GATHERING

Our God Is Here

Chris Muglia

Here in this time, here in this place, here we are standing face to face.
Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.
Here for the broken, here for the strong, here in this temple we belong.
Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.

Refrain

And we cry: "Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly are you!" We cry:
"Ho - ly! Ho - ly! Ho - ly and true!" A - men, we do be-lieve our God is here. Our God is here.

Here in the Word, God is revealed, here where the wounded can be healed.
Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.
Here we become what we receive, here in this Eucharistic feast.
We are his body, living as one, our God is here.

Verses

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul.
The decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple. | 4. They are more precious than gold,
than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup
or honey from the comb. |
| 2. The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;
the command of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eye. | 5. Let the words of my mouth
and the thought of my heart
find favor before you, O LORD,
my rock and my redeemer. |
| 3. The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the statutes of the LORD are true,
all of them just. | |

You call me out upon the waters
 The great unknown where feet may fail
 And there I find You in the mystery
 In oceans deep my faith will stand

I will call upon Your Name
 And keep my eyes above the waves
 When oceans rise
 My soul will rest in Your embrace
 For I am Yours, and You are mine

Your grace abounds in deepest waters
 Your sovereign hand will be my guide
 Where feet may fail and fear surrounds me
 You've never failed, and You won't stop now

I will call upon Your Name...

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders
 Let me walk upon the waters
 Wherever You would call me
 Take me deeper than my feet could ever wander
 And my faith will be made stronger
 In the presence of my Savior

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders...

I will call upon Your name
 Keep my eyes above the waves
 My soul will rest in Your embrace
 I am Yours, and You are mine

Live Each Day with A Grateful Heart

Dear Friends,

When you hear the word, Gratitude, what comes to mind? Do you replay the thousands of times your parents reminded you to say please and thank you? Have you noticed how many times we give thanks and praise to our Lord during liturgy every week? Do you only say thank you when you're reminded to do so?

Last week, the parish staff enjoyed a Staff Pray Day facilitated by fellow parishioner, Ann Pettit. The setting, a beautiful spot on the beach in Ventura. The theme for the day, "Gratitude."

The staff pray day couldn't have come at a better time for me and, honestly, I almost didn't attend. I'm really busy with my husband and teenage kids; piles of dirty laundry that aren't going to wash themselves; juggling two jobs with a to-do list that is over three pages long and growing ... It's not that I didn't want to go, I just didn't have time ... I did show up, albeit late, because, well, my life's just that hectic right now ...

I walked in to find my coworkers in a very serene state of mind, quietly reflecting and so peaceful. My first thought was, "Where can I get some of that feeling? I'm too stressed to be like that!"

Ann helped me realize that I've been letting the wrong task list take the power position in my life. That I need to retrain myself to stop and give thanks, genuine thanks throughout the day, even for the little things. And that I should give thanks for the good times and the bad, because there's something special in all that God has planned for us. How is that possible? Why give thanks for bad things? Take for example, a glass of spilled milk. You know the saying, "Don't cry over spilled milk?" While there's no sense getting mad about the spill now that it's happened, we should instead be giving thanks that we had a glass of milk in the first place ...

So, as I let myself unwind and live in the moment, I was able to feel a special communion with God taking place. I stopped, looked, listened, breathed, cried, laughed and then cried a lot more as I let the world around me come into better focus. And all because I slowed down enough to truly and deeply say, "Thank you, God."

As I write this note, I'm on day number three of my personal stop, drop and pray program. I can already feel a greater sense of calm as I reclassify some of my daily challenges into grateful opportunities. It's hard to believe the power of simply saying thank you.

I'd like to thank all of you, my parish family, for being so wonderful to me and my family. We are truly blessed to be members of this loving parish community. I see God's grace in all of you; how you truly care for each other and strangers; how you give of yourselves to make Padre Serra a loving and welcoming place to help our community encounter Jesus and be disciples.

Thank you, Ann for helping me find greater focus. I am forever grateful.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

The process of becoming Catholic is not one-size-fits-all! It always takes into account the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic, but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's Faith. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We will begin meeting again soon on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shadduck today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Cultivating Friendship

with God,
Self & Others

Friday, October 19 - Saturday, October 20

A retreat experience for women of all ages seeking growth in their relationships with God, self and friends, presented by our Seeds of Faith team in the Serra Center.

It can be challenging to hear God's voice above the noise of everyday life. Come for quiet and stillness and to "waste time" with God. Faith is strengthened in community. Come share with and learn from one another. Women need friendships of all kinds, especially spiritual ones. Come meet sisters in Christ to pray, worship, eat, and get to know one another.

Invite your friend, mom, sister, daughter, neighbor, co-worker!

Friday 6:30 - 8:30pm
Dinner will be served.

Saturday 9:30am - 6:00pm
Breakfast and lunch will be served. We'll conclude with 5:00pm mass.

*$40/person. Register by October 15.
Form available in the parish office and at
