10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)

Jonas Myrin &amp; Matt Redman

1. The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening comes.
2. You're rich in love and You're slow to anger.
Your name is great and Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing;
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find.
3. And on that day, when my strength is failing,
The end draws near, and my time has come;
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore!

Dear Friends,

Every three years the readings we hear at mass focus for several weeks in the summer on the gift of the Eucharist – the source and summit of our life as Christians. The connection between the Old Testament readings and the corresponding gospel passages are rich during this time. Because becoming familiar with the Scripture readings before we hear them proclaimed at mass can be a very enriching spiritual practice, I offer the summary below of what we can expect in the coming weeks. Please take advantage of the U.S. Catholic Bishop's website where you can read the full text of these readings and let them sink deep into your heart www.usccb.org

| Week                          | OT  | Gospel  |
|-------------------------------|---|---|
| 17th Sunday, July 29   | 2 Kings 4:42-44. Elisha, the man of God, insists on giving his people a gift of loaves: "For thus says the Lord, 'they shall eat and there shall be some left over.' And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the Lord had said."  | John 6:1-15. Jesus instructs his disciples to feed a large crowd that had followed him using only five loaves and two fish from a boy in the crowd. Those suffice to feed over 5000, with 12 baskets left over.   |
| 18th Sunday, August 5  | Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15. The Israelites, delivered from Egypt but not yet in the Promised Land, grumble for lack of food in the desert. The Lord sends manna from heaven and Moses tells them "This is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat."  | John 6:24-35. Jesus explains to the crowd that it was not Moses who gave their ancestors heavenly bread – it was his Father. When they ask for it always, Jesus replies: "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger" [nor thirst].  |
| 19th Sunday, August 12 | 1 Kings 19:4-8. The weary and discouraged prophet Elijah lies down in the desert, praying for death. An angel wakes him up and gives him food and drink: "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" Strengthened, Elijah walks forty days and nights to the mountain of God, Horeb. | John 6:41-51. The Jews murmur among themselves about Jesus saying that he is the bread come down from heaven. He tells them that their ancestors ate manna in the desert but died, and that he is the living bread from heaven, that whoever eats this bread will live forever and that the bread he (Jesus) gives is "my flesh for the life of the world."                 |
| 20th Sunday, August 19 | Proverbs 9:1-6. Wisdom has built her house and invited many to share in the feast she has prepared. Wisdom = The Word of God = Jesus Christ   | John 6:51-58. Jesus says to the Jews quarrelling over his declaration of himself as the bread of life that "unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and blood is true drink."         |
| 21st Sunday, August 26 | Joshua 24:1-2A, 15-17, 18B. Joshua, Moses' successor, gathers all the tribes of Israel together and requires them to decide whether they will serve the Lord, or other "gods". "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Israel decides to do the same.                                   | John 6:60-69. Many of Jesus' disciples struggle with what he has taught and "returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him." When Jesus asks the Twelve if they also want to leave, Simon Peter answers "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." |

Children

Faith Formation Registration is Open for Children and Teens

Live a Life of Faith, Understanding and Love ...

Just like math and English, our kids continue their religious education every year, preschool through high school, and grow to know and love Jesus. A foundation that lasts a lifetime. Registration packets are available at www.padreserra.org/children or in the parish office. Tere Delgado (805) 482-6417 x347, tere@padreserra.org

Spark! at Home ~ Today in our gospel we hear about how the five loaves and two fish that a young boy brought to share, after being blessed by Jesus was enough to feed 5,000. With the help of your family, come up with some of your gifts that you bring and become multiplied. An example would be acts of kindness.

Three:Sixteen at Home ~ In the gospel we hear about the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish. This miracle teaches us about the great gift we receive in the Eucharist, when the gifts of bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. When the bread and wine are offered at Mass, we offer ourselves as well, giving thanks to God for all that we have been given. God has given us many gifts to share and can do amazing things when we offer these gifts in service to others. What are some of the gifts God has given you? How do you share these with others?

New and/or returning CMSC members can make an appointment at www.padreserra.org/news/childrenschoir

High School

Have you been interested in becoming a Peer Leader? Help engage our confirmation candidates by acting as a mentor and facilitator during our weekly confirmation sessions, our annual retreats, and at 4:12 youth nights. 4:00 - 6:00pm in San Juan Capistrano room. If you are confirmed and are interested in joining our team, or if you have any questions, contact youth@padreserra.org

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

School-Age Children Seeking Baptism

We have a loving and welcoming process at Padre Serra through which children 6 years of age and older are prepared to be received into the Church. Infants and very young children are baptized based on the faith of their parents, godparents and the community. But school-age children, capable of having a faith of their own, are initiated through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) process, adapted for children. Children new to the process meet on Monday afternoons, starting in September, to begin learning about the Bible, Jesus, the Church, prayer, and how God is acting in their lives. They participate in some of the Faith Formation activities with the baptized children in the parish and gradually learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. Family members, especially parents, are encouraged to participate as much as possible in their child's journey to the sacraments. It is a wonderful experience for the whole family which integrates them into the life of the parish.

If you have a child 6 years or older who is not baptized or was baptized in another Christian tradition, please contact Catherine Shaddock for any questions or to register: catherine@padreserra.org or (805) 482-6417 x331.

Other Notes

Summer Selfies!

Jerry & Anne Kehoe with grandchildren on the island of Kauai. Take a parish bulletin on your day trips and vacations, pose with it in a selfie then send to photos@padreserra.org. Let's see where we take our church!

Ministries A to Z

Our parish has many ministries and opportunities for growing in faith. Check out our Ministries A-Z page for a list of seasonal, monthly, weekly, and daily ministries! Visit www.padreserra.org/ministries-a-to-z

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

John 6:1-15 ~ Bread of Life

Jesus continuously sets the example that it is not enough to teach, preach or work miracles. Taking responsibility for the hungry and less fortunate is paramount in God's kingdom. Am I really doing my part to care for others? Am I giving back to God and my fellow human kind in gratitude for the many gifts in my life? What can my family and I do this week for the hungry?

Refreshing Your Faith

Come refresh your understanding of our Catholic faith and deepen your spirituality! All parishioners, catechists and anyone in ministry are encouraged to participate.

Jesus was a teacher and, for the most part, he taught adults in synagogues, in the Temple, on festive occasions, and often in his daily gatherings with people. His goal was to convey the genuine message of God: to let it be known and to guide many people to accept it.

Faith formation and development is lifelong, growing and maturing in various ways as we age. Our baptismal call is to develop ourselves as disciples and proclaimers of the message of Jesus.

A Basic Faith Formation Center is an opportunity to learn anew the theology of our faith on various topics: images of God, scripture, liturgy, sacraments, morality, church's social mission, discipleship, prayer and much more.

Class dates:

August 10, 11, 18

September 14, 15, 22

October 5, 6 and November 3

Sessions times:

Fridays, 6:00 - 9:00pm

Saturdays, 9:30am - 4:00pm

St. Peter Claver Catholic Church

2380 Stow Street

Simi Valley CA 93063

$60.00 per person for 9 sessions
