SENDING FORTHBlessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed be Your name

REFRAIN:

Ev-ry bless - ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.
When the dark - ness clos - es in, Lord, still I will say,
"Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your glo - ri - ous name."

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

You give and take a-way, You give and take a-way. My heart will choose to say, "Lord, Bless - ed be Your name." You name.

Blessed be the name of the Lord...

“This One, at Last”

Dear Faith Family,

This Sunday's Gospel can be perceived as controversial. There are always legitimate concerns about the morality of divorce and it was no different back then. While the Church does have a stance on the morality of divorce (which is not as black and white as it seems in the Gospel), I do invite you all to look at this reading with a different lens. Let's not be like the Pharisees who try to distract Jesus from preaching the good news. Instead of focusing on the conversation on divorce, it may be best to focus on how Jesus talks about the beauty of marriage.

The way Jesus explains the marital union as “two becoming one” is quite unique and intimate. I am blessed to have been married to my wife Britney for over 2 years and as many of you know, marriage is quite a wonderful journey. The joys of being with someone you adore is hard to express in words and I'm lucky that our commitment to each other has helped us through the inevitable difficulties of life.

I must say though, the thing I cherish most about my marriage, is the willingness to bring each other closer to Christ. And as many of you know, there are so many married couples that exemplify Christ's love, and they motivate us to be holier people.

In the first reading this Sunday, from the book of Genesis, the bond between Adam and Eve bring so much joy that Adam can't help but exalt his joy through poetry:

“This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh.”

The beauty of this union is evident in not only the Gospels, but the book of Genesis. In the beginning of the Old Testament, to the start of the New Testament. It's quite amazing to think that God has intended for marriage to be so intimate and complementary.

Divorce is rough, but like hell, if we focus on the fear of living as opposed to the joy of salvation/joy, we tend to miss the mark. The Gospels aren't intended to be fear driven but it's quite the opposite. It is clear that the Pharisees are trying to prevent Jesus from preaching about the glory of salvation, but Jesus makes sure to not be distracted by their challenge.

This is why the meaning of evangelization is “sharing the good news,” we were created to be creatures that yearn for union.

If you are someone going through divorce, please know that you are both welcome and loved at the Church. If you need any discussion, counseling or prayer, we will always be here.

God Bless,

Brett Becker
Youth and Young Adult Minister

Volunteer! It Takes a Parish!

From a current member of the St. Vincent de Paul ministry: "Being a volunteer is a blessing. It makes me aware of the blessings in my own life. Viewing the world through the eyes of the less fortunate keeps me grounded and more aware of the people around me. Our parish conference is very special. The love and support we receive from our fellow Vincentians is wonderful and the service itself keeps faith in front of everything you do. Come and join us and count your blessings."

Safeguard the Children

Mutual Respect is Key for Friendships

Your child will make many friends throughout his lifetime. As children grow, their interests change and develop, and they meet many new people along the way. But as children make new friends, mutual respect should be the guiding principle of these relationships. Parents, talk to your children about how they should feel in a friendship — true friends care about each other and respect each other's thoughts and feelings and personal boundaries. If your child isn't receiving respect from her friends, she is learning to accept less than she deserves in a relationship. And if she is the one who doesn't give respect to her friends, she is learning emotional power. For more information on teaching your children about true friendships, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

The process of becoming Catholic is not one-size-fits-all! It always takes into account the individual background, circumstances, and needs of each person. Have you been thinking about investigating becoming Catholic, but have not yet taken the step to email or call the parish? Now is the time to meet with Catherine to explore the possibilities and work out a plan for you. Or perhaps you just want to learn more about your spouse's Faith. It's OK to "test the waters" by attending an Inquiry meeting or two to see what it's like. We will begin meeting again soon on Tuesday evenings in a relaxed setting where you can ask all your questions with no judgment or pressure to join the Church. Call or email Catherine Shadduck today for more information: (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Cultivating Friendship

with God,
Self & Others

Friday, October 19 - Saturday, October 20

A retreat experience for women of all ages seeking growth in their relationships with God, self and friends, presented by our Seeds of Faith team in the Serra Center.

It can be challenging to hear God's voice above the noise of everyday life. Come for quiet and stillness and to "waste time" with God. Faith is strengthened in community. Come share with and learn from one another. Women need friendships of all kinds, especially spiritual ones. Come meet sisters in Christ to pray, worship, eat, and get to know one another.

Invite your friend, mom, sister, daughter, neighbor, co-worker!

Friday 6:30 - 8:30pm
Dinner will be served.

Saturday 9:30am - 6:00pm
Breakfast and lunch will be served. We'll conclude with 5:00pm mass.

*$40/person. Register in the courtyard today.
Deadline is October 15. Form available in the parish office and at padreserra.org/news/womens-retreat*
