Landings

A Caring Ministry for Returning Catholics

If you are an inactive Catholic or attend Mass infrequently, you might consider Landings. We are a group of "recycled" Catholics who, for different reasons, were away from or had issues with the church and came back to regular attendance and active participation.

We share our faith journeys and want to hear your stories. We also discuss contemporary Catholic themes and have resources available for questions about the Catholic faith and the Church.

The next 10 week Landing series:
Thursdays, September 13 - November 15
7:00pm, San Juan Bautista Room

We invite you to come and explore the possibilities! landings@padreserra.org

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 146: Praise the Lord, O My Soul

Timothy R. Smith

1. The Lord is faithful forever, giving justice to the oppressed
and food to the hungry.
The Lord frees all the captives.

2. The Lord restores the blinded and straightens those bowed low.
The Lord protects the stranger;
the Lord loves the just.

3. The Lord guards widows and orphans,
but the way of the wicked he blocks.
The Lord shall reign forever,
for every generation.

Be Open

Dear Friends on the Journey,

What relief we feel when our ears “pop” after descending from high altitude or after being sick! We can hear again. We can speak at a normal volume again. In today’s gospel one word spoken by Jesus provides even greater relief for a deaf man: “Ephphatha” “Be opened.” In that miraculous moment, the man could actually hear and communicate with the world clearly! I can only imagine his joy and relief.

I admit though that I crave the silence the deaf man lived with. Granted his was likely not by choice but nonetheless there are moments and days when I long for just quiet and space void of pinging devices, voices (including my own), media, deadlines, rushing, juggling. Oh the joy to just be in peaceful silence! A few weeks back I reflected on a retreat experience that taught me how silence can heighten senses and increase awareness of God’s presence.

Silence can do even more. Silence is God’s language. When we stop talking at God, he can speak to us. When we close our mouths and open our ears, hearts and minds, we create a space to encounter Jesus, to have our own “ephphatha” moment, to be open to God. In this space, we can then listen to what and where God is calling or inviting us.

Over the next few weeks, we have the opportunity to consider the possibilities. Our parish covenant invites us as individuals and households to examine and reflect our discipleship – how we are living our faith in our homes, church family and neighborhood. The covenant can also help us discern what we need next on our journey.

I invite you these next days and weeks to take the covenant to prayer. Sit in silence and allow God to speak. Be open. God may just be calling you to something more. Then, visit the ministry fair. There might just be a ministry to help you take the next step in healing, learning, growing, prayer, service, action. If not, come see me.

Ephphatha and siempre adelante,

Teresa Runyon
Faith Life Minister

Spark! at Home ~ In our gospel reading today, Jesus heals a man who is deaf and who could not talk very well. Jesus puts his fingers in the man's ears, spits and puts it on his tongue to heal him. He is using His own body to help the man hear and speak better. He does this for each of us now, healing us with his body, when we receive him in Holy Communion. He wants us to be like him, to hear and speak just the way that he does. To listen as Jesus does and speak as he does.

Three: Sixteen at Home ~ "Be Opened!" When we are open, allow new opportunities for relationships, and experiences without preconceived expectations or judgments. When we are open, we make room for others, new thoughts and experiences. At these times, we also allow God to work in us and through us. Where in your life have you been closed off and needed to be more open?

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Mark 7:31-37 ~ Being Open

Jesus is constantly instructing us to listen, be attentive, and be open to stretching ourselves beyond narrow ways of seeing and hearing. Have I ever experienced a time when my own ears were "unplugged" and I heard the message of Jesus differently, an "aha" moment? How has being able to hear more clearly changed me or given me a voice? How or where do I use it?

Belong Ministry Fair

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call, one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God of us all, who is over all and through all and in all. Ephesians 4:4-6

Over 4 Sundays we'll showcase the ministries our parish offers to encounter Jesus and be disciples. Learn about the ministries we offer for you or someone you know and the ministries to give your talent and time. Visit us in the courtyard after all morning masses.
