COMMUNION SONGS

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Ed Bolduc

VERSES

1. There's a wide - ness in God's mer - cy Like the wide - ness of the sea; There's a kind - ness in God's jus - tice, Which is more than lib - er - ty. There is plen - ti - ful re - demp - tion In the blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the mem - bers In the sor - rows of the Head. To Verse 2

2. There is welcome for the sinner,
And a promised grace made good;
There is mercy with the Savior;
There is healing in Christ's blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.
3. For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We would know the living Word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
In the kindness of the Lord.

4. There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice,
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

REFRAIN

So be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is mer - ci - ful. Be mer - ci - ful, just as our God is mer - ci - ful to us. Let there be a wide - ness in our mer -
- cy. Let there be a kind - ness in our hearts.
Oh, may our lives be mer - ci - ful.

Singing at Mass — How God Feels About It

Dear Friends,

Our second reading two weeks ago from the letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians said: Be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father. Over the years, often in the courtyard, I’ve heard a number of reasons given for why not singing at mass would be all right:

Reason Given	Response
My voice is terrible	God doesn’t think so.
I can’t carry a tune	God doesn’t care.
My family tells me not to sing	God tells you to sing. Who wins?
A grownup told me when I was young that I should just “mouth the words” and not ruin the sound by singing out	God disagrees.
I’m “tone deaf”	That’s highly unlikely – science tells us that only between 2% and 5% of people truly are, and many of them can be cured if they’re willing to try to sing.
The songs are too hard	We try to choose singable music, though I’m bound to miss the mark occasionally. With repetition, and your willingness to try, and persist, you’ll learn them.
The songs are too high	So sing them down the octave, or skip certain notes.
I don’t know the songs	Yes, but you can learn them. We normally sing new songs several weeks in a row to help you grow comfortable with them.
I’m not here to make noise ... I’m here to pray quietly	There are times at Mass for quiet, inward prayer, like when the priest says or chants “Let us pray.” At other times, though, God asks us to speak out, gesture, or sing together.
Singing during communion is distracting	Distracting from what? The point of singing during the communion procession is to pray, expressing our unity with God and each other.
I don’t want to spoil what the music ministers are doing	The only way to spoil what we are trying to do in music ministry is by NOT participating, so please do!

As we have heard before, we are not the audience at Mass; God is. We are the performers. Not just the priest, or the choir ... but all of us. Our contribution matters to God, as we see from the Scripture above.

We music ministers are not here to entertain you. We are here to support your efforts to pray in song. Even when the choirs occasionally sing choral music on their own, the aim is not entertainment, but to lift your minds and hearts – along with our own – to God, often by emphasizing a particular idea or image from the day’s readings, or from the season we are celebrating. But those moments are rare and occasional, and will happen mostly at offertory or after communion. Everything else from the entrance song through the sending forth song, is meant to be sung by all present. God doesn’t need our worship but we do. And it does delight him ... and he’s asked for it!

Faith Formation Parent Meetings ~ September 17 or 18

Parents!! Plan to attend one evening to get all the information you need for your kids' formation! 6:30pm in the Serra Center.

Spark! at Home ~ In our Gospel reading today, some people called Pharisees criticized Jesus' followers because they didn't do everything that the Pharisees thought good people should do. Jesus taught us that God wants to find us doing good things with our lives, such as sharing our toys, thinking kind thoughts, and being truthful. Jesus says that it is not the way we look that is most important. It is what we do and say that show people that we are a friend of Jesus.

Three: Sixteen at Home ~ In today's Gospel, Jesus is questioned about his disciples' failure to do something that the Pharisees believed offered evidence of holiness. The Pharisees who questioned him had forgotten the meaning behind the religious practices they observed and taught. They thought that they were making themselves holy by honoring these traditions about making things clean. But Jesus taught that there was something more important than these actions. Jesus taught that the words and attitudes behind our actions are what show us to be holy people. Our religious observances and all our actions should show our total love and obedience to God.

Belong Ministry Fair

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God of us all, who is over all and through all and in all. Ephesians 4:4-6

Over 4 Sundays we'll showcase the ministries our parish offers to encounter Jesus and be disciples. Learn about the ministries we offer for you or someone you know and the ministries to give your talent and time. Visit us in the courtyard after all morning masses.
