Thanksgiving Day

Thursday, November 22
Mass 8:00am

Did you know that Eucharist means thanksgiving?

Start your holiday with fellow parishioners at mass. Our local tradition is to bring the bread, wine or cider that will be shared at the Thanksgiving table to church. We lay them on the altar steps where they will be blessed before we take them back home to serve to those we love.

Celebrate True Sabbath

Sunday is fun day for families, a day to spend time with God and friends too. Enjoy the lovely fellowship and conversation in the courtyard, prayer gardens, chapel and a myriad of ways to connect the kids. Plan to spend a couple of hours.

GLORIA

Glory to God (Mass of St. Ann)

Ed Bolduc

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Glory! Glory to God in the highest.
Glory! Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps.146: Praise the Lord, O My Soul

Timothy R. Smith

Praise the Lord, _ O _ my soul! _ Praise the Lord, _ O _ my soul! _

1. The Lord is faithful forever,
giving justice to the oppressed
and food to the hungry.
The Lord frees all the captives.
2. The Lord restores the blinded
and straightens those bowed low.
The Lord protects the stranger;
the Lord loves the just.
3. The Lord guards widows and orphans,
but the way of the wicked he blocks.
The Lord shall reign forever,
for every generation.

SENDING FORTHBlessed Be Your Name

Matt Redman & Beth Redman

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed be Your name

REFRAIN:

Ev - ry bless - ing You pour out I'll turn back to praise.
When the dark - ness clos - es in, Lord, still I will say,
"Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your name. Bless-ed be the name of the Lord, bless-ed be Your glo - ri - ous name."

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's all as it should be
Blessed be Your name

Blessed be Your name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your name

Every blessing You pour out I'll turn back to praise...

You give and take a - way, You give and take a - way. My heart will choose to say, "Lord, Bless - ed be Your name." You name."

Blessed be the name of the Lord...

Whole-Hearted Trust

Dear friends on the journey,

Today's readings give us stories of two women who gave when they had nothing to give.

In the first reading, we see Elijah asking for something to eat and drink from a poor, widowed mom who is sure that she and her son will die from hunger. She does not have enough for all of them at that moment, much less for the days to come. Nevertheless, she does. The poor widow in the gospel was probably no different. Two coins was all she could give, a few cents that could have provided her a meal. Nevertheless, she does.

As I reflected and prayed on these stories, the woman in the first reading really resonated with me. I could imagine the desperation and worry she must have been feeling. Have you ever had a day when you felt like you had left nothing to give anyone, wondered where you were going to find the energy, or you just did not feel like "adulting" another day? I have experienced similar moments, days, and seasons when I did not know how I was going to provide for the needs of my little family of five. My jar was low of food, money, energy, compassion, enthusiasm, or wisdom. I was nearing empty. I think this is just life. Not every day is going to be easy and smooth sailing. However, these women can be extraordinary examples for us of how to get through those rough days and when I think of them, the word that comes to mind is trust.

Had the gospel widow already experienced God's abundant generosity in her life that now, as a widow, she continues to trust in God's generosity? How much trust did the widowed mother really have in Elijah's assurance that if she gives, God will truly provide?

I think we can all see ourselves in their situations. They call to mind moments that I took my worries to God and trusted he would provide for my physical, emotional and spiritual needs, and he did. Recently I came across this quote: So far you have survived 100% of your worst days. In hindsight, we can see it is so true. We are here today by God's grace, hopefully stronger, better and wiser for the challenge and the gifts that came with it.

These women remind us to trust with our whole heart that our good and gracious God will provide us with the strength, energy, wisdom and grace to give generously, to put one foot in front of the other, and to do the next right thing. Perhaps the hardest part about whole-hearted trust is accepting that the outcome may not be what we want or think we need.

This week let us spend some time reflecting on God's generous care in the past and on any situations now that we might need to just surrender our will and trust in God's will.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Are You Called to Be a Parish Sponsor?

We currently are blessed to have quite a few new people seeking to become Catholic. We would like to introduce them to parishioners who can welcome them and make them feel at home in our Padre Serra community. The role of parish sponsor is not the same as godparent or Confirmation sponsor. A parish sponsor is a friendly face in a sea of strangers at Sunday Mass; someone to sit with at the pancake breakfast or an adult formation evening; a good listener who encourages the seeker on his or her spiritual journey. Parish sponsors need not be saints or theologians! You are simply ordinary parishioners who give witness by sharing your everyday experiences as Catholics. Please consider serving in this vital ministry. For more information or to sign up, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Our Giving

Marthas and Matthews

The Marthas and Matthews ministry lovingly cares for our church and sacred chapel. The group meets every Wednesday morning to clean. If you are interested in lending a hand, please contact Karen at barranca5@hotmail.com

Fairways to Heaven ~ Parishioners Invited to Volunteer!

Join the team of parishioners producing the Fairways to Heaven tournament to raise money for expansion of our Youth Ministry space. Our annual tournament is an opportunity to come together in fellowship to contribute to the future of our parish and church community. Activities include golf and corn hole tournaments, helicopter golf ball drop, silent and live auctions, dinner and live entertainment. We are seeking volunteers to join this fun team and have many "job openings" available. Please contact evacollier@verizon.net for more information."

Christmas in the Courtyard

November 17, 18 after mass

Helping those in need locally and globally. Your Christmas gift buying is double the blessing! Purchasing the below items for your loved ones also benefits our sisters and brothers in need here at home and around the globe.

• Concern America (Sunday only) ~ Marketplace of Fair Trade Crafts

This program provides direct support to materially impoverished artisans and their communities in Latin America, Asia, and Africa.

We have an opportunity to support them by purchasing their beautiful hand-made items: handcrafted textiles, ceramics and wood products from Bangladesh, El Salvador Guatemala, Mexico, and Mozambique.

Gary & Chella Freeberg gfreeberg@gmail.com, www.concernamerica.org

• Life Centers of Ventura County ~ Poinsettia Plants

• Knights of Columbus ~ Christmas Cards

• St. Vincent de Paul ~ See's Candy

Las Posadas

Tuesday, December 4

6:00pm in church

Fiesta to follow at Serra Center

Las Posadas is a Mexican tradition commemorating Mary and Joseph's long frustrating search for a place to stay and Jesus to be born in Bethlehem.

This Advent custom re-enacts the gospel story told in Luke 2:1-7 with prayer and song. We learn from the Posadas that by welcoming the poor and needy, we are welcoming Jesus in our midst.

Let us come together for a fun, interactive and enriching Advent celebration to prepare our hearts for Jesus' coming!

Come early to learn the posadas songs and stay for a fiesta with a piñata for the kids and goodies for the adults!

Please RSVP: parish@padreserra.org or www.padreserra.org/news/las-posadas
