Let the Joy We Find In Jesus Endure

Dear Friends,

During the third week of Advent, a rose-colored candle is added to the advent wreath to remind us of the gift of joy that God gave us in his only son, the infant, Jesus Christ.

Jesus was born at a time when there was significant suffering, hardship and heartbreak. He brought the Holy Spirit, hope, unconditional love, courage and strength. By his words and deeds, he showed us how to care for each other in good times and bad.

It's important to remember that God's joy, Jesus, is always with us. While at times it may feel quite small, the hope, joy and resiliency of the Holy Spirit is not extinguished even during times of despair and heartbreak. The resiliency of our faith carries us one step at a time through the rough patches. It helps us come together as a community to support one another and to do as Jesus would do...

I initially struggled to find joy in this Advent season as I reflected upon recent events that impacted our community and parish family. And then it came to me with greater understanding when I read the following quotation from Pope Francis in Evangelii Gaudium, 6. "Joy adapts and changes, but it always endures, even as a flicker of light born of our personal certainty that, when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved. I understand the grief of people who have to endure great suffering, yet slowly but surely we all have to let the joy of faith slowly revive as a quiet yet firm trust, even amid the greatest distress."

So, while my outward expression of joy this Advent season may be a bit different from previous Advents, my inner peace, belief, hope and trust in our Lord is unwavering. I feel this renewal and promise as I look at the infant, Jesus. I celebrate in all that He represents, all that He has done for us and all the blessings to come.

I thank all of you, my Parish Family, for being a beacon of light for each other and for others in need during times of struggle and sorrow.

Joy is a gift from Jesus himself. The more we help spread Joy to others, the more we live in the way God intended.

Merry Christmas and God bless.

Becoming Catholic ~ RCIA

Extend a Christmas Invitation to Your Non-Catholic Family and Friends

People are initially attracted to the Catholic Church for many different reasons. For some, it is the beauty of our worship spaces, the solemnity of our rituals and the reverence they observe as we celebrate Mass. But if they are never invited to join us, how will they ever be touched by these things? This year ask your friends and relatives to join you at one of our Christmas Masses. They will certainly catch our spirit as we celebrate the birth of Jesus together amid the beautiful poinsettias and lighted evergreen trees. They cannot help but feel joy as we sing together and gratitude as we praise God for the gift of his Son. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic Church, please contact Catherine Shaddock at (805) 482-6417 x331 or catherine@padreserra.org

Holiday Travel Awareness

Many of us will be traveling over the holiday season. All family members (parents, teenagers & children) are encouraged to live in the moment! Put away your electronic devices while walking through busy airports, crossing streets and weaving through dense crowds. It is too easy to become distracted by phones and other devices. It only takes a moment for family members to get separated or accidents to happen. Be safe and make wonderful memories together.
