.

Faith formation and development is lifelong, growing and maturing in various ways as we age. Our baptismal call is to develop ourselves as disciples and proclaimers of the message of Jesus.

A Basic Faith Formation Center is an opportunity to learn anew the theology of our faith on various topics: images of God, scripture, liturgy, sacraments, morality, church's social mission, discipleship, prayer and much more.

Class dates:

August 10, 11, 18

September 14, 15, 22

October 5, 6 and November 3

Sessions times:

Fridays, 6:00 - 9:00pm

Saturdays, 9:30am - 4:00pm

St. Peter Claver Catholic Church

2380 Stow Street

Simi Valley CA 93063
