Am I Not Here Who Am Your Mother?

Dear Parish Family,

Happy New Year! It is the most wonderful time of the year ... Advent; joyfully anticipating the birth of Jesus. I want to encourage you this Advent season to pray with Our Mother Mary; she too is our Advent wreath leading us to her son, Jesus.

Through our history, we have been sent many messengers: the angels, the prophets and apostles and the saints. All echo the same Good News, Jesus is the Truth, the Light, and the Way. Our Mother Mary is our most recent messenger sent from heaven. She takes on the likeness of those who she speaks to, making sure we recognize the message is meant for us. Through Mary we reach Jesus, through Jesus we reach the Father. This month we have two feast days in her honor, December 8, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (Mary is conceived without sin), and on December 12, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

There is so much I would like to share about Our Lady of Guadalupe but I will not have space, so I will keep it brief. The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe is huge for the Mexican people, not only for having the honor of having Our Mother appear in Mexico but to have been given the privilege to have her image left for us to visit. Her story and her message have earned her the title of Patroness of the Americas (North & South). Her messages in all her apparitions throughout the world are never about her, she always points to her Son. The Mother of God appeared to St. Juan Diego in Mexico in 1531, requesting a church be built. "My dear little son, I love you. I desire you to know who I am. I am the ever-virgin Mary, Mother of the true God who gives life and maintains its existence. He created all things. He is in all places. He is Lord of Heaven and Earth. I desire a church in this place where your people may experience my compassion. All those who sincerely ask my help in their work and in their sorrows will know my Mother's heart in this place. Here I will see their tears; I will console them and they will be at peace." When the bishop asked for a sign, St. Juan Diego presented him with his tilma. It was filled with Castilian roses. When St. Juan Diego opens his tilma to expose the roses, they all saw the image of Santa Maria de Guadalupe was miraculously imprinted on it. It was left on a native fiber, meant only to last 30 years at most; however, it has been hundreds of years and the image is still perfectly intact. This is only the first of many miracles. Her image and words have spoken so clearly to all generations, she has aid in the conversion of millions.

"Hear and let it penetrate into your heart, my dear little son: Let nothing discourage you, nothing depress you. Let nothing alter your heart or your countenance. Also, do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety or pain. Am I not here who am your mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle, in the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else that you need?"

Our Lady of Guadalupe's motherly love for us is palpable. What a better advocate for us, than someone who understands all our struggles perfectly. Come to her, pray with her, especially in your times of need. She will help us clear the path and take our petitions to her loving son. Let us confidently journey our advent season in hope, joy and love.

Faith Sharing

Reflection questions for every gathering around any table.

Luke 21:25-28, 34-36 ~ Jesus Will Come Again in Glory; Be Not Afraid

Advent calls us to prepare for the remembering of the Word made Flesh at Christmas, and directs us to wait with alertness for Jesus' second coming. Today's gospel uses apocalyptic imagery to describe the return of Christ and Paul exhorts us to "make greater progress" in our spiritual lives so we will be ready for Christ's return, without fear.

Advent Reflection: What is one thing I can do to prepare myself spiritually for Christmas? What step could I take this Advent to make greater progress in my own life?

Advent Action: Make an Advent resolution to be with the world; do something for others that is right and just.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Advent and Catholic Inquiry

Those of us who have been Catholics all our lives often take the symbols and rituals of Advent for granted. But for those who are seeking to join the Church, the pre-Christmas season presents an opportunity to immerse themselves more deeply into the Catholic way of life. They catch the spirit of joyful anticipation as they worship with us on Sundays. They are full of questions about the Advent wreath, the liturgical colors, the Parish Reconciliation Service, and the meaning of the scriptures chosen for Advent. They learn the Catholic way of preparing for Christmas by attending our parish events and participating in works of charity like Angel Tags. The not-yet-Catholic seekers among us can be models of wonder and awe for those of us who may have become a little less enthusiastic about the season. Invite your non-Catholic friends and relatives to attend mass with you. It may refresh your own sense of this meaningful time of year. If you or anyone you know is interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church, please contact Catherine Shadduck at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Las Posadas

Tuesday, December 4
6:00pm in church

Fiesta to follow in the Serra Center

Las Posadas is a Mexican tradition commemorating Mary and Joseph's long frustrating search for a place to stay and Jesus to be born in Bethlehem.

This Advent custom re-enacts the gospel story told in Luke 2:1-7 with prayer and song. We learn from the Posadas that by welcoming the poor and needy, we are welcoming Jesus in our midst.

Let us come together for a fun, interactive and enriching Advent celebration to prepare our hearts for Jesus' coming!

Come early to learn the posadas songs and stay for a fiesta with a piñata for the kids and goodies for the adults!

Please RSVP: www.padreserra.org/news/las-posadas
